

BEFORE THE
FEDERAL MARITIME COMMISSION

DOCKET NO. 24-23

SAMSUNG ELECTRONICS AMERICA, INC.,
COMPLAINANT,

v.

HMM CO., LTD. F/K/A HYUNDAI MERCHANT MARINE CO., LTD., RESPONDENT.

RESPONDENT HMM'S STATEMENT OF UNDISPUTED MATERIAL FACTS

Respondent HMM Co., Ltd. F/K/A Hyundai Merchant Marine Co., Ltd. respectfully submits this Statement of Undisputed Material Facts in support of its concurrently filed Motion for Partial Summary Judgment.

1. On or about April 3, 2025, Samsung Electronics America, Inc. filed a Verified Amended Complaint with the Federal Maritime Commission, naming HMM Co., Ltd. F/K/A Hyundai Merchant Marine Co., Ltd. ("HMM") as Respondent.

2. The Verified Amended Complaint alleges that HMM violated several provisions of the U.S. Shipping Act of 1984, as amended, specifically: 46 U.S.C. § 41102(c), 46 U.S.C. § 41104(a)(3), 46 U.S.C. § 41102(d), 46 U.S.C. § 41104(a)(10), 46 U.S.C. § 41104(a)(15), and 46 U.S.C. § 41104(a)(14).

3. Among the relief sought by the Verified Amended Complaint is the payment of reparations to SEA by HMM for damages purportedly suffered by SEA as a result of HMM's allegedly unlawful conduct.

4. The spreadsheet annexed hereto as Exhibit A was produced by SEA, bearing Bates no. SEA-HMM-2761333, in response to discovery requests served by HMM requiring SEA to identify the shipments which comprise the claims it has alleged against HMM. The bills of lading described in the spreadsheet annexed hereto as Exhibit A name SEA as consignee of the cargo covered by those bills of lading.

5. Applying Excel's pivot function to search the data in Exhibit A, HMM created a list of the claims which were discharged in Vancouver, Canada ("Canada Shipments"). The list of the Canada Shipments has been attached hereto in its native form as Exhibit B and in a PDF form as Exhibit C

6. By email dated April 24, 2026, counsel for HMM identified the Canada Shipments to counsel for SEA, provided case law confirming that the Federal Maritime Commission lacked subject matter jurisdiction over claims derived from the Canada Shipments and requested that those claims be voluntarily dismissed. A true and accurate copy of the email is annexed hereto as Exhibit D.

7. By email dated June 8, 2026, SEA's counsel declined to dismiss the claims derived from the Canada Shipments. A true and accurate copy of that email is annexed hereto as Exhibit E.

Dated June 18, 2026

Respectfully submitted,

Subject: RE: SEA v. HMM/Request to Withdraw HMM Counterclaim

Dear Chris,

We write in response to SEA's suggestion that HMM withdraw its counterclaim in this matter following the recent decision in the OOCL case. HMM is still considering your request but, at first blush, we disagree with your position that HMM's arguments are indistinguishable from OOCL's. However, HMM takes its obligation to present only meritorious arguments seriously, is reviewing the issue, and will analyze it further as discovery progresses. As you are aware, your request comes just as SEA has concluded its scheduled round of depositions of HMM witnesses and as HMM continues its depositions of SEA witnesses. In other words, this is precisely the moment when raising this issue will be the most disruptive to HMM and least disruptive to SEA. Accordingly, we will conclude our review of your request, but not in the requested timeframe (which is, in any event, not based on any apparent procedural deadlines or significant milestones with respect to SEA's ability to prosecute its claim or respond to HMM's counterclaim).

At the same time, in considering the range of issues that have been raised in this matter and with SEA's request now pending, we believe it would also be an appropriate juncture for SEA to consider immediately withdrawing its claim with respect to all cargoes that did not move in U.S. trade. Such claims are facially deficient, and SEA's continued pursuit of them would serve no purpose other than to needlessly increase costs and make it more difficult for HMM to review and consider the other issues involved in the dispute.

Specifically, in its Verified Amendment Complaint ("VAC"), SEA alleges violations of several provisions of the U.S. Shipping Act of 1984, as amended ("Shipping Act") that require or prohibit certain conduct by a common carrier. The provisions of the Shipping Act that the VAC alleges to have been violated are: 46 U.S.C. § 41102(c) (unreasonable practices); 46 U.S.C. § 41104(a)(3) and 46 U.S.C. § 41102(d) (retaliation); 46 U.S.C. § 41104(a)(10) (refusal to deal); 46 U.S.C. § 41104(a)(15) (non-compliant invoicing); and 46 U.S.C. § 41104(a)(14) (unreasonable charges). All of these statutory provisions apply to an entity acting as a common carrier, which the Shipping Act defines as a person that:

- (i) holds itself out to the general public to provide transportation by water of passengers or cargo between the United States and a foreign country for compensation;
- (ii) assumes responsibility for the transportation from the port or point of receipt to the port or point of destination; and
- (iii) uses, for all or part of that transportation, a vessel operating on the high seas or the Great Lakes between a port in the United States and a port in a foreign country. . . .

