To: Federal Maritime Commission,

I am writing to you in support of the pending ruling by The Federal Maritime Commission regarding new refund rules for cruise ships. My husband and I were originally to cruise in March 2020 with Viking Cruise Lines, we were rescheduled for March 2022 and recently have been told that we are now scheduled for March 2023. We paid in full for our cruise in 2019 and purchased trip insurance, and now they will be holding our money till 2023, which is not acceptable! Viking is now advertising Risk-Free Cruising, which means Viking has no Risk, they have our money. I am a kidney transplant recipient of 21 years and don't know if it will ever be safe to travel out of the country on a cruise ship.

I am very concerned if the ruling is made for refunds Viking will say, I still don't quality.

Attached:

1. A copy of my original letter to Trip Mate requesting a refund, which was denied.
2. A copy of my latest letter to Viking stating that I will be requesting a full refund when the new ruling goes into effect.

Please let me know if I can be of further assistance.

Respectfully
Linda Oakford
