RE: Order Requiring Joint Status Report
Marie Carew d/b/a/ Holiday Shipping v. Maersk Line A/S et al.
Docket No.: 20-17

Dear Honorable Wirth:

On July 20, 2021, the Court issued a Revised Scheduling Order in this case. Specifically, the Court requested specific and sufficient facts underlying Complainant's allegation in its Complaint that Respondent holds the following four containers it shipped to Nigeria: B/L 965477262; 96544009; 965751148; and 965885829. The Court ordered Complainant to file a brief with a proposed finding of facts and appendix on or before August 23, 2021.

Findings of Fact:

1. Maersk Line A/S, the Respondent, refuses to release the bills of lading in each of these four (4) consignments. See attached Affidavit of Marie Carew.
2. On December 7, 2018, Complainant addressed a letter to Kathy Patel, agent for Respondent, soliciting for the release of containers that Complainant shipped with Respondent, among which were the herein four (4) containers;
3. Complainant made numerous other efforts to Respondent to obtain the release of these consignments, and each of the measures failed;
4. As a freight forwarder, Complainant does not issue its bill of lading. The Respondent issues and releases the bill of lading to Complainant through its online portal. The Complainant could then go onto the portal to obtain bill of lading and forward to the shipper/merchant or its

Consignee to use in the clearing of the consignment at the destination's port. Other than the original bill of lading, Respondent, at times, issues its sea waybills or a telex release;

5. Ordinarily, Respondent issues its bill of lading or the sea waybill or telex release when the consignment leaves the originating port and is en route to the destination port. The Respondent has refused to release the bills of lading, sea waybill, or telex release for any of these consignments;

6. Joseph Famoye, is the merchant and real party-in-interest of the Container #: MRKU6064475, B/L #: 965885829. Mr. Famoye retained the services of Complainant to ship three (3) vehicles and some other personal goods. Mr. Famoye designated his agent as the Consignee to receive and clear his container through the Nigeria Customs Services. After months of waiting for the bill of lading from Complainant, which Respondent has refused to release, he retained Sulovic Global Ventures, LTD, a clearing agent in Nigeria, to process the container through the Nigeria Customs Services. Famoye has paid Seven Hundred and Seventy-Five Thousand, Eight Hundred Fifty-Four Naira (₦775,854.00) to the Nigeria Customs Services, representing the duty on the container and its consignment. Despite paying the duty, Mr. Famoye cannot clear his container through the Nigeria port because he does not have the bill of lading, a sea waybill, or a telex release. See attached Affidavit of Joseph Famoye. In addition to the customs duty, Mr. Famoye has paid a significant amount of money to others

Arguments:

When Complainant alleges that Maersk Line A/S, Respondent, refuses to release the herein containers, she implies that Maersk Line A/S refuses to issue the bills of lading for any of the four (4) consignments. Mr. Famoye, Merchant and shipper for the Container #: MRKU6064475, B/L #: 965885829 has pursued extraordinary means to procure his container, including paying the customs duty and various other charges to obtain his container through Nigeria's ports. Mr. Famoye's efforts have failed merely because Maersk Line A/S refuses to release the bill of lading.

Even if Maersk Line A/S releases the bills of lading, Mr. Famoye and the other shippers impaired by the actions of Maersk Line A/S have suffered significant losses, and it is appropriate to compel Respondent to release the bills of lading immediately. Further, the Complainant requests a hearing to determine the remaining merits of parties' claims and defenses.

Respectfully submitted,

Law Office of Yinka T. Omole

AFFIDAVIT OF MARIE CAREW

Personally appeared before the undersigned attesting officer, duly authorized by law to administer oaths, Marie Carew, who being duly sworn, on oath states that she is over the age of eighteen (18) years and has personal knowledge of the facts outlined in this Affidavit or such knowledge is as stated herein, and makes this Affidavit for use as evidence for any and all matters in the above-styled action and all purposes authorized by law.