46 U.S.C. § 40102(7).

The U.S. Court of Appeals has held repeatedly that when a carrier moves cargo via a port in Canada rather than via a port in the United States, it is not acting as a common carrier within the meaning of the Shipping Act. For example, in Austasia Intermodal Lines, Ltd. v. Federal Maritime Commission, 580 F.2d 642 (D.C. Cir. 1978), the Court held that a non-vessel operating common carrier was not acting as a common carrier within the meaning of the Shipping Act and was not required to file a tariff for cargo moving under a through bill of lading from Detroit, MI to Australia via ports in Canada because the cargo was not being transported by a vessel operating between a port in the United States and a port in a foreign country.

Similarly, in Transpacific Westbound Rate Agreement v. Federal Maritime Commission, 951 F.2d 950 (D.C. Cir. 1991), the Court upheld a Commission order declining jurisdiction over portions of carrier agreements covering trades between two non-U.S. countries, which Commission order was based on the fact that carriers entering into agreements covering so-called foreign-to-foreign trades were not common carriers with respect to the non-U.S. portions of such agreements to the extent their vessels were not calling at a U.S. port.

The foregoing rationale has been relied upon to grant summary judgment in favor of a respondent with respect to claims that demurrage, detention, per diem and yard storage charges incurred in the United States violated the Shipping Act. Where cargo moves via a Canadian port the carrier is not a common carrier within the meaning of the Shipping Act with respect to those shipments. In TZ SSE Buyer, LLC v. COSCO Shipping Lines Co., Ltd., FMC Docket No. 24-09, respondent COSCO moved for summary judgment on the grounds that the Commission lacked jurisdiction over shipments from a foreign country to the United States via a Canadian port. The administrative law judge granted the motion, stating:

There is no question that the containers identified in MPSJ Appendix A were discharged in Canadian ports. (See Undisputed Material Fact, ¶ 4). Applying the definitions in the statute to the undisputed material facts, Respondent is not a “common carrier” as defined in § 40102(7) as to the shipments that were discharged in Canadian ports. For such shipments, the vessels did not operate on the high seas or the Great Lakes between a port in the United States and a port in a foreign country. And if Respondent is not a “common carrier” as defined by statute as to the shipments identified in MPSJ Appendix A, then Respondent cannot be liable under either §§ 41102(c) or 41104(a)(10) – which both require Respondent to be a “common carrier” – as to those shipments. Order Granting Respondent’s Motion for Partial Summary Judgment and Denying Complainant’s Motion for Leave to File a Surreply, FMC Docket No. 24-09 (ALJ, June 2, 2025) at 4.

Pursuant to the foregoing authority, there can be no argument that HMM was acting as a common carrier with respect to shipments moved to the U.S. from a foreign country via a Canadian port. The Commission lacks jurisdiction over any such claims in the VAC to the extent those claims apply to cargo moved via a Canadian port. Attached, please find a list of bills of lading and/or sea waybills (hereinafter “bills of lading”) issued by HMM for cargo consigned to SEA. Each listed bill of lading shows the port of discharge as either Prince Rupert, Canada or Vancouver, Canada. Additionally, we also attach the arrival notices for the relevant shipments showing the same discharge ports.

In light of the above, we would suggest the parties meet to discuss both of the foregoing requests in the hopes that they can each be amicably resolved in an efficient matter and without involvement of the ALJ.

Best regards,

Neil Quartaro

Subject: SEA v. HMM/Request to Withdraw HMM Counterclaim

EXTERNAL SENDER

Dear Neil,

We write regarding HMM's pending counterclaim dated April 14, 2025, as the pleading is executed by you (the "HMM Counterclaim"), and urge HMM to withdraw the counterclaim immediately. While SEA's motion to dismiss was filed on June 3, 2025, it remains sub judice before Presiding Officer Alex M. Chintella. At the same time, we presume you are aware of the litigation surrounding a counterclaim filed against SEA in the matter entitled: 24-17 - Samsung Electronics America, Inc. v. Orient Overseas Container Line Limited and OOCL (Europe) Limited v. Samsung Electronics Company, Ltd. (the "SEA/OOCL matter"). On Friday, March 20, 2026, ALJ Richard Ambrow issued an Order denying SEA's motion for attorney's fees in connection with the OOCL counterclaim against SEA, a counterclaim which was dismissed, appealed and remanded, and dismissed again (the "March 20 Order") (copy enclosed). The March 20 Order confirms the November 26, 2025 order dismissing the amended counterclaim became administratively final on December 29, 2025.

