Docket No. 24-09

TZ SSE Buyer, LLC, Complainant v. COSCO Shipping Lines Co., LTD, Respondent

COMPLAINANT TZ SSE BUYER, LLC'S
RESPONSES TO RESPONDENT'S PROPOSED FINDINGS OF FACT

Pursuant to 46 C.F.R. 502.214 and the Presiding Officer's Orders dated May 28, 2025, July 8, 2025 and August 7, 2025, Complainant, TZ SSE Buyer, LLC ("Complainant"), by its attorneys, responds to Respondent COSCO Shipping Lines Co. Ltd. ("Respondent") Proposed Findings of Fact ("RPFF") as follows:

I. INTRODUCTION

RPFF1. On November 4, 2024, Respondent filed its Verified Answer ("Answer") to TZ SSE Buyer, LLC ("Complainant" or "TZ") Verified Second Amended Complaint ("Compl."). Docket No. 27.

RESPONSE: Admitted.

RPFF2. The "relevant time period" of the remaining unwaived accessorial charges at issue is 2021 through 2022. Compl. ¶ 13.

RESPONSE: Admitted.

RPFF3. The "subject shipments" are those containers for which Complainant alleges that Respondent assessed to Complainant's predecessors-in-interest, via NVOCC Laufer Group International, Inc., "demurrage, detention, per diem, and yard storage charges." Compl. ¶ 14.

RESPONSE: Admitted.

RPFF4. TZ alleged that “Respondent’s assessment of the Charges, or a substantial majority thereof, and Respondent’s acts and omissions that led to the assessment of the Charges, were incapable of incentivizing cargo movement and were therefore unreasonable.” Compl. ¶ 19.

RESPONSE: Admitted.

RPFF5. TZ alleged that “Respondent refused to act reasonably by extending the number of free days available for the Injured Parties to retrieve the Relevant Containers, despite the fact that the delays were caused by circumstances outside the Injured Parties’ control and were attributable to Respondent’ [sic] acts or omission.” Compl. ¶ 21.

RESPONSE: Admitted.

RPFF6. TZ alleged that “Despite this increase [in the volume of shipments entering certain ports], Respondent refused to divert shipments to less congested ports and failed to extend the number of free days for the Injured Parties to retrieve the Relevant Containers and to drop off empty containers before it assessed the Charges.” Compl. ¶ 22.

RESPONSE: Admitted. For completeness, Complainant’s allegation in Paragraph 22 of the Verified Second Amended Complaint (“Complaint”) also states that “[i]n 2021 and 2022, the volume of shipments entering certain ports surged compared to 2020.”

RPFF7. TZ alleged that “Respondent failed to provide adequate practices and facilities to handle and store the Relevant Containers and also failed to provide adequate facilities for its customers, including the Injured Parties, to return empty containers.” Compl. ¶ 24.

RESPONSE: Admitted.

RPFF8. TZ further alleged that “Respondent also failed to provide sufficient detail on their invoices to allow the Injured Parties to understand the reasons for the Charges and to be able to contest the Charges.” Compl. ¶ 28.

RESPONSE: Admitted.

RPFF9. TZ alleged the following Charges were unreasonable: “demurrage on 244 containers, detention charges on 15 containers, per diem charges on 73 containers, and yard storage charges on 312 containers.” Compl. ¶ 14. In the Verified Second Amended Complaint, TZ alleged that “the total demurrage, detention, per diem, and yard storage charges total $1,656,492.00.” Id. The Verified Second Amended Complaint included complaints outside the jurisdiction of the FMC. On June 2, 2025, the Presiding Officer granted Respondent’s Motion for Partial Summary Judgment with respect to all shipments moved in foreign-to-foreign commerce, i.e., through Canadian ports. Dkt. No. 56.

RESPONSE: Admitted that Paragraph 14 of the Complaint alleges that certain charges were unreasonable, including demurrage on 244 containers, detention charges on 15 containers, per diem charges on 73 containers, and yard storage charges on 312 containers, and that the Complaint further alleges that the total demurrage, detention, per diem, and yard storage charges amounted to $1,656,492.00.

Admitted that on June 2, 2025, the Presiding Officer granted Respondent’s Motion for Partial Summary Judgment. The ruling stands for itself. To the extent the remaining assertions purport to characterize the legal effect of the June 2, 2025 Order or the scope of the Commission’s jurisdiction, they constitute legal conclusions to which no response is required.

RPFF10. Larry Hallett, Complainant’s Director of Global Logistics, verified the Second Amended Complaint. Compl. p. 10.

RESPONSE: Admitted.

II. THE PARTIES

A. COMPLAINANT TZ SSE BUYER AND ITS PREDECESSORS-IN-INTEREST

RPFF11. The “Injured Parties,” Complainant’s predecessors-in-interest, were manufacturing corporations with offices in Ohio, Tennessee, and Connecticut. Compl. ¶ 6. Impact Products LLC (“Impact Products”) manufactured cleaning supplies and accessories and Safety Zone LLC (“Safety Zone”) manufactured personal protective equipment and products (“PPE”). Id.

RESPONSE: Admitted.

RPFF12. Impact Products and Safety Zone were subsidiary companies of parent company Supply Source Enterprises (“Supply Source” or “SSE”). Compl. ¶ 6.

RESPONSE: Admitted. Complainant notes that, throughout Respondent’s Proposed Findings of Fact, Respondent refers to Supply Source/SSE as if it were the entity to which the events at issue occurred. In fact, the charges and related communications concerned Impact Products and Safety Zone, which are separate entities from Supply Source.

RPFF13. Larry Hallett was Supply Source’s Director of Global Logistics from August 2021 through the bankruptcy proceedings in July 2024. RX_000298 (Hallett Dep. Tr. 19:18-20:2). Following the dissolution of Supply Source in September 2024, Mr. Hallett assumed the position of Director of Global Logistics with Tranzonic, i.e. TZ SSE Buyer. RX_000299 (Id. at 21:3-13).

RESPONSE: Admitted.

RPFF14. Thomas Studebaker began working as Supply Source’s Chief Restructuring Officer beginning in March 2024 to advise and manage SSE’s Chapter 11 bankruptcy filing. RX_000244 (Studebaker Declaration, ¶ 5-6). As such, Mr. Studebaker testified in support of the bankruptcy petition based on “information [obtained] during [his] tenure working with the Debtors and their professionals.” RX_000245 (Id. ¶ 8).

