

FEDERAL MARITIME COMMISSION

Office of Administrative Law Judges

U SHIPPERS GROUP INC., Complainant

v.

MAERSK A/S DBA MAERSK, Respondent.

DOCKET NO. 22-22

Served: January 18, 2023

ORDER OF: Linda S. Harris CROVELLA, Administrative Law Judge.

AMENDED SCHEDULING ORDER

On January 18, 2023, the parties filed a joint report and proposed amended scheduling order (“Joint Report”). The parties state that they have exchanged discovery requests, discussed those requests, and produced a “high volume of documents” to each other, and that production took longer than anticipated. Consequently, the parties require an extension of the dates by which to complete discovery and submit their respective briefs.

The parties propose an amended schedule which is reasonable. Because the adjustments to the schedule extend times to complete tasks by nearly two months from the original schedule, a second joint status report has been added to the schedule proposed by the parties.

The parties are hereby ORDERED to follow this schedule:

March 17, 2023	Disclosure of Initial Expert Reports
March 24, 2023	Joint Status Report
April 3, 2023	Disclosure of Rebuttal Expert Reports
April 24, 2023	Joint Status Report
May 1, 2023	Close of discovery
May 31, 2023	Complainant’s brief, proposed findings of fact, and appendix
June 30, 2023	Respondent’s opposition brief, responses to proposed findings of fact, proposed findings of fact, and appendix

July 14, 2023

Complainant's reply brief and responses to proposed findings of fact

Due to the Commission's requirement that an Initial Decision be issued by August 30, 2023, additional extensions of time will not be permitted. The parties should complete all discovery in the time allotted or be prepared to proceed without discovery.

The parties are reminded to follow the guidelines for brief formatting and submission as described in the Scheduling Order of November 3, 2022.
