Office of Administrative Law Judges

ORANGE AVENUE EXPRESS, INC., Complainant

v.

HAPAG LLOYD AG, Respondent.

DOCKET NO. 21-10

Served: January 14, 2022

ORDER OF: Erin M. WIRTH, Chief Administrative Law Judge.

ORDER GRANTING FURTHER EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE ANSWER

On January 13, 2021, Respondent filed a request for an eight-day extension of time to file its answer due to the unavailability of certain personnel and involvement of personnel in a related FMC proceeding. Respondent states that the modest extension should not adversely impact the schedule of this proceeding, the parties are engaged in preliminary settlement discussions, and Complainant has no objections to the requested extension. Respondent was previously provided a ten-day extension.

Good cause having been stated, it is hereby ORDERED that Respondent's motion seeking an extension of time to file a responsive pleading be GRANTED. Respondent's responsive pleading should be filed by January 21, 2022. Although settlement is encouraged, those talks may continue and may benefit from filing a response to the complaint and beginning discovery. Therefore, no further extensions of the time to respond to the complaint will be permitted.