RESPONSE: The assertions in this paragraph are drawn from statements in a declaration filed in a separate bankruptcy proceeding, which Respondent has included as an exhibit in its appendix. The cited declaration has not been established as true in this proceeding, and Complainant does not admit the accuracy of the statements attributed to Mr. Studebaker.

RPFF15. Mr. Studebaker testified in the Supply Source bankruptcy proceedings before the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware that “in 2021 the Debtors’ [Supply Source and its subsidiaries] financial performance began to decline for several reasons,” listing that SSE had “increased purchases of inventory, even though the cost of such inventory was higher due to prevailing supply chain constraints during the pandemic” while “also lacking certain key process controls . . . result[ing] in the Debtors’ sales teams placing orders for inventory with minimal management oversight and lack of control over inventory count or inventory pricing.” RX_000254-RX_000255 (Studebaker Decl., ¶ 33-36). According to Mr. Studebaker, these decisions were made by Supply Source in reliance on an “industry demand study” commissioned in early 2021 which “estimated that the company’s COVID-related growth would likely be sustained through 2024.” Id. ¶ 34.

RESPONSE: The assertions in this paragraph are drawn from statements in a declaration filed in a separate bankruptcy proceeding, which Respondent has included as an exhibit in its appendix. The cited declaration has not been established as true in this proceeding, and Complainant does not admit the accuracy of the statements attributed to Mr. Studebaker.

RPFF16. As a result of SSE’s increased purchasing of inventory while lacking inventory controls, “the Debtors were left with large amounts of excess inventory that they could no longer sell at the same quantities for the same prices” and “the Debtors did not have adequate capacity to store the excess inventory they had at this time.” RX_000255 (Studebaker Decl., ¶ 37). “Thus, the Debtors were forced to enter into a number of agreements for additional storage space, substantially increasing the Debtors’ storage costs relative to their normal course operations.” Id.

RESPONSE: The assertions in this paragraph are drawn from statements in a declaration filed in a separate bankruptcy proceeding, which Respondent has included as an exhibit in its appendix. The cited declaration has not been established as true in this proceeding, and Complainant does not admit the accuracy of the statements attributed to Mr. Studebaker.

RPFF17. Studebaker further testified that “excess inventory levels also caused significant issues with service quality and efficiency, as the Debtors’ warehouses were at capacity and warehouse employees struggled with servicing customers.” RX_000255 (Studebaker Decl., ¶ 38). These warehousing issues persisted throughout 2021 and 2022 into 2023. Id.

RESPONSE: The assertions in this paragraph are drawn from statements in a declaration filed in a separate bankruptcy proceeding, which Respondent has included as an exhibit in its appendix. The cited declaration has not been established as true in this proceeding, and Complainant does not admit the accuracy of the statements attributed to Mr. Studebaker.

RPFF18. In the fall of 2023, as the pandemic waned, “the Debtors began to analyze and assess their distribution footprint with the aim of optimizing their distribution network.” RX_000255 (Studebaker Decl., ¶ 38).

RESPONSE: The assertion in this paragraph is drawn from a statement in a declaration filed in a separate bankruptcy proceeding, which Respondent has included as an exhibit in its appendix. The cited declaration has not been established as true in this proceeding, and Complainant does not admit the accuracy of the statement attributed to Mr. Studebaker.

RPFF19. Also in 2023, “the Debtors’ owners hired a new management team” that implemented mitigating practices, but those were ultimately not sufficient to overcome SSE’s declining revenue and cash flow. RX_000257. (Studebaker Decl., ¶ 43).

RESPONSE: The assertions in this paragraph are drawn from statements in a declaration filed in a separate bankruptcy proceeding, which Respondent has included as an exhibit in its appendix. The cited declaration has not been established as true in this proceeding, and Complainant does not admit the accuracy of the statements attributed to Mr. Studebaker.

RPFF20. Mr. Studebaker testified that, “while the Debtors’ vendors have continued to provide invaluable support to the Debtors, the Debtors have fallen significantly behind on vendor payables.” RX_000264 (Studebaker Decl., ¶ 61).

RESPONSE: The assertions in this paragraph are drawn from statements in a declaration filed in a separate bankruptcy proceeding, which Respondent has included as an exhibit in its appendix. The cited declaration has not been established as true in this proceeding, and Complainant does not admit the accuracy of the statements attributed to Mr. Studebaker.

RPFF21. In January 2024, SSE began evaluating bankruptcy and potential alternatives. RX_000258 (Studebaker Decl. ¶ 47). In May 2024, SSE filed its bankruptcy petition in the Bankruptcy Court for the U.S. District of Delaware. RX_000262-RX_000263 (Id. at 57).

RESPONSE: Admitted that SSE filed its bankruptcy petition in the Bankruptcy Court for the U.S. District of Delaware in May 2024. The remaining assertion in this paragraph is drawn from a statement in a declaration filed in a separate bankruptcy proceeding, which Respondent has included as an exhibit in its appendix. The cited declaration has not been established as true in this proceeding, and Complainant does not admit the accuracy of the statement attributed to Mr. Studebaker.

RPFF22. Complainant TZ SSE Buyer, LLC, is a Delaware limited liability company that purchased the assets of Supply Source Enterprises, including Impact Products and Safety Zone and their claims against Respondent, in July 2024 as part of these bankruptcy proceedings. Compl. ¶¶ 2, 7.

RESPONSE: Admitted.

B. NON-PARTY LAUFER GROUP INTERNATIONAL

RPFF23. Laufer Group International (“Laufer”) is a non-vessel-operating common carrier and ocean freight forwarder with corporate offices at 20 Vesey St., Suite 601, New York, NY 10007. (Compl. Exhibit A)

RESPONSE: Admitted.

RPFF24. Laufer is licensed by the Federal Maritime Commission (“FMC” or “Commission”) as an NVOCC with license number 020617. RX_000526-RX_000527, (<https://www2.fmc.gov/oti/NVOCC.aspx> (last accessed July 10, 2025))

RESPONSE: Admitted.

RPFF25. Laufer is a Licensed Customs Broker, filer code MR5. RX_000528-RX_000529, (U.S. Customs and Border Protection (“Customs”), Permitted Customs Broker Listing, <https://www.cbp.gov/about/contact/brokers-listing> (last accessed July 10, 2025))

RESPONSE: Complainant lacks personal knowledge regarding the matters asserted in this paragraph. The information contained in the referenced U.S. Customs and Border Protection website stands for itself, and no admission is made as to the truth of the matters asserted therein.

RPFF26. Supply Source and its subsidiaries used Laufer's services to import the Relevant Containers from foreign ports to the United States. Compl. ¶ 13.

