

FEDERAL MARITIME COMMISSION

Office of Administrative Law Judges

TZ SSE BUYER, LLC, Complainant

v.

CMA CGM S.A., Respondent.

DOCKET NO. 24-07

Served: March 6, 2025

ORDER OF: Erin M. WIRTH, Chief Administrative Law Judge.

ORDER ON PROPOSED DISCOVERY SCHEDULE

On March 5, 2025, the parties filed a joint status report and proposed discovery schedule (“JSR”). The proposed discovery schedule sets the deposition dates of Complainant’s expert witness as March 21, 2025, and Respondent’s corporate representative as April 2, 2025. The discovery schedule is reasonable and complies with the deadlines established in the Second Revised Scheduling Order issued on February 6, 2025. It is therefore ORDERED that the parties comply with the dates in the Second Revised Scheduling Order as well as the deposition dates in the JSR.

In addition, the parties are advised that pursuant to Commission Rule 502.2, all filings “must be filed with the Secretary, Federal Maritime Commission.” This filing requirement applies to both the confidential and public versions of filings. The Commission has waived paper filing requirements and permitted filings by email. Therefore, filings of confidential versions of documents, as well as the public version, should be sent by email to secretary@fmc.gov with a courtesy copy to judges@fmc.gov and opposing parties. Emails with confidential materials should be clearly marked, with the word CONFIDENTIAL in the email subject line and text as well as on the documents themselves.
