FIRST AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

The Commission lacks subject jurisdiction over this action which involves claims against MAERSK arising from and relating to an alleged breach of an ocean Bill of Lading contract.

SECOND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

The Complaint fails to state a claim against MAERSK on which relief may be granted.

THIRD AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

MAERSK breached no contractual or other legal duty to Complainant.

FOURTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

The goods described in the Complaint were transported by MAERSK subject to the terms, conditions, exceptions and limitations of MAERSK's governing Bill of Lading and Tariffs, including, but not limited to claim and suit-filing periods and limitations of liability.

FIFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

The Complainant is a "Merchant" within the meaning of MAERSK's governing Bill of Lading and Tariffs and is subject to their terms, conditions, exceptions and limitations.

SIXTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

All claims against MAERSK are barred by the Complainant's lack of contractual privity with MAERSK

SEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

All claims against MAERSK are barred by the direct purchaser doctrine.

EIGHTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

All claims against MAERSK are barred by the "Q" Clause of the Carriage of Goods by Sea Act of 1936 ("COGSA").

NINTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

MAERSK has no liability for any loss caused by arrest or restraint of princes, rulers, or people or seizure under legal process.

TENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

MAERSK has no liability for any loss caused by an act, neglect, or default of the master, mariner, pilot, or the servants of the carrier in the navigation or in the management of this ship

ELEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

MAERSK's alleged liability which is denied, is limited under COGSA to $500.00 per package or per customary freight unit.

TWELFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

The Complaint fails to allege facts establishing unjust and unreasonable practices by MAERSK on a normal, customary and continuous basis within the meaning of 46 U.S.C. Sec. 41102 (c) and 46 C.F.R. § 545.4 (b).

THIRTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

MAERSK is not liable to the Complainant for special or consequential damages such as loss of use, loss of revenue, lost profits, additional costs and the like. To the extent any damages sought by Complainant constitute special or consequential damages, MAERSK is not liable for them.

FOURTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

MAERSK is not liable for any unreasonable charges paid by the Complainant to other parties.

WHEREFORE, Respondent MAERSK A/S demands judgment dismissing the Complaint with prejudice and for such other and further relief as the Commission may deem just and proper.

CROSS-CLAIM AGAINST EJIKE DICKSON EZE, SEALINES INTERNATIONAL AND SEAMATES INTERNATIONAL, INC.

1. MAERSK repeats and reallege each and every allegation contained in paragraphs "1" through "32" above as if set forth herein at length.

2. If Complainant suffered any loss or damages, which is denied, and if MAERSK is adjudged liable to Complainant, any such liability, loss or damages were caused by the active and primary carelessness, negligence, breach of contractual duty, fault, acts, omissions or Shipping Act violations of co-respondents EJIKE DICKSON EZE d/b/a EJIKE INTERNATIONAL TRADE LIMITED, SEALINES INTERNATIONAL and SEAMATES INTERNATIONAL, INC. and if any judgment is entered in favor of Complainant against MAERSK, co-respondents EJIKE DICKSON EZE, SEALINES INTERNATIONAL and SEAMATES INTERNATIONAL, INC. should be adjudged liable to MAERSK in whole or in part for the amount of such liability, loss or damage based on apportionment, indemnity and/or contribution.

ANSWER TO CROSSCLAIMS

MAERSK denies all allegations set forth in any Crossclaims against it and incorporates by reference all Affirmative Defenses asserted in response to the Complaint as if asserted in response to such Crossclaims.