RESPONSE: Admitted that Impact Products and Safety Zone used Laufer's services to import the Relevant Containers from foreign ports to the United States.

RPFF27. TZ admitted that it never entered into a service contract with COSCO. RX_000348 (Complainant's Responses to First Set of Requests, July 29, 2024, p. 2).

RESPONSE: Admitted.

RPFF28. For approximately fifteen percent (15%) of bookings, SSE contracted with Laufer for drayage services. RX_000312 (Hallett Dep. Tr. 86:8-20).

RESPONSE: Admitted that, as testified by Mr. Larry Hallett, it was estimated that approximately fifteen percent of bookings involved Impact Products and Safety Zone contracting with Laufer for drayage services.

RPFF29. For the remaining 85% of its bookings, SSE contracted with a dray brokerage company called TransNet, wherein SSE would book for drayage services with TransNet and TransNet would find a drayage carrier to fulfill the order. RX_000301 (Hallett Dep. Tr. 44:21-45:7).

RESPONSE: Admitted that for bookings where Impact Products and Safety Zone did not contract with Laufer for drayage services, they contracted with drayage companies for inland transportation services. Denied to the extent the paragraph states that 85% is a precise figure or that TransNet was the only drayage company used. Mr. Hallett testified that it was estimated that whatever bookings were not contracted with Laufer for drayage services, Impact Products and Safety Zone would manage the dray portion, and that TransNet was one of the companies used for drayage services, but not the only company. CX_001386 to CX_001396; RX_000312 (Hallett Dep. Tr. 86:8-20); RX_000301 (Hallett Dep. Tr. 44:21-45:7).

RPFF30. Supply Source and its subsidiaries relied on Laufer to contact Respondent to request extensions to free time. RX_000309 (Hallett Dep. Tr. 75:11-76:10).

RESPONSE: Admitted that Safety Zone and Impact Products asked Laufer to contact Respondent to request extensions of free time or waivers of the charges at issue. RX_000309 (Hallett Dep. Tr. 75:13–20, 76:7–10).

RPFF31. SSE's Director of Global Logistics, Larry Hallett, testified that he was not privy to Laufer's conversations with Respondent, but he "did not think they [Laufer] were getting any extensions." RX_000309-RX_000310 (Hallett Dep. Tr. 76:11-78:17).

RESPONSE: Admitted that Mr. Hallett testified he was not privy to Laufer's conversations with Respondent. Denied to the extent the paragraph states or implies that Mr. Hallett testified Laufer was not getting any extensions. Mr. Hallett testified that he did not know how many times Impact Products and Safety Zone received extensions of time to pick up or drop off the containers at issue from Respondent. RX_000309 (Hallett Dep. Tr. 76:13–16).

RPFF32. Mr. Hallett testified that SSE did not communicate directly with COSCO regarding SSE containers. RX_000309 (Hallett Dep. Tr. 75:11-20).

RESPONSE: Admitted in part. Mr. Hallett testified that Impact Products and Safety Zone did not contact Respondent directly to request extensions of time or waivers of the charges, and that such requests were made to Laufer, who would contact Respondent on their behalf. RX_000309 (Hallett Dep. Tr. 75:11–20).

RPFF33. COSCO North America’s Vice President of Operations, Tom Takase, testified that “there w[ere] no disputes filed by Laufer within the portal” or by email. CX_1369 (Takase Dep. Tr. 48:21-49:24).

RESPONSE: Admitted in part. Mr. Takase testified that, to his knowledge, there were no disputes filed by Laufer within Respondent’s portal. Denied to the extent the paragraph omits that Mr. Takase also testified this was “not to say they don’t exist.” CX_1369 (Takase Dep. Tr. 49:17–19).

RPFF34. From COSCO’s perspective, when working with an NVO or freight forwarder, that is COSCO’s end customer; if the NVO has a final customer on their end, COSCO is “not privy to that.” CX_001366 (Takase Dep. Tr. 34:22-35:21).

RESPONSE: Admitted that this is what Mr. Takase testified, without admitting the truth of the matters asserted. CX_001366 (Takase Dep. Tr. 34:22–35:21).

RPFF35. Laufer is not a party to this Proceeding.

RESPONSE: Admitted.

C. RESPONDENT COSCO SHIPPING LINES CO. LTD.

RPFF36. Respondent COSCO Shipping Lines Co. Ltd. (“Respondent” or “COSCO”) is a vessel-operating common carrier (“VOCC” or ocean common carrier) as defined by 46 U.S.C. § 40102(7).

RESPONSE: Admitted.

RPFF37. COSCO is headquartered at No. 378 Dong Da Ming Road, Shanghai, 200080, People's Republic of China.

RESPONSE: Admitted.

RPFF38. COSCO Shipping Lines (North America) Inc. ("CSLNA") is COSCO's agent in the United States with offices located at 100 Lighting Way, Secaucus, NJ 07094.

RESPONSE: Admitted.

RPFF39. CSLNA is not an ocean common carrier.

RESPONSE: Admitted that the FMC's website does not list CSLNA as an ocean common carrier. The information on the FMC's website stands for itself, and no independent verification is made as to its accuracy.

RPFF40. As of December 2023, COSCO's vessel operations provided ocean transportation of property between over 144 countries.

RESPONSE: Complainant lacks sufficient information to admit or deny the assertion in this paragraph. Respondent cites no evidence in the record to support it.

RPFF41. Tom Takase is the Vice President for COSCO's North American Operations Center. CX_001359 (Takase Dep. Tr. 7:8-8:17).

RESPONSE: Admitted that this is what Mr. Takase testified. CX_001359 (Takase Dep. Tr. 7:8-8:17).

RPFF42. Mr. Takase oversees all import operations customer service, as well as VIP customer service for imports and exports. CX_001359 (Takase Dep. Tr. 7:8-18).

RESPONSE: Admitted that this is what Mr. Takase testified. CX_001359 (Takase Dep. Tr. 7:8-8:17).

RPFF43. Prior to his promotion to Vice President, Mr. Takase was the Assistant Vice President for COSCO's North American Operations Center beginning in 2016. CX_001359 (Takase Dep. Tr. 7:23-8:17).

RESPONSE: Admitted that this is what Mr. Takase testified. CX_001359 (Takase Dep. Tr. 7:8–8:17).

III. THE RELEVANT PERIOD: COVID-19 PANDEMIC AND CONGESTION

RPFF44. The Relevant Period (2021-2022) identified in the Complaint occurred concurrently with the COVID-19 pandemic. RX_000296 (Hallett Dep. Tr. 23:16-24:4).

