Re: Hangzhou Qianwang Dress vs. RDD Freight Int'l
Docket No. 17-02

Dear Judge Wirth:

This law office represents RDD Freight International Inc., Respondent in the captioned FMC action. In compliance with respect to Judge Erin M. Wirth's Order Requiring Joint status report, I wish to report the following:

1. RDD's Counsel did receive an odd phone call from someone claiming to be Mr. Qian, but said nothing but screaming for RDD's payment of compensation to him for his alleged damages! This caller never mentioned any discovery demands or the remand in question. I found it extremely awkward in dealing with a non-lawyer who displayed some kind of unstable mental state. After such a fit of temper, he just hanged up. I was totally confused – this was certainly no way of any effort to work with me.
2. RDD does not anticipate any more discovery from its standpoint regarding the issue of the alleged violation that “occurred on a normal, customary and continuous basis;”
3. RDD submits that it has settled the subject claim with the Petitioner in China; which should be deemed as Accord and Satisfaction barring any further pursuit of the Petitioner;
4. Petitioner has the prima facie burden of proving that the alleged violation committed by RDD “occurred on a normal, customary and continuous basis” under the new interpretive Rules.

Thank you for your anticipated courtesies in this matter.

Very truly yours,
