FEDERAL MARITIME COMMISSION

Docket No. 24-09

TZ SSE Buyer, LLC, Complainant v. COSCO Shipping Lines Co., LTD, Respondent

COMPLAINANTS' UNOPPOSED MOTION FOR ENLARGEMENT OF PAGE LIMITS

Pursuant to Rules 69 and 71 of the Federal Maritime Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, Complainant respectfully moves for an enlargement of the page limits applicable to its Motion to Compel Interrogatory Responses and Complete Document Production, filed on Friday, April 11, 2025 (Document No. 46). In support of this request, Complainant states the following:

Rule 71 provides that non-dispositive motions, such as motions to compel, may not exceed 10 pages without leave of the Presiding Officer. Complainant's Motion to Compel exceeded that limit due to the number and complexity of the discovery issues raised, including multiple sets of interrogatories and document requests, and the insufficiency of Respondent's responses thereto. The motion was filed in good faith, in compliance with procedural deadlines, and without any intent to circumvent Commission rules.

Following the filing, Respondent's counsel indicated that it intended to file a Motion to Strike Complainant's Motion to Compel—or, in the alternative, a motion for additional time and page limits to respond—on the grounds that the motion exceeded the FMC's page limit. Pursuant to 46 CFR § 502.71(a), Complainant's counsel subsequently conferred with Respondent's counsel regarding the instant Motion. During that discussion, Respondent confirmed that it does not oppose the motion, provided that Respondent is permitted a page limit equal to the number of pages in Complainant's Motion to Compel and an extension until April 22, 2025, to file its response. Complainant has indicated to Respondent that it does not oppose such request.

Rather than burden the Commission with unnecessary procedural motion practice, Complainant respectfully requests that the Presiding Officer grant this Motion for Enlargement of Page Limits and deem Complainant's Motion to Compel, filed April 11, 2025, as compliant nunc pro tunc. Granting this relief will promote judicial economy and the efficient resolution of discovery disputes on their merits. No party will be prejudiced by this request.

For the foregoing reasons, Complainant respectfully requests that the Presiding Officer grant an enlargement of the page limit applicable to its Motion to Compel and permit the motion as filed to remain on the docket.