RESPONSE: Admitted.

RPFF45. "The Nation's freight transportation systems were largely overwhelmed by the unprecedented high demand that resulted from COVID-related consumer spending patterns." RX_000530-RX_000529, Testimony of Daniel B. Maffei Chairman Federal Maritime Commission Before the Subcommittee on Coast Guard and Maritime Transportation House Committee on Transportation and Infrastructure (March 23, 2023) (available at <https://www.fmc.gov/articles/testimony-of-chairman-maffei-before-congress-review-of-fiscal-year-2024-budget-request-for-the-federal-maritime-transportation-programs-and-implementation-of-the-ocean-shipping-reform-act-o/>)(last accessed July 10, 2025).

RESPONSE: Admitted that the quoted language appears in the referenced exhibit.

IV. TERMINOLOGY: DEMURRAGE, DETENTION, PER DIEM, YARD STORAGE

RPFF46. "Demurrage" is a charge to a shipper or consignee for use of marine terminal space for storage. (46 C.F.R. § 545.5) When COSCO invoices reference "storage," these refer to demurrage charges. CX_001370-CX_001371 (Takase Dep. Tr. 53:25-54:9).

RESPONSE: The first sentence cites to 46 C.F.R. § 545.5, which stands for itself. Admitted that Mr. Takase testified that there is no difference when a COSCO invoice references a storage charge and a demurrage charge, without admitting the truth of the matter asserted. CX_001370–CX_001371 (Takase Dep. Tr. 53:25–54:9).

RPFF47. Demurrage charges originate with the marine terminal facility. CX_001363 (Takase Dep. Tr. 22:4:14)

RESPONSE: Admitted that this is what Mr. Takase testified, without admitting the truth of the matter asserted. CX_001363 (Takase Dep. Tr. 22:4–14).

RPFF48. Carrier demurrage charges are calculated based on the carrier’s cost with the marine terminal for container storage on dock plus the carrier’s container daily usage fee. CX_001364–CX_001365 (Takase Dep. Tr. 29:24–30:16).

RESPONSE: Admitted that this is what Mr. Takase testified, without admitting the truth of the matter asserted. CX_001364–CX_001365 (Takase Dep. Tr. 29:24–30:16).

RPFF49. “Detention” charges, as defined by the Commission, are “any charges, including ‘per diem,’ assessed by ocean common carriers ... related to the use of ... shipping containers, not including freight charges.” (46 C.F.R. § 545.5) The practice in the shipping industry is that the party responsible for retrieving a loaded container from a port and delivering its cargo to the addressee is allotted a certain number of days to return the empty container and any related equipment before detention charges begin to accrue. The amount of this so-called “free time” is either set forth in the ocean carrier’s “tariff” of published terms and conditions for transportation or established by contract. Per diem detention charges provide an incentive for the timely return of equipment and compensate the ocean carrier for the opportunity cost of its late return.

(Evergreen Shipping Agency (Am.) Corp. v. Fed. Mar. Comm'n, 106 F.4th 1113, 1114–15 (D.C. Cir. 2024)).

RESPONSE: The first sentence cites to 46 C.F.R. § 545.5, which stands for itself. The final sentence cites to a judicial decision, which also stands for itself. To the extent the remaining assertions describe industry practices, define terms, or characterize the purpose of detention charges, they constitute legal conclusions or argument rather than statements of fact, and no response is required.

RPFF50. “Free time” in the context of demurrage is the certain number of days which a customer has to retrieve a full container from the terminal. CX_001364 (Takase Dep. Tr. 26:12-27:2).

RESPONSE: Admitted that this is what Mr. Takase testified, without admitting the truth of the matters asserted. CX_001364 (Takase Dep. Tr. 26:12–27:2).

RPFF51. “Free time” in the context of detention is the certain number of days that COSCO allows shippers to use its equipment after the container has been out-gated before the empty container is due to be returned. CX_001360 (Takase Dep. Tr. 13:3-18)

RESPONSE: Admitted that this is what Mr. Takase testified, without admitting the truth of the matters asserted. CX_001360 (Takase Dep. Tr. 13:3–18).

RPFF52. The amount of free time allowed to a shipper is based on COSCO’s tariff. CX_001367 (Takase Dep. Tr. 41:5-23).

RESPONSE: Admitted that this is what Mr. Takase testified, without admitting the truth of the matters asserted. CX_001367 (Takase Dep. Tr. 41:5–23).

RPFF53. Complainant acknowledged that Supply Source never requested an extension of free time from COSCO. RX_000348 (Complainant's Responses to First Set of Requests, July 29, 2024, p. 2).

RESPONSE: Admitted that Safety Zone and Impact Products did not request an extension of free time directly from Respondent, but asked Laufer, the NVOCC they used to transport the Relevant Containers, to contact Respondent to request extensions of free time or waivers of the charges at issue on their behalf. See Complainant's response to RPFF30.

RPFF54. "Detention" and "per diem" are used interchangeably within the industry. CX_001367-CX_001368 (Takase Dep. Tr. 41:24-42:14).

RESPONSE: Admitted that this is what Mr. Takase testified, without admitting the truth of the matters asserted. CX_001367-CX_001368 (Takase Dep. Tr. 41:24-42:14).

RPFF55. "Yard storage" is a charge levied by a storage yard, not by a carrier or terminal, for the storage of an empty or loaded container. COSCO does not charge yard storage. CX_001364 (Takase Dep. Tr. 29:8-11); RX_170 (McCown Dep. Tr. at 108:1-11); RX_000084 (Kent Report at ¶ 32(b)); RX_000044 (Hackett Report at 40).

RESPONSE: The first sentence is a definition without a supporting record citation and constitutes a legal conclusion, to which no response is required. Admitted that Mr. Takase testified as cited, without admitting the truth of the matters asserted. CX_001364 (Takase Dep. Tr. 29:8-11). Denied that the remaining cited materials establish that Respondent does not charge yard storage. RX_170 (McCown Dep. Tr. 108:1-11); RX_000084 (Kent Report ¶ 32(b)); RX_000044 (Hackett Report at 40).

RPFF56. COSCO does not bill rail demurrage or rail storage; these charges are billed directly by the railroad and paid to the railroad. CX_001375 (Takase Dep. Tr. 72:11-73:24).

RESPONSE: Admitted that Mr. Takase testified Respondent does not bill rail storage and that such charges are billed by the railroad, without admitting the truth of the matters asserted. CX_001375 (Takase Dep. Tr. 72:11–73:24). Denied as to the remainder.

