CE GLOBAL NETWORK LLP, Complainant, v. OCEAN LINE LOGISTICS, INC., Respondent.	Docket No. 2062(F) Proceeding under Subpart T, 46 C.F.R. §§ 502.311–502.315

COMPLAINANT'S REPLY TO RESPONDENT'S CONSOLIDATED ANSWER

(46 C.F.R. § 502.313 · HMM Sea Waybill DALA20444700)

1. Complainant claims USD 4,875.00, paid on 10 April 2026 on Respondent's invoice INV-12431 (25 February 2026) for a change of destination to Jebel Ali. Complainant requested that diversion (Supp. Exh. K). The containers were not carried to Jebel Ali (Limited Supplemental Statement ¶ 7; Supp. Exh. M). Respondent states that HMM processed the request and revised the booking and sea waybill, denies that the COD service was "wholly unperformed", and states that the USD 4,875 was "applied" to carrier and diversion costs of USD 13,201, relying on Mr Jiang's declarations (Answer ¶¶ 4, 6–8; Decl. ¶¶ 3–9). The disputed issue is the basis for retaining and allocating each component of INV-12431 (Tables 1–3). This Reply does not assume that Complainant's Request for Leave of 17 September 2026 has been allowed; the relief sought is unchanged.

25 Feb	INV-12431 issued, USD 4,875.00; P.O.D./ETA Jebel Ali, 16 March	Resp. Exh. A
7 Apr	HMM advised Respondent's co-loader, Ocean Link Forwarding, Inc., that service to Jebel Ali was unavailable	Answer ¶ 5; Resp. Exh. D
10 Apr	Complainant paid INV-12431, USD 4,875.00	Answer ¶ 6
13 Apr	Respondent states that it paid HMM USD 5,920.00	Answer ¶ 7; Resp. Exh. E
16 Apr	Respondent told Complainant that Jebel Ali could not be completed	Answer ¶ 5
8 Jun	INV-12746 issued, USD 7,281.00, one line "cod extra"; paid 10 June under reservation	Answer ¶ 7; Supp. Exh. L
27–31 Jul	Containers arrived at Khor Fakkan and were gated out; not carried to Jebel Ali	Ltd. Supp. Stmt ¶ 7; Supp. Exh. M

Table 2 — Respondent's invoices to Complainant for DALA20444700 and Complainant's payments (USD)

INV-12746 8 Jun 2026	"cod extra" (one line)	7,281.00	10 Jun 2026, under reservation	Supp. Exh. L
Total paid		17,621.00

2. The UOB remittance printout shows USD 25,665 and the status "Processing"; Complainant relies on it together with Respondent's statements of 29 January 2026 (listing INV-12273-R1) and 18 February 2026 (no longer listing it) to support the payment allocation to INV-12273-R1 (Exh. Q). Respondent compares the USD 12,156 it collected on INV-12431 and INV-12746 with USD 13,201 in asserted carrier charges (Decl. ¶ 9). The filed records do not identify whether any component of that USD 13,201 was covered by INV-12273-R1.

Mr Jiang, same email	—	—	"You can see the total diversion cost is $12141+400+60+450+150, We charged CE $4875+$7281."	Resp. Exh. F

3. Each figure in Table 3 is shown as the document states it; Complainant does not present any of them as the final total of charges for this bill of lading. The filed records do not show how the collect amounts on the 16 June copy were subsequently adjusted, cancelled, paid, or transferred to prepaid, or how those changes relate to Respondent's asserted application of the USD 4,875.

4. INV-12273-R1 and INV-12431 each fell due on the day of issue and state: "Cargo will be released only upon receiving ocean freight payment AND shipper instruction of release." (Exh. P; Resp. Exh. A). The conduct at issue is not that release condition but Respondent's receipt of the USD 4,875 on 10 April 2026, three days after HMM advised Respondent's co-loader that service to Jebel Ali was unavailable, and its retention and asserted application of that sum. Respondent describes an aggregate application of funds; the filed records do not identify how each component of INV-12431 was applied to the charges in that calculation (Tables 2 and 3). The questions for decision are whether the conduct is a normal, customary and continuous practice (46 C.F.R. § 545.4(b)) that fails to observe and enforce just and reasonable practices (46 U.S.C. § 41102(c)), whether it caused the loss claimed, and whether the USD 4,875 should be returned.

5. Under 46 C.F.R. § 502.314, Complainant proposes that Respondent be directed to file, to the extent in its possession or reasonably available to it: (i) HMM's invoices, statements, credit notes and re-rating records for DALA20444700, identifying the party billed; (ii) any billing to Respondent by Ocean Link Forwarding, Inc. for this bill of lading; (iii) Respondent's records of the receipt of the USD 4,875 and of each allocation, use or credit of it, with the related charge or invoice; (iv) the collect-charge adjustment records needed to verify that allocation; and (v) the basis for retaining each INV-12431 item. Any document not available should be identified with its holder.

6. In this proceeding, Complainant seeks no refund of USD 7,281.00 or USD 5,465.00 and no additional principal damages; its claim is confined to the sum paid on INV-12431. Complainant requests:

Reparations	USD 4,875.00
Interest	46 C.F.R. § 502.253, from 10 April 2026 or as the Presiding Judge determines
FMC filing fee, requested as costs	USD 176.00

Dear Arohi,

As far as we know there is no additional COD charges at this time to be added. There was a significant amount of cost reduction to help mitigate this container due to the ME situation.

Dear Arohi,

Thank you for the account confirmation. Two final points for our records on B/L DALA20444700:

1. This shipment underwent successive changes of destination — originally Port Klang, then Singapore, then Jebel Ali, and finally Khor Fakkan. Could you confirm that the prepaid amount of USD 8,838.00 at LAXBR represents the total prepaid freight and charges for this bill of lading across all of those routing changes, with no further prepaid amount billed at any stage.
2. Could you also confirm whether HMM raised any transshipment, storage or handling charges at Singapore in respect of this bill of lading.

Dear Ralph,

Further to my email of 4 August, may I follow up on the three points raised. If any of them falls outside your desk, I would be grateful if you could indicate the correct contact.

On point 1 in particular: we note the containers were released at Khor Fakkan on 31 July 2026 and the empties returned on 1 August 2026. Please confirm that no freight or charge remains outstanding against B/L DALA20444700.

Kind regards,

Subject: Re: RE: please send us a copy of the arrival notice with its invoice at destination for DALA20444700

Dear Ralph,

Thank you for re-sending the freight copy on 3 August.

May I ask for written confirmation on three points for our records:

1. Freight status. Please confirm whether there is any outstanding or unpaid freight or charge remaining against B/L DALA20444700, or whether all freight and charges under this bill of lading have been fully settled.
2. Destination billing. Please confirm whether invoice DXF2607300011 dated 30 July 2026 (AED 3,248.70), receipted under DXR26073000069, is the only invoice issued at destination against this bill of lading, and whether any further destination charge has been or will be raised. -- please do not bill any more additional charges to destination consignee because both containers have been empty return at Middle east.
3. Freight copy. The copy you sent on 3 August is printed 16 June 2026. As the routing was subsequently performed direct on HMM MANILA 0025W ex Singapore rather than via Nhava Sheva, please confirm whether the 16 June freight copy remains the final and current version, or whether the charges were re-rated after the routing change. In particular, please advise what the following two lines represent:
 - ADD 4H 2.0000 × 5,500.00 = USD 11,000.00
 - ADD BL 1.0000 × -5,920.00

We are reconciling our records for this shipment and would be grateful for a short written reply on each point.

Kind regards,

James Chen
