JOINT STATUS REPORT FOR JUNE 30, 2021

COMES NOW counsel for the above parties and agree to submit this Second Joint Status Report. This report is submitted as ordered by this Court in its Order dated June 2, 2021.

The parties hereby report that they have been involved in mediation with the Commission's Office of Consumer Affairs and Dispute Resolution Services ("CADRS"). The parties have participated in telephone mediation with mediator scheduling times to talk to each party separately. With mediation ongoing, the parties are hopeful of reaching a resolution at some point in July.

As requested in the June 2nd Order, the parties propose the following schedule:

1. Parties shall complete discovery by July 15, 2021.
2. Complainant shall provide his brief in support of his claims, including claims related to 46 U.S.C. Sec. 41102(c), no later than July 31, 2021.
3. Respondent shall provide its brief in opposition of Complainant's claims no later than August 31, 2021.
4. Complainant shall have the right to submit a reply brief no later than September 15, 2021.

The parties ask that this Court approve the briefing schedule as proposed herein and that the Court all the parties to continue mediation while moving forward with the briefing as proposed.

If the Court has any questions about the current status of this matter or the plans to move forward with mediation, please do not hesitate to let us know.

This 30th day of June 2021.

Respectfully submitted,
THRIFT MCLEMORE