RPFF57. COSCO did not charge Laufer or Supply Source for storage at rail depots. CX_001375 (Takase Dep. Tr. 72:11-73:24).

V. DEMURRAGE AND DETENTION: COSCO’S PRACTICES

RPFF58. COSCO’s demurrage charges are based on the Incentive Principle, in that the longer the customer exceeds its allotted free time, the higher the rate of the charge. CX_001374 (Takase Dep. Tr. 66:10-20).

RESPONSE: Admitted that this is what Mr. Takase testified, without admitting the truth of the matters asserted. CX_001374 (Takase Dep. Tr. 66:10-20).

RPFF59. When COSCO invoices for demurrage (if at all), it does so according to the sea waybill terms and in accordance with its applicable service contract or published tariff rules. CX_001360 (Takase Dep. Tr. 12:24-13:2).

RESPONSE: Denied. The cited testimony does not address Respondent’s invoicing practices for demurrage, nor does it state that Respondent invoices “according to the sea waybill terms” or “in accordance with its applicable service contract or published tariff rules.” Instead, the testimony describes the number of free days allotted before demurrage is incurred and that this is based on Respondent’s carrier tariff. CX_001360 (Takase Dep. Tr. 12:24–13:2).

RPFF60. When an empty container is not returned by the last free day, COSCO issues detention invoices pursuant to its applicable tariff or service contract. CX_001360 (Takase Dep. Tr. 13:3-14:2).

RESPONSE: Admitted that Mr. Takase testified that when a container is not returned by the last free day, Respondent issues detention charges. Denied that the cited testimony states those charges are issued pursuant to Respondent's applicable tariff or service contract. CX_001360 (Takase Dep. Tr. 13:3–14:2).

RPFF61. During the Relevant Period and continuing through the present, COSCO's automated system would automatically send arrival notifications in various intervals when shipments reach certain benchmarks. CX_001361 (Takase Dep. Tr. 16:16-17:20).

RESPONSE: Admitted that this is what Mr. Takase testified, without admitting the truth of the matters asserted. CX_001361 (Takase Dep. Tr. 16:16-17:20).

RPFF62. Arrival notices inform the notify party exactly when the shipment is arriving beforehand, so they can plan their pickup dates with their trucker to avoid any demurrage based on the last free day. CX_001367 (Takase Dep. Tr. 40:4-19). Arrival notices also inform the notify party whether their shipments are on hold so that they can address such issues before the last free day. Id.

RESPONSE: Admitted that this is what Mr. Takase testified, without admitting the truth of the matters asserted. CX_001367 (Takase Dep. Tr. 40:4-19).

RPFF63. SSE received these arrival notices. SSE's Larry Hallett testified that "we'd get arrival notices, and we'd get delivery notices as well, at which point [] we would help facilitate that." RX_000298-RX_000299 (Hallett Dep. Tr. 32:17-33:11)

RESPONSE: Admitted that Laufer would receive arrival and delivery notices and would then forward that information to Impact Products and Safety Zone.

VI. DEMURRAGE AND DETENTION: COSCO'S DISPUTE PRACTICES

RPFF64. COSCO's published dispute resolution policies and practices regarding demurrage and detention billing contain information about points of contact, timeframes, and corroboration requirements. RX_000539-RX_000542, (COSCO Shipping Lines North America Demurrage and Detention (Per Diem) Disputes, Mitigations, and Waivers Procedure) (<https://world.lines.coscoshipping.com/na/en/dndp/dnddp/1/1>)

RESPONSE: Admitted that the cited exhibit/website appears to be from COSCO Shipping Lines (North America) Inc., was published on June 30, 2022, and relates to Respondent's demurrage and detention dispute, mitigation, and waiver procedures. The cited materials stands for themselves.

RPFF65. COSCO North America Vice President Tom Takase testified that COSCO management reviews cases for potential mitigation based on the circumstances described by a customer who submits a dispute. CX_001362 (Takase Dep. Tr. 18:11-19:12).

RESPONSE: Admitted that this is what Mr. Takase testified, without admitting the truth of the matters asserted. CX_001362 (Takase Dep. Tr. 18:11-19:12).

RPFF66. COSCO's practice is to waive, mitigate, and refund demurrage and detention charges when justified. CX_001370 (Takase Dep. Tr. 53:6-24).

RESPONSE: Admitted that the cited testimony refers to instances where detention charges could be waived. Denied as to the remainder, as the testimony cited does not state that it is Respondent's practice to waive, mitigate, and refund demurrage and detention charges when justified. CX_001370 (Takase Dep. Tr. 53:6-24).

RPFF67. COSCO has internal procedures to ensure that invoices are adjusted when there is a widespread error or a delay on COSCO's end of which COSCO is aware. CX_001372 (Takase Dep. Tr. 58:1-17).

RESPONSE: Admitted that the cited testimony from Mr. Takase refers to Respondent having internal procedures to ensure invoice accuracy, without admitting the truth of the matters asserted, as Respondent has not produced or cited to any actual internal procedures in the record. CX_001372 (Takase Dep. Tr. 58:1–17).

RPFF68. COSCO has policies for approving mitigation for certain scenarios, including instances of gate closures, whereby COSCO would take the action of not billing for such days if COSCO was aware of the situation. CX_001362 (Takase Dep. Tr. 19:13-20:10).

RESPONSE: Admitted that the cited testimony from Mr. Takase lists reasons why customers might dispute charges during 2020 to 2022, such as, but not limited to, gate closures or unavailable empty return locations, without admitting the truth of the matters asserted, as Respondent has not cited any actual policies regarding the types of mitigation it considered and approved. CX_001362 (Takase Dep. Tr. 19:13–20:10).

RPFF69. A trucker or a consignee may obtain a waiver, credit, or refund of demurrage or detention charges from COSCO for a particular day simply by providing screen shots (or other corroboration) showing that the relevant facility(ies) were not available – including by reason of closure lack of appointments, or unavailable return locations. CX_001362, CX_001370 (Takase Dep. Tr. 19:13-20:10; 53:6-24).

RESPONSE: Admitted that Mr. Takase testified that one way a customer may seek a waiver of a demurrage or detention charge is by providing screenshots or other corroboration showing that appointments were unavailable, without admitting the truth of the matters asserted, as Respondent has not cited any actual policies regarding the types of mitigation it considered and approved. CX_001370 (Takase Dep. Tr. 53:6–24).

