Small Claim Statement for Informal Adjudication
Federal Maritime Commission, Washington, D.C.
CE GLOBAL NETWORK LLP, Claimant

v.

OCEAN LINE LOGISTICS, INC., Respondent
HMM Sea Waybill DALA20444700 - Containers KOCU4883698 / SEGU5702890

Revised Small Claim Statement - Revised to Include Respondent Mailing Address and Section VII Authorization

Important limitation of this claim: This is a DALA20444700-focused claim. The claim concerns Ocean Line Logistics, Inc. in connection with the handling, release, notice, routing, charges, tariff basis, and attempted use of unrelated invoices in connection with a U.S. export shipment documented for Jebel Ali, Dubai, U.A.E.

I. CLAIMANT

Claimant CE GLOBAL NETWORK LLP is a Singapore-domiciled limited liability partnership engaged in freight forwarding and logistics services, with principal place of business at 27 Trevoze Crescent, Singapore 298042. Claimant appears through its authorized representative, Chen Zelin (James), Admin Manager, CE GLOBAL NETWORK LLP.

The relevant cargo interest / shipper party for the subject shipment is YUWEI GLOBAL INC., which appears in the shipper/exporter field of the HMM Sea Waybill through "OCEAN LINK FORWARDING, INC. C/O YUWEI GLOBAL INC."

II. RESPONDENT

The named Respondent in this Small Claim is:

Ocean Line Logistics, Inc.

440 E. Huntington Dr. Suite 300

Arcadia, CA 91006

United States

Tel: 626-574-8808

Cell: 949-350-6381

Email: wilson@oceanlineus.com

Booking: booking@oceanlineus.com

Documentation: doc@oceanlineus.com

Ocean Link Forwarding, Inc. is referenced in this Small Claim only because it appears in shipment documents and communications. Ocean Link Forwarding, Inc. is not named as a Respondent in this Small Claim.

Respondent Ocean Line Logistics, Inc. is a United States-based logistics / forwarding / ocean transportation intermediary party with an address shown above. In this transaction, Ocean Line acted as the party communicating with Claimant, collecting payment, issuing invoices, presenting statements, coordinating release / routing communications, and representing that cargo release required payment and/or shipper release instruction.

III. MATTERS GIVING RISE TO THE CLAIM

This claim concerns HMM Sea Waybill / B/L No. DALA20444700 and two containers: KOCU4883698 and SEGU5702890.

The shipment was documented as a U.S. export shipment moving from Atlanta, GA / Savannah, GA, U.S.A., to Jebel Ali, Dubai, U.A.E., under HMM Sea Waybill DALA20444700 / Booking No. US2500081. The Sea Waybill shows Port of Loading Savannah, GA, Port of Discharge Jebel Ali, Dubai, U.A.E., Place of Delivery Jebel Ali, Dubai, U.A.E., and consignee / notify party LINMAN FZCO, Jebel Ali Freezone, Dubai, U.A.E. The Sea Waybill was issued as a non-negotiable Sea Waybill with freight stated as prepaid / all as arranged.

Claimant disputes Ocean Line Logistics, Inc.'s handling, notice, charges, release demands, and attempted use of unrelated statement balances or invoices in connection with this shipment.

A. Timeline and late disclosure

Date / Event	Material Facts
March 1-2, 2026	HMM public tracking showed the containers discharged / stopped at PSA Singapore ex ONE MILLAU V.0045W. Claimant was not promptly informed that the shipment had stopped and that Jebel Ali / Middle East routing would not be performed.
April 10, 2026	Claimant paid Ocean Line Logistics, Inc. a total of USD 24,875 by telegraphic transfer, including USD 4,875 allocated to the destination-change / COD service needed to route DALA20444700 onward from Singapore to Jebel Ali, Dubai.
April 15, 2026	Ocean Line released / arranged release after payment.
April 16, 2026	Only after payment and release, Claimant was informed that the containers could not proceed as originally arranged, and alternatives such as Jeddah or Khor Fakkan were discussed.
April 21, 2026	Only later, Claimant was informed that the containers could not proceed to the Middle East at all.
May 7-8, 2026	Claimant requested a practical mitigation path and asked Ocean Line to keep DALA20444700 separate from unrelated invoices/deposits, provide official HMM / terminal support, provide charge calculation, and refund or credit USD 4,875 if the Middle East routing would not be performed.

May 12-13, 2026	Claimant contacted HMM directly. HMM acknowledged the matter and forwarded it internally for assistance. HMM materials continued to show Jebel Ali / Dubai documentation and routing references.

The late disclosure is central. If Ocean Line Logistics, Inc. already knew or should have known that the containers had stopped in Singapore and could not continue to Jebel Ali / Middle East, such information should have been disclosed before Ocean Line requested or accepted payment and before release was arranged. Instead, payment was collected, release followed, and the material routing problem was disclosed only afterward.

B. Online record / Sea Waybill still supported Jebel Ali or Middle East routing

Claimant understands that public tracking and the Sea Waybill continued to support Jebel Ali / Middle East documentation. However, Ocean Line represented that the shipment could not proceed as originally documented, while also not providing timely official HMM restriction, terminal invoice, charge calculation, or DALA20444700-only mitigation path. This created uncertainty, storage exposure, and additional charges.