1. My name is Marie Carew, and I am the Marie Carew named in the herein lawsuit and as the Complainant;
2. I manage and direct all activities of Holiday Shipping, at all times, and have reviewed all the documents maintained in the course of business by Holiday Shipping and all other affiliated agencies about the issues involved in the herein lawsuit;
3. I am the freight forwarder on the herein four (4) containers, shipped through Respondent under the following bills of lading: B/L 965477262; 96544009; 965751148; and 965885829;
4. On March 3, 2021, and July 7, 2021, I made certain statements under oath and before a duly appointed officer of the court in the herein lawsuit. I hereby adopt the statements in each of the Affidavits and as if each is repeated verbatim in this current Affidavit;
5. Maersk Line A/S received the freight and the associated costs on these consignments;
6. Ordinarily, Maersk Line A/S would release the bill of lading upon its ship departing for the destination port to Complainant, and for the Complainant to forward to the merchant or its Consignee or the clearing agent;

7. Maersk Line A/S sends an email with the signed bill of lading attached and grants permission to Complainant to release same to the Merchant and Consignee;
8. Maersk Line A/S has refused to email Complainant with the herein bills of lading attached and with instruction to release the bill of lading to each of the Consignees or merchant in the herein four (4) bills of lading. And in spite of all efforts, Maersk Line A/S has refused to release the bills of lading;
9. In addition to the telephone calls and emails that the I sent to Maersk Line A/S and its agents, I hired counsel to assist in my negotiation with Respondent and presented offers of settlement to obtain the bills of lading for these consignments. The Commission has a copy of the Settlement Proposal that Complainant presented to Respondent on December 7, 2018;
10. Many of Holiday Shipping's customers reside outside the United States, and obtaining information from these customers is filled with communication and logistical challenges. However, Mr. Joseph Famoye, the owner of MRKU6064475; B/L965885829, resides in the US and has threatened a lawsuit to recover his consignment. Also, Rose Emeli B/L 965477262, through her attorneys, has equally threatened a lawsuit against Complainant;
11. The sole reason that the merchants and agents have not received the consignments at the destination ports is the absence of these bills of lading;
12. Maersk Line A/S remains in possession of each of the herein listed consignments, and, despite any contrary representation, Maersk Line A/S has refused to release them to the appropriate Consignees.

Dear Sir or Madame:

Please be advised that I am writing on behalf of Ms. Rose Emeli regarding your company shipping personal property to Agbai Ukuku Erere at 27 Akogun Street, Olodi Apapa, Lagos Nigeria under the above reference bill of lading.

It is our understanding that Ms. Rose Emeli entrusted the following items with your company on or about July 20, 2017: One Ghana Must Go Bag, One black plastic container, Two cartons containing baby carriers, Two gray plastic containers 08033709220 & 08038369933, Four cartons of brown boxes, and three grey plastic containers. Ms. Emeli has informed our office the total value of goods entrusted to your company was $5,000.00. To date Ms. Emeli has never been provide a company of any delivery confirmation. In fact, she reports that her relative in Nigeria has never received the items listed above even though three years have passed.

Mr. Emeli demands your company immediately provide her copies of documentation your possession, custody and control regarding this shipment. Further she demands to be provided companies of any consignment agreements, receipts of delivery. If such documents cannot be produced, Ms. Emeli demands payment of $5,000.00 to cover the replacement costs of the items entrusted to your company. Lastly please your surety and or insurance carrier information in order for Ms. Emeli to file a claim.

Accordingly, I inform you that if you do not comply with Ms. Emeli requests within ten (10) business days of the date of this letter, then I will advise Ms. Emeli to pursue all legal remedies

AFFIDAVIT OF JOSEPH FAMOYE

Personally appeared before the undersigned attesting officer, dully authorized by law to administer oaths, I Joseph Famoye, who being duly sworn, on oath states that I am over the age of eighteen (18) years, and has personal knowledge of the facts set forth in this Affidavit or such knowledge is as stated herein, and makes this Affidavit for use as evidence for any all matters in the above –styled action and all purposes authorized by law.