RPFF70. Neither SSE nor Laufer submitted any disputes whatsoever through COSCO's FMC-recognized dispute resolution process for any of the shipments at issue in this litigation. CX_001369 (Takase Dep. Tr. 49:8-24); RX_000349 (Complainant's Responses to First Set of Requests, July 29, 2024, p. 3).

RESPONSE: Denied. As set forth in Complainant's responses to RPFFs 30 through 33, incorporated herein, Impact Products and Safety Zone requested through Laufer that Respondent grant extensions of free time or waive charges for the shipments at issue. These communications were made through Laufer on their behalf, and Mr. Takase testified only as to his personal knowledge, expressly noting "not to say they don't exist." CX_1369 (Takase Dep. Tr. 49:17–19).

VII. THE RELEVANT SHIPMENTS

RPFF71. After the June 2 Order dismissing shipments in foreign commerce, the number of Relevant Shipments in this matter alleged by TZ is 228. Br. at 2.

RESPONSE: Admitted.

RPFF72. All 228 shipments alleged by TZ were transported on container yard to container yard terms ("CY-CY").

RESPONSE: Complainant can neither admit nor deny the assertion in this paragraph, as Respondent cites no evidence in the record to support it.

A. LEGAL FRAMEWORK

RPFF73. The contract of carriage for the Relevant Shipments were bills of lading (sea waybills) issued by COSCO. The publicly available terms and conditions reflected the responsibilities of the shipper and the consignee. RX_000266-RX_000288, (COSCO Form Bill of Lading, available at https://lines.coscoshipping.com/lines_resource/pdf/coscon_tidcn.pdf (last visited July 12, 2025))

RESPONSE: Complainant can neither admit nor deny the assertion in the first sentence, as Respondent has not cited evidence in the record establishing that the “Non-Negotiable Sea Waybills” produced in discovery, which did not include any terms and conditions, are the same as the bills of lading described. CX_001397 to CX_001665. As to the second sentence, Complainant can neither admit nor deny the accuracy, applicability, or effect of the referenced terms and conditions in this case, and states that the cited document stands for itself. For example, the document contains no specific publication date to confirm that it applied to Respondent’s customers, including Laufer, in 2021 and 2022 at United States ports and terminals.

RPFF74. The bill of lading defines “Merchant” as “Consignor, the Shipper, the Receiver, the Consignee, the Owner of the Goods, the Holder or Endorsee of this Bill of Lading, any Person Owing, entitled to or claiming the possession of the Goods or the Bill of Lading and anyone acting on behalf of any such person.” Id.

RESPONSE: Complainant can neither admit nor deny the accuracy, applicability, or effect of the referenced terms and conditions in this case, and states that the cited document stands for itself. For example, the document contains no specific publication date to confirm that it applied to Respondent’s customers, including Laufer, in 2021 and 2022 at United States ports and terminals.

RPFF75. The bill of lading reflected delivery in Clause 5, “CARRIER’S RESPONSIBILITY: (1) Port to Port Shipment If box 4, box 5 and/or box 9 without any inserted, or the place(s) or port(s) indicated therein is/are same as the place(s) or port(s) that indicated in box 7 and box 8 on the front of this Bill of Lading, this Bill of Lading is a Port-to-Port contract. The Carrier shall be responsible for the Goods as Carrier from the time when the Goods are received by the Carrier at the Port of Loading until the time of delivery thereof at the port of discharge to the Merchant or to the Authority as required by local laws or regulations, whichever occurs earlier.” Id.

RESPONSE: Complainant can neither admit nor deny the accuracy, applicability, or effect of the referenced terms and conditions in this case, and states that the cited document stands for itself. For example, the document contains no specific publication date to confirm that it applied to Respondent’s customers, including Laufer, in 2021 and 2022 at United States ports and terminals.

RPFF76. The bill of lading also clearly stated the shipper or consignee was responsible for timely returning the empty container: “10. CARRIER’S CONTAINERS [...] (2) If Carrier's Containers and equipment are ... unpacked at the Merchant's premises, the Merchant is responsible for returning the empty Containers...to the point or place designated by the Carrier...within the time prescribed in the Tariff and/or required by the Carrier. Should a Container not be returned within the aforesaid time, the Merchant shall be liable for any detention, demurrage, loss or expenses which may arise from such non-return.” Id.

RESPONSE: Complainant can neither admit nor deny the accuracy, applicability, or effect of the referenced terms and conditions in this case, and states that the cited document stands for itself. For example, the document contains no specific publication date to confirm that it applied to Respondent’s customers, including Laufer, in 2021 and 2022 at United States ports and terminals.

RPFF77. COSCO's demurrage and detention rules were published in its tariff publication in the Relevant Period. CX_001360 (Takase Dep. Tr. 12:24-13:2).

RESPONSE: Admitted that Mr. Takase testified that Respondent's tariff includes the amount of free days before demurrage will be incurred by a customer. Denied as to the remainder, as the cited testimony does not state that Respondent's demurrage and detention rules were published in its tariff during the Relevant Period.

RPFF78. The bill of lading also stated, "23. NOTIFICATION AND DELIVERY [...] (2) The Merchant shall take delivery of the Goods within the time provided for in the Carrier's applicable Tariff or as required by the Carrier. (3) If the Merchant fails to take delivery of the Goods during a reasonable time or whenever in the opinion of the Carrier the Goods are likely to deteriorate, decay, become worthless or incur charges whether for storage or otherwise in excess of their value, the Carrier may, at its discretion, without prejudice to any rights which he may have against the Merchant, without notice and without any responsibility whatsoever attaching to him, unstuff, sell, destroy or dispose of the Goods at the sole risk and expense of the Merchant, and apply any proceeds of sale in reduction of the sums due to the Carrier from the Merchant. The aforesaid unstuffing shall constitute due delivery hereunder and thereupon all liability whatsoever of the Carrier in respect of the Goods thereof shall cease. (4) Where the Carrier is obliged to hand over the Goods so carried into the custody of the port, customs or any other Authorities at the Port of Discharge or Place of Delivery and the Goods are delivered by the same to the Merchant without necessity of production of this Bill of Lading by the Merchant as required by the local law, regulation and/or practice, such hand-over shall constitute due delivery to the Merchant under this Bill of Lading and there-upon the liability of the Carrier in respect of the Goods shall entirely cease." RX_000266-RX_000288 (COSCO Form Bill of Lading, available at https://lines.coscoshipping.com/lines_resource/pdf/coscon_tidan_cn.pdf) (last visited July 12, 2025)

RESPONSE: Complainant can neither admit nor deny the accuracy, applicability, or effect of the referenced terms and conditions in this case, and states that the cited document stands for itself. For example, the document contains no specific publication date to confirm that it applied to Respondent’s customers, including Laufer, in 2021 and 2022 at United States ports and terminals.

