

FEDERAL MARITIME COMMISSION
Office of the Administrative Law Judges

CE GLOBAL NETWORK LLP, Claimant

v.

OCEAN LINE LOGISTICS, INC., Respondent.

DOCKET NO. 2062(F)

Served: August 19, 2026

ORDER OF: Erin M. WIRTH, Chief Administrative Law Judge.

NOTICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE ASSIGNMENT AND INSTRUCTIONS

On May 21, 2026, the Secretary of the Federal Maritime Commission issued a Notice of Filing of Small Claims Complaint and Assignment (“Notice”), stating that Claimant CE Global Network LLP had filed an informal complaint against Respondent Ocean Line Logistics, Inc., alleging violations of the Shipping Act. The complaint was docketed as an informal complaint pursuant to 46 C.F.R. Subpart S and assigned to the Chief Administrative Law Judge for appointment of a Small Claims Officer. The Notice stated that failure by Respondent to submit a timely response expressly refusing the Subpart S informal procedure would be deemed to indicate consent to the informal procedure.

On August 17, 2026, Ocean Line Logistics, Inc. filed a Refusal of Informal Small Claims Procedure (“Refusal”), stating that it does not consent to the resolution of this dispute under the Subpart S procedure. Refusal at 1. Since Respondent does not consent to the informal procedures, the claim will be assigned to an Administrative Law Judge for adjudication under the procedures at 46 C.F.R. Subpart T. 46 C.F.R. § 502.311.

This proceeding is assigned to the Honorable Erin M. Wirth, who will conduct such hearings and conferences as may be necessary to resolve the issues in this proceeding and to issue an initial decision or dispositive ruling. In addition, the docket number is changed to 2062(F).

Claimant submitted its claim with extensive exhibits. It also submitted a Limited Supplemental Statement (“Supplement”) with additional attachments. Although Respondent refused the Subpart S procedures, it does not appear that Respondent otherwise answered the complaint.

The Commission Rules for Subpart T state:

The respondent shall file with the Commission an answer within twenty-five (25) days of service of the complaint and shall serve a copy of said answer upon complainant. The answer shall admit or deny each matter set forth in the complaint. Matters not specifically denied will be deemed admitted. Where matters are urged in defense, the answer shall be accompanied by appropriate affidavits, other documents, and memoranda.

46 C.F.R. § 502.312.

Respondent will be given additional time to respond to the allegations in the claim and supplement. Respondent must file its answer by September 3, 2026. Failure to respond may result in an adverse decision of the claim.

Complainant should submit its Reply to Respondent's Answer as set forth in 46 C.F.R. § 502.313. Under the rule, Complainant's Reply is due 20 days after service of the Respondent's answer.

The parties are strongly urged to familiarize themselves with the Commission's Subpart T rules of practice and procedure. All filings and documents submitted in this case should have page numbers and be emailed to secretary@fmc.gov, with a courtesy copy to judges@fmc.gov and the opposing party. If any further information is required, the assigned Administrative Law Judge will request it. 46 C.F.R. § 502.314.

ADDITIONAL INSTRUCTIONS

Filing

1. Information regarding where to find the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (46 C.F.R. § 502), Commission decisions, and other information helpful for parties may be found in the reading room section of the Commission's website, <https://www2.fmc.gov/readingroom>. (F) can be listed in the "proceeding number" to obtain a list of prior formal proceedings.
2. Parties should review the Commission's Rules regarding hearing procedures governing formal proceedings, 46 C.F.R. Part 502, Subpart T: <https://www.fmc.gov/proceedings/>.
3. Service of the rulings, orders, and decisions in this proceeding will be by email. Parties must notify the Commission of any change of service email address.
4. By Commission order, certain requirements in 46 C.F.R. part 502 related to the paper filing of documents, ink signatures, and service by mail of complaints are currently waived. Order (May 12, 2020), Docket No. 20-07, May 12, 2020.
5. Ex parte communication (communication not in the public record) is prohibited. The decision issued shall be based on the filings made in this proceeding which will be available to all parties.
6. Parties shall file documents with the Office of the Secretary via email to secretary@fmc.gov. In addition to filing with the Secretary, the parties should courtesy copy the presiding judge via email at judges@fmc.gov and should copy the other party. No party may directly contact the presiding judge.

7. All filings and all attachments must have page numbers, or they may be rejected.
8. Attachments. When documents are attached to a filing, as far as practicable, the exhibits should be in one PDF document. The PDF should have unique, sequential page numbers (Bates numbers). Each separate exhibit should be clearly identified, for example by a cover sheet or bookmark. A table of contents should indicate what the exhibit is and the page where it starts.
9. Case citations. Because the Commission currently uses Westlaw, citations to judicial opinions on Lexis should include a parallel citation, if possible. Citations to Commission decisions or rulings may be made to the official F.M.C. reporters including F.M.C.2d, Pike & Fischer Shipping Regulation Reports (S.R.R.), Westlaw, or Commission slip opinions or orders by docket number, title, and date of service. If a document from another source is cited, the decision or ruling must be e-mailed to judges@fmc.gov.
10. Extensions. If a party needs an extension of a deadline, they should confer with the other party to determine whether there is any opposition to the relief sought. Requests for extension should follow the procedure for non-dispositive motions found at Rule 502.71 and responses to requests for extensions should be filed promptly. 46 C.F.R. § 502.71.

