Dear Mr. Creel:

This is in response to Cosco North America's request to match their competitors' 24-hour rate filing instead of having to wait 30 days as required by the F.M.C.

Cosco has a very good reputation as a global carrier and we have no complaints about them. However, due to the 30 day filing restriction they have to adhere to, we are not always able to book containers with them as they are not able to respond to us on a timely basis. We have to get back to our clients with rates within 24 hours; therefore, it is essential that Cosco be able to give us rates quickly.

I hope you will take this into consideration.

Yours sincerely,

Nora H. Negron