B. SSE’S BUSINESS PRACTICES

RPFF79. SSE has adduced no evidence demonstrating that any of the alleged Charges, whether or not assessed by COSCO, violated the Incentive Principle.

RESPONSE: This paragraph does not set forth a statement of fact but rather constitutes a legal conclusion and argument regarding the sufficiency of Complainant’s evidence and the applicability of the Incentive Principle. No response is required. To the extent a response is deemed necessary, Complainant denies the assertion.

RPFF80. During the Relevant Period, Supply Source and its subsidiaries “were purchasing large quantities of inventory at elevated prices” based on a study predicting COVID-19 pandemic purchasing of personal protective and janitorial equipment would continue through 2024. RX_000251-RX_000252 (Studebaker Dec. ¶¶ 34-35).

RESPONSE: The assertions in this paragraph are drawn from statements in a declaration filed in a separate bankruptcy proceeding, which Respondent has included as an exhibit in its appendix. The cited declaration has not been established as true in this proceeding, has not been tested through admissible evidence, and Mr. Studebaker was not deposed in this proceeding regarding these statements. Complainant does not admit the accuracy of the statements attributed to Mr. Studebaker.

RPFF81. By the end of 2021, “the demand for PPE [SSE’s principal commodity; see RPFF11] had decreased to normal rates and, to make matters worse, some of the Debtors’ regular customers were ordering at lower than normal rates due to, among other things, (i) work from home policies, which depleted the need for office building janitorial services and related products, (ii) a rise in virtual schooling, which decreased the need for food services, janitorial services, and related products therewith, and (iii) changes around daily hotel room cleaning, which reduced the need for related sanitation and cleaning products.” RX_000252 (Studebaker Dec. ¶ 36).

RESPONSE: The assertions in this paragraph are drawn from statements in a declaration filed in a separate bankruptcy proceeding, which Respondent has included as an exhibit in its appendix. The cited declaration has not been established as true in this proceeding, has not been tested through admissible evidence, and Mr. Studebaker was not deposed in this proceeding regarding these statements. Complainant does not admit the accuracy of the statements attributed to Mr. Studebaker.

RPFF82. During 2021 and 2022, Supply Source operated six warehouses located in the United States, in California, Connecticut, Indiana, Texas, Ohio and Florida. RX_000299 (Hallett Dep. Tr. 33:12-34:13).

RESPONSE: Admitted.

RPFF83. During 2021 and 2022, SSE “did not have adequate capacity to store the excess inventory they had.” RX_000252 (Studebaker Dec. ¶ 37).

RESPONSE: The assertions in this paragraph are drawn from statements in a declaration filed in a separate bankruptcy proceeding, which Respondent has included as an exhibit in its appendix. The cited declaration has not been established as true in this proceeding, has not been tested through admissible evidence, and Mr. Studebaker was not deposed in this proceeding regarding these statements. Complainant does not admit the accuracy of the statements attributed to Mr. Studebaker.

RPFF84. But it was not until the fall of 2023, SSE “began to analyze and assess their distribution footprint with the aim of optimizing their distribution network,” which led to several distribution center closures and openings. RX_000253 (Studebaker Dec. ¶ 38).

RESPONSE: The assertions in this paragraph are drawn from statements in a declaration filed in a separate bankruptcy proceeding, which Respondent has included as an exhibit in its appendix. The cited declaration has not been established as true in this proceeding, has not been tested through admissible evidence, and Mr. Studebaker was not deposed in this proceeding regarding these statements. Complainant does not admit the accuracy of the statements attributed to Mr. Studebaker.

RPFF85. SSE did not own or operate trucks for the movement of containers. RX_000301 (Hallett Dep. Tr. 44:21-45:7).

RESPONSE: Denied. The cited testimony does not state that SSE did not own or operate trucks for the movement of containers. RX_000301 (Hallett Dep. Tr. 44:21–45:7).

RPFF86. SSE used a drayage broker, TransNet, to facilitate finding truckers to pick up loaded containers from place of delivery for transportation to SSE’s warehouses. RX_000301-302 (Hallett Dep. Tr. 44:21-45:7)

RESPONSE: Admitted that Mr. Hallett testified that Impact Products and Safety Zone used TransNet to book truck carriers. Denied to the extent the statement implies that TransNet was the only company used for drayage services. RX_000301–302 (Hallett Dep. Tr. 44:21–45:7).

RPFF87. SSE’s problems managing its incoming cargo after the sharp decline in demand for PPE in the fall of 2021 became evident when SSE, who was responsible for timely removing its cargo from the marine or rail terminal, had difficulty doing so. For example, on September 15, 2021, Laufer (Erica Liu) and SSE (Jeannine Brietenbach) discussed the difficulty they were having promptly moving SSE’s cargo in container number BMOU3152880 from the marine terminal (“Any luck on the BMOU container FD [final destination] Laredo? No, not yet. I also tried the carrier Larry [Hallett] recommended, but they did not respond at all. Currently last free day ... is 9/20.” CX_002188 – CX_002189. Laufer let SSE know that it couldn’t guarantee that a trucker could remove the container by the last free day. CX_002187. This discussion also revealed that SSE was transshipping for re-export to Mexico or was moving its cargo to a warehouse instead of its preferred final destination, where it could have incurred charges TZ characterized as “yard storage” or “demurrage.” CX_002184.

RESPONSE: Denied to the extent the statement asserts that any difficulties moving cargo from the marine terminal were caused by or evidence of “problems managing incoming cargo” following a decline in demand for PPE in the fall of 2021. The cited email exchange reflects a discussion between staff from Laufer, Safety Zone, and SSE regarding arrangements to move specific containers before their last free day, noting issues related to port and rail congestion and a lack of chassis. CX_002186, CX_002190. Further denied as CX_002184 does not state that “SSE was transshipping for re-export to Mexico or was moving its cargo to a warehouse instead of its preferred final destination, where it could have incurred charges TZ characterized as ‘yard storage’ or ‘demurrage’.”

RPFF88. SSE also had trouble clearing its cargo through customs. Laufer, who also did SSE's customs entry, warned SSE on September 7, 2021 that a container "might be sent to G.O ["General Order"] warehouse soon" as SSE had failed to timely enter the cargo and had not paid the required import duties. CX_002194-CX_002159.