I am a Georgia residence, and reside at 1972 Patterson Park Dive, in Lawrenceville City.

On Thursday, July 29, 2021, I met with Mr. Yinka Omole, lawyer for Ms. Marie Carew and Holiday Shipping. Mr. Omole explained Ms. Carew’s efforts before the Commission to obtain my consignment. Mr. Omole then asked that I explain all the efforts that I have invested in obtaining the consignment in Nigeria.

First, I am an Auto Broker with Benvin Nigeria Limited Inc., a Georgia Corporation located at 3937 Holcomb bridge Road, Suite 301, Peachtree Corners, GA. 30092. In addition, I export Cars and merchandise to Nigeria always. I have been in business for more than Twenty (20) years.

Also, I maintained an office in Lagos, Nigeria for my exportation business. Mr. Samson Shoyinka, an Auto Agent with Anointing Auto Incorporation is my agent in Nigeria and manages the office in my absence.

With all these in mind, on July 15, 2018, I contacted Holiday Shipping Inc., owned and managed by Mrs. Marie Carew, to transport various items that includes three Cars namely: Toyota RAV4 2006, Toyota Sequoia 2005 and Nissan Murano 2006, and other household and Industrial merchandizes to Nigeria. Ms. Carew advised that I need to obtain a 40-foot Container.

Sometime in September 2018, Ms. Carew of Holiday Shipping informed me that my container had sailed to Nigeria on a Maersk line. Ms. Carew then provided me with the evidence of my shipment by sending a copy of Letter of Indemnity (LOI). This documents indicated the Bill of Lading Number as B/L 965885829. Ordinarily, I could initiate the clearing of my container in Nigeria with the LOI but cannot obtain the container until I present a valid bill of lading. In my past activities with Holiday Shipping, I have learned that the LOI is an essential document given by cargo interests and parties above them in the contractual chain to obtain cargo at a discharge port without delay in circumstances where the original bill of lading is not immediately available.

With the LOI, my agent in Lagos, Mr. Shoyinka Samson, who is equally the consignee for the container to apply to the Federal Government of Nigeria, Nigeria Custom Services (NCS) for clearance of the container. Mr. Samson and I have processed all the documentations necessary for the clearing but could not obtain the release without Maersk's bill of lading. Maersk has refused to release the bill of lading.

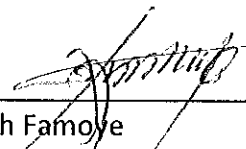

On March 5, 2019, I paid Seven Hundred and Seventy-Five Thousand, Eight Hundred Fifty-Four Naira (#775,854.00) from my account with Guarantee Trust Bank PLC to the NCS for the total cost of the clearing of the container. I attached the receipt. Even with the payment, I still need the Maersk bill of lading to process the container and its content out of the Port. And, Maersk has refused to release the bill of lading.

I have retained the services of two independent local clearing agents in Nigeria to process the container that has incurred Four million, One Hundred Fifty-Two Thousand, Seven Hundred Forty-Five Naira (#4,152,745.00). I have attached the receipt. With all these efforts, the problem is that: the agents in Nigeria still need the Bill of Lading to process the release of this Container. Without the bills of lading, none of my clearing agents can approach Maersk Line agents in Nigeria. The bill of lading is the only ticket to initiate any communication with Maersk Line and finally obtain the container's release.

Per Holiday Shipping, Maersk Line is the sole party responsible to produce the bill of lading. Again, the demurrage on the container as at the time I checked was #4,152,745.00. It is important to abate these charges but I am helpless.

Maersk Line remains in the custody of the herein consignments in the B/L 965885829, and has refused to release it to me, my agent, the Consignee, or Holiday Shipping.
