

FEDERAL MARITIME COMMISSION
Office of Administrative Law Judges

TZ SSE BUYER, LLC, Complainant

v.

COSCO SHIPPING LINES CO., LTD., Respondent.

DOCKET NO. 24-09

Served: March 19, 2025

ORDER OF: Alex M. CHINTELLA, Administrative Law Judge.

SECOND AMENDED SCHEDULING ORDER

On March 6, 2025, the parties filed a Joint Motion to Extend Discovery and Briefing Deadlines, Dkt. 32. I scheduled a status conference to discuss the progress of discovery. Dkt. 33. Following the conference, I ordered the parties to file a joint status report confirming that counsel and witnesses are available such that depositions will be completed in the proposed timeframe and confirming that all written discovery has been produced. Dkt. 36. In their Joint Status Report, Dkt.37, the parties represent that Respondent has made additional document productions, but that there are ongoing disputes regarding discovery that the parties are attempting to resolve. They request leave to submit any remaining disputes to the presiding officer if still unresolved on March 28, 2025. The parties also represent that their witnesses are available for deposition and proffered a tentative schedule.

In light of the Joint Motion, the discussion at the status conference, and the Joint Status Report, I find that the parties are making acceptable progress in discovery and that there is good cause for the requested extension. The parties will comply with the following schedule:

Any outstanding discovery disputes must be submitted to the presiding officer by this date	March 28, 2025
Discovery closes	April 28, 2025
Complainant's Opening Brief, Proposed Findings of Fact, and Appendix	May 30, 2025
Respondent's Response Brief, Proposed Findings of Fact, and Appendix	June 30, 2025

Also, please note that pursuant to Commission Rule 502.2, all filings “must be filed with the Secretary, Federal Maritime Commission.” This filing requirement applies to both the confidential and public versions of filings. The Commission has waived paper filing requirements and permitted filings by email. Therefore, filings of confidential versions of documents, as well as the public version, may be sent by email to secretary@fmc.gov with a courtesy copy to judges@fmc.gov. It is the parties' obligation to ensure that their confidential filings are received by the Office of the Secretary.

SO ORDERED.

ALEX
CHINTELLA

Digitally signed by
ALEX CHINTELLA
Date: 2025.03.19
12:34:56 -04'00'

Alex M. Chintella
Administrative Law Judge