RESPONSE: Denied. The cited email does not state that SSE "had trouble clearing its cargo through customs." Rather, Laufer informed SSE regarding a specific container that "might be sent to G.O. warehouse soon." The email does not state that this was due to SSE's failure to timely enter the cargo or to pay required import duties, nor does it constitute a "warning" as characterized in Respondent's statement. CX_002194.

RPFF89. SSE has adduced no evidence demonstrating that it disputed the Charges for the Relevant Shipments with COSCO directly. Further, Mr. Hallett testified that SSE did not communicate directly with COSCO. RX_000309 (Hallett Dep. Tr. 75:11-20). .

RESPONSE: The first sentence is argumentative and constitutes a legal conclusion to which no response is required. Admitted that Mr. Hallett testified that Impact Products and Safety Zone did not contact Respondent directly to request extensions of time or waivers of the charges, and that such requests were made to Laufer, who would contact Respondent on their behalf. RX_000309 (Hallett Dep. Tr. 75:11-20).

C. RELEVANT CHARGES

RPFF90. SSE's Larry Hallett testified that SSE did not include "stop-off charges" (charges assessed by a dray provider for stopping at multiple warehouses) in its list of charges in contention in this litigation. RX_000315-RX_000316 (Hallett Dep. Tr. 100:6-102:5).

RESPONSE: Admitted. The Amended Damages Spreadsheet does not contain "stop-off charges" in its list of charges in contention. CX_000019 to 000025.

RPFF91. Nevertheless, at deposition on April 11, 2025, Mr. Hallett confirmed that one of the charges identified by Complainant, a single charge for container FFAU3291160, was for a stop-off fee. RX_000315-RX_000316 (Hallett Dep. Tr. 98:15-103:19)

RESPONSE: Admitted that the Original Damages Spreadsheet contained a single charge related to a “stop-off charge” for container FFAU3291160, but that this charge was removed in Complainant’s Amended Damages Spreadsheet. CX_000019 to 000025.

RPFF92. COSCO responded to Complainant’s interrogatories for each shipment alleged, , informing Complainant which charges were not invoiced by COSCO. CX_002272-CX_002276.

RESPONSE: Admitted in part. The cited spreadsheet reflects Respondent’s information regarding which demurrage charges were invoiced by Respondent; it does not address other categories of charges. CX_002272–CX_002276.

RPFF93. Complainant’s Exhibit 12 includes notations made by COSCO for each of the bills of lading TZ asserts COSCO charged Laufer. CX_002273-CX_002276.

RESPONSE: Admitted in part. The cited exhibit contains Respondent’s notations regarding certain demurrage charges for the listed bills of lading; it does not address other categories of charges. CX_002273–CX_002276.

RPFF94. None of the charges listed on Complainant’s Amended Damages Spreadsheet as “yard storage” totaling $256,055 were invoiced by COSCO and no such charges were paid to COSCO. See, for example, CX_002112 – CX_002114, an invoice from Laufer to Safety Zone for BL No. COSU6881728780 for container number OOCU7956128 in the amount of $8,425.00 for “Yard Storage”.

RESPONSE: Denied to the extent this statement asserts that none of the “yard storage” charges on Complainant’s Amended Damages Spreadsheet were invoiced by Respondent, as Respondent has not cited record evidence establishing this for all such charges. The cited Laufer invoice for BL No. COSU6881728780 (container OOCU7956128) lists “Yard Storage” and identifies Respondent as the carrier. CX_002112–CX_002114.

RPFF95. SSE’s Larry Hallett’s Affidavit does not demonstrate that he reviewed any invoice from COSCO to prepare either the Original Damages Spreadsheet or the Amended Damages Spreadsheet. CX_000002-CX_000005. Indeed, Exhibit A to Mr. Hallett’s Affidavit does not include a single invoice issued by COSCO. CX_000009-CX_000018. While the Hallett Affidavit asserts that Mr. Hallett reviewed “the bills of lading and container numbers in the Laufer invoices,” he says nothing about reviewing any COSCO bills of lading or invoices. CX_000005. The Amended Damages Spreadsheet therefore represents only the charges that Laufer invoiced to TZ, not the charges COSCO invoiced to Laufer. Indeed, a quick examination of the Laufer invoices attached to Mr. Hallett’s Affidavit makes this clear. CX_000154 – CX_001355.

RESPONSE: Denied. The assertions in this paragraph, to the extent they characterize what Mr. Hallett did or did not review or draw conclusions about the scope of his affidavit, are argumentative and not statements of fact. Denied that Mr. Hallett “says nothing” about reviewing any Respondent bills of lading or invoices; Paragraph 19 of his affidavit states that he reviewed “all relevant invoices, either on Respondent’s or Laufer’s letterhead” corresponding to the bills of lading and container numbers in the Amended Damages Spreadsheet. CX_000005. Further denied that the Amended Damages Spreadsheet represents “only” charges invoiced by Laufer to Complainant and not charges Respondent invoiced to Laufer, as this is a legal conclusion unsupported by evidence beyond the spreadsheet itself.

RPFF96. TZ's expert, John C. McCown, reviewed only seven (7) invoices issued by Laufer to SSE to reach the conclusion that COSCO was responsible for all the charges alleged in the Complaint. RX_000161 (McCown Dep. Tr. at 69:19-70:3).

RESPONSE: Admitted that Mr. McCown testified he reviewed seven invoices issued by Laufer to Complainant, which were not the underlying carrier invoices. RX_000161. Denied that Mr. McCown testified his conclusions were based solely on those seven invoices, as that was not part of his testimony. Id.

RPFF97. Complainant's Exhibit B to the Hallett Affidavit (Amended Damages Spreadsheet) includes four types of charges, namely, "demurrage, detention, per diem, and yard storage." CX_000021.

RESPONSE: Admitted.

RPFF98. The demurrage column in Complainant's Amended Damages Spreadsheet totals $262,124.21 (CX-000021-CX_000025) for the following MBLs:

RPFF102. While Laufer may have charged TZ for such services, COSCO does not provide “yard storage” nor does it issue invoices for “yard storage” fees. CX_001364 (Takase Dep. Tr. 29:8-11); RX_000084 (Kent Report at ¶ 32(b)); RX_000044 (Hackett Report at 40). No charges in TZ’s Amended Damages Spreadsheet can therefore be attributed to COSCO.

RESPONSE: Admitted that Mr. Takase testified as cited, without admitting the truth of the matters asserted. CX_001364 (Takase Dep. Tr. 29:8–11). Denied that the cited portions of the Kent and Hackett Reports establish that Respondent does not issue invoices for yard storage fees. The final sentence constitutes a legal conclusion to which no response is required.
