v.

MAERSK A/S DBA MAERSK, Respondent.

DOCKET NO. 22-22

Served: November 4, 2022

ORDER OF: Linda S. Harris CROVELLA, Administrative Law Judge.

ORDER ENTERING CONFIDENTIALITY STIPULATION AND PROTECTIVE ORDER

On November 2, 2022, the parties filed a joint motion requesting entry of a confidentiality stipulation and protective order. The parties separately filed a confidentiality stipulation and proposed protective order on the same date ("Confidentiality Stipulation"). The parties indicated that they have "STIPULATED AND AGREED, in good faith...that this Confidentiality Stipulation and Proposed Protective Order shall be applicable to this Proceeding...." Stipulation at 1.

The initial order in this proceeding states that: "The parties may agree and stipulate between themselves regarding treatment of confidential documents and information obtained during discovery that is no filed with the Commission. The parties may, but are not required to, file a courtesy copy of the agreement with the Commission." Initial Order at 4.

The Confidentiality Stipulation is reasonable however, the parties should note that after the initial decision is issued, the undersigned has no authority to rule on issues arising from the proceeding, and that cannot be changed by agreement between the parties. Paragraph 25 of the Confidentiality Stipulation, rather than indicating "the ALJ" should indicate "the presiding officer" in the event a challenge of confidential designations arises after the initial decision issues. Paragraph 26 states that "the ALJ shall retain jurisdiction over the parties, even after termination of this Proceeding...." As stated above, the undersigned has no authority to retain jurisdiction after the issuance of the initial decision. Accordingly, paragraph 25 is revised to replace "the ALJ" wherever it appears in that paragraph with "the presiding officer." Paragraph 26 is stricken from the confidentiality stipulation.

The parties have established good cause to enter the confidentiality agreement and protective order. Accordingly, the joint motion is GRANTED, and it is hereby ORDERED that the confidentiality stipulation and protective order shall be entered as an order in this proceeding as revised by the above.