Discovery

11. The parties are reminded of their obligation to ensure preservation of all relevant evidence, including electronically stored information. Zhi Chen v. District of Columbia, 839 F. Supp. 2d 7, 12 (D.D.C. 2011); The Pension Comm. of the Univ. of Montreal Pension Plan v. Banc of America Securities, LLC, 685 F. Supp. 2d 456 (S.D.N.Y. 2010); Zubulake v. UBS Warburg LLC, 220 F.R.D. 212 (S.D.N.Y. 2003).
12. The parties may not initiate discovery between each other. Rather, if additional information is needed, the proposed discovery requests should be included in Respondent's answer or in Complainant's reply. 46 C.F.R. § 502.314. The ALJ may request additional information if needed to issue a decision.
13. The Administrative Law Judge issues decisions based only on the record in the proceeding. See 5 U.S.C § 556(e). If there is information available in a different office at the Commission that a party wants considered, it is the party's obligation to provide that information.

Confidential Material

14. Use in the proceeding – If confidential information is filed, it must be accompanied by a motion justifying confidential treatment. This motion must identify each item for which protection is sought and show good cause by demonstrating that the information is a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information. 46 C.F.R.

§ 502.141(j)(1). The burden is on the party seeking to protect the information to show good cause for its protection.

15. Filing – Parties should file two versions of confidential filings marked as the “confidential version” and the “public version.” The confidential version may be provided to the Presiding Officer by email but should not be filed with the Office of the Secretary by email pursuant to Commission Rule 5. 46 C.F.R. § 502.5.
16. Marking confidential material – In the confidential version, confidential information must be conspicuously and clearly marked on each page, for example by highlighting or braces. The public version must indicate on the cover page and on each affected page “Public version – confidential materials excluded.” The public version must clearly indicate any omissions, for example with blackout or braces, and its pagination and depiction of text on each page must be identical to that of the confidential version. For example, the confidential filing may read: “On January 1, 2010, Complainant entered into a {25} year lease with respondent for a monthly rent of {$1000}.” The public version would read: “On January 1, 2010, Complainant entered into a { } year lease with Respondent for a monthly rent of { }.”
17. Exhibits – Confidential information in exhibits should be marked as above. If marking within the text is not feasible, individual pages may be replaced in the public version with a page indicating that confidential material was excluded. Entire exhibits should not be excluded, only those pages containing confidential material.
18. Personal information – Personally identifiable information such as social security numbers, birth dates, and financial account numbers must be redacted pursuant to Commission Rule 13. 46 C.F.R. § 502.13.

Orders and Decisions

19. The ALJ’s decision will be based only on the evidence parties submit in this proceeding. If there is information available in a different office at the Commission that a party wants considered, it is the party’s obligation to submit the information in this case. As a neutral decision-maker, ALJs cannot reach out to other offices within FMC to obtain evidence.
20. Rulings, orders, and decisions will be served on all parties by email. The parties must notify Judges@fmc.gov of any change of service email address.
21. Once the decision is issued, the ALJ no longer has jurisdiction, meaning authority, for the case. The ALJ’s initial decision shall be final, unless within 22 days from the date of service, either party requests review of the decision by the Commission. The Commission may also decide to review the ALJ decision within 30 days of service of the decision.
22. A prevailing party may request attorney fees by filing a petition within 30 days after a decision is final. The Commission may award the prevailing party reasonable attorney fees if the prevailing party is found to be eligible and entitled under Commission guidance. 46 C.F.R. § 502.254(a); Policy Statement on Attorney Fees, Docket No. 21-14.

Researching Past Decisions

23. Commission decisions in prior cases are in the reading room section of the Commission's website, <https://www2.fmc.gov/readingroom>. Type (I) in the "proceeding number" to obtain a list of Subpart S cases and (F) to obtain a list of Subpart T cases.
24. If you click on a case number, you can see the publicly available information for that case, including the SCO, ALJ, or Commission decisions. The SCO or ALJ decision is usually called an "Initial Decision." When the Commission issues a "Notice Not to Review" that means that the SCO or ALJ decision has become administratively final. In other cases, however, the Commission will issue its own decision.
25. By reading other recent decisions involving the same Shipping Act sections from your case, you will be able to get a better sense of the evidence and proof required to succeed in a claim or to defend a claim.

Erin M. Wirth
Chief Administrative Law Judge