C. Ocean Line statements dated May 11 / 13, 2026

Ocean Line Logistics, Inc. sent statements to CE GLOBAL NETWORK LLP showing a broad group of open charges and unpaid invoices, including unrelated shipments and disputed invoice items. Claimant does not admit those charges. Claimant disputes any attempt to use the broader statement balance, including disputed non-DALA items, to hold, delay, block, condition, or pressure the release, routing, settlement, or mitigation of DALA20444700.

IV. CHARGES / OVERCHARGES CHALLENGED

This claim is not a dispute over basic ocean freight only. Ocean freight under HMM Sea Waybill DALA20444700 was marked freight prepaid / freight all as arranged. This claim concerns unreasonable practices, unsupported charges, and reparations arising from handling, notice, release, routing, storage, and delivery-related conduct.

Claimant challenges, including but not limited to:

- USD 4,875 paid to Ocean Line for the destination-change / COD service to route the two containers onward to Jebel Ali / Middle East, which was not performed or refunded;
- Singapore storage, port, transshipment, demurrage, detention, roll-over, rebooking, mitigation, or amendment charges caused or increased by late notice, non-performance, and failure to provide official HMM support;
- Any DALA20444700-related charge based only on HMM estimated figures without official HMM invoice, terminal invoice, free-time calculation, daily rate, charge period, tariff rule, or written contractual basis;
- Any attempt to use unrelated invoices, deposits, longstanding deposits, miscellaneous charges, or other shipment charges as a cross-hold or leverage against DALA20444700;
- Any attempt to impose the May statement broader open balance as a condition for resolving or releasing DALA20444700.

Claimant further challenges whether Ocean Line Logistics, Inc. had clear published tariff authority, NRA, service contract, written agreement, carrier invoice, terminal invoice, debit note, or calculation supporting the disputed charges and cross-hold / release pressure connected with this shipment. General bill of lading clauses and general tariff language cannot replace a clear charge item, specific tariff item, NRA, written agreement, carrier invoice, terminal invoice, debit note, or calculation.

V. STATUTE CLAIMED TO HAVE BEEN VIOLATED

Claimant alleges violation of 46 U.S.C. § 41102(c), concerning just and reasonable practices relating to or connected with receiving, handling, storing, or delivering property. Claimant alleges that Ocean Line Logistics, Inc. failed to establish, observe, and enforce just and reasonable practices in connection with DALA20444700 by:

- collecting payment while failing to disclose that the containers had already stopped / been held in Singapore and allegedly could not proceed to Jebel Ali / Middle East;
- accepting payment for a COD / destination-change service that was allegedly not performed or capable of being performed;
- failing to provide timely, official, written notice or official HMM / terminal support;
- failing to provide official HMM notice, restriction, carrier support, terminal invoice, charge calculation, or tariff item supporting the position that the shipment could not proceed to Jebel Ali / Middle East;
- using unrelated invoices, deposits, and broader statement balances as commercial pressure or cross-hold risk against DALA20444700-only resolution;
- failing or refusing to provide a DALA20444700-only routing, release, mitigation, or settlement path.

VI. INJURY AND DAMAGES REQUESTED

Claimant has been injured by Ocean Line Logistics, Inc.'s handling of DALA20444700. The two containers remained subject to unresolved routing and storage exposure in Singapore despite the Sea Waybill and Claimant's consistent instruction to proceed to Jebel Ali, Dubai. Claimant also paid USD 4,875 for a COD / destination-change service that has not been performed or refunded.

Claimant requests the following relief:

- Refund of USD 4,875 paid to Ocean Line Logistics, Inc. for the DALA20444700 COD / destination-change service, plus FMC filing fee;
- A finding that Ocean Line Logistics, Inc. failed to provide timely notice and official carrier support before or immediately after learning that DALA20444700 allegedly could not proceed to Jebel Ali / Middle East;
- A finding that Ocean Line Logistics, Inc. had no clear tariff basis, in the extracts reviewed, for the specific disputed DALA charges, deposits, cross-hold demands, or statement pressure;
- A finding that the broader statement balance should not be used to hold, block, condition, or pressure the release, routing, mitigation, or settlement of DALA20444700;

- Allocation to Ocean Line Logistics, Inc. of Singapore storage, demurrage, detention, port, transshipment, roll-over, rebooking, amendment, and mitigation charges caused or increased by late notice, non-performance, unsupported charges, and failure to provide a DALA-only release / routing path;
- A DALA20444700-only release or routing path that does not expose any Singapore consignee or cargo interest to unrelated disputed invoices, deposits, or other B/L matters;
- Any other relief the Settlement Officer considers appropriate.

Claimant limits total monetary reparations in this Small Claim proceeding to USD 42,500, or such lesser amount as the Small Claims Officer finds supported by the record, plus interest and the FMC filing fee. Claimant does not seek the entire USD 179,000 latest statement amount as paid damages in this DALA20444700 proceeding.

VII. AUTHORIZATION FOR INFORMAL PROCEDURE

The undersigned authorizes the Settlement Officer to determine the above-stated claim pursuant to the informal procedure outlined in Subpart S of the Commission's Rules, 46 C.F.R. §§ 502.301-502.305, subject to discretionary Commission review.