The March 20 Order summarized OOCL's counterclaim theory as follows:

OOCL filed its Verified Answer ("VA") on December 12, 2024, which also contained the CC. (See VAC and CC). The CC alleged that SEC and SEA entered into service contracts with OOCL in 2021 and 2022. (CC, at ¶¶ 2, 4). Among other things, the service contracts permitted SEC and SEA to nominate truckers for inland transportation (i.e., "customer nominated truckers" or "CNTs"), but made SEC and SEA responsible for any delays caused by CNTs. (CC, at ¶¶ 3, 17). Although OOCL sent invoices to SEC and SEA because they incurred various fees through their untimely CNTs, SEC and SEA never took advantage of OOCL's dispute resolution policy. To the contrary, SEC and SEA sent a demand for refunds and for waiver of any future charges on October 7, 2022 (the "October 7 Demand"), that lacked any specific details. Although OOCL asked for details, SEC and SEA never provided any, and ultimately filed the VC. (CC, at ¶¶ 18-26). The CC alleged that SEA violated 46 U.S.C. § 41102(a) by knowingly or willfully attempting to obtain ocean transportation of goods at less than applicable rates by an unjust or unfair means by making demands and filing the complaint seeking refunds and/or waiver of future fees. (CC, at ¶¶ 27-42).

March 20 Order at 3. HMM's Counterclaim makes strikingly similar allegations to the OOCL Counterclaim (as amended). The HMM Counterclaim, in pages 14-25, relies on the purported service contract and emphasizes the CNT language therein. The HMM Counterclaim has one Count, alleged at paragraph 47 as follows:

Section 41102(a) of the Shipping Act, 46 U.S.C. § 41102(a), prohibits a person from "knowingly and willfully, directly or indirectly, by means of false billing, false classification, false weighing, false report of weight, false measurement, or any other unjust or unfair device or means, obtain or attempt to obtain ocean transportation for property at less than the rates or charges that would otherwise apply."

When reviewing the HMM Counterclaim and the OOCL Counterclaim, it relies on the same Shipping Act Count and for all intents and purposes is the same. This is not too surprising as the Cozen O’Conner firm is co-counsel of record in the SEA/OOCL matter and the SEA/HMM matter, with Mr. Chris Raleigh and Ms. Katie Sobotta counsel of record in both FMC proceedings.

In the SEA/OOCL matter, then presiding officer Chintella (the same ALJ in the SEA/HMM matter), initially dismissed the OOCL Counterclaim with pointed observations as to its viability. The observations concerning this failed counterclaim theory have only gotten sharper since, culminating in the March 20 Order observations issued on Friday. Below are exact quotes from the March 20 Order stating, time and time again, the problems with this theory. In the Conclusion section of the March 20 Order, ALJ Ambrow states, “I find that OOCL’s counterclaim and OOCL’s third-party complaint would be objectively frivolous, and would appear to be a procedural delay tactic, but for the fact that the Commission concluded that it would not be futile to allow OOCL to amend its counterclaim (and, by logical extension, its third-party complaint).” March 20 Order at 15. A statement by an ALJ of the FMC that a pleading is “objectively frivolous” should raise alarm bells, especially when the essentially the same pleading is pending in another proceeding, as is the case here. But that is not the only candid statement ALJ Ambrow made; he supported his concluding remarks with the following observations:

- “There is no question that OOCL’s allegation that SEA and SEC violated section 41102(a) was weak.” March 20 Order at 12 (emphasis added).
- “Thus, there was no legal basis for OOCL’s counterclaim or OOCL’s third-party complaint.” Id. (emphasis added).
- “OOCL appears to argue that because a large company raised a facially-valid dispute, the large company must have harbored a secret plan all along. At best, that is a weak factual basis for OOCL’s claim.” Id. at 13 (emphasis added).
- “Because the counterclaim and third-party complaint were unsupported by any legal authority, and lacked factual support, I would be inclined to find that its allegations were frivolous or objectively unreasonable but for the fact that the Commission stated that OOCL was “entitled” to file an amended complaint, and that it should be given at least one chance to amend. The Commission also stated that it was not clear that an amended counterclaim (and, by the same logic, an amended third-party complaint) would necessarily be futile.” Id. at 13 (emphasis added).
- “Along the same lines, I would be inclined to find improper motivation for the counterclaim and third-party complaint but for the Commission’s remand.” Id (emphasis added).
- “In light of the weakness of OOCL’s allegations in OOCL’s counterclaim and OOCL’s third-party complaint, even after they were amended, and in light of the fact that two ALJs and the Commission all expressed a dim view of OOCL’s section 41102(a) claims, one could fairly wonder if the only reason OOCL was pursuing its 41102(a) claims was to delay SEA’s claim from advancing procedurally. Indeed, in my November 26 Order, I questioned whether OOCL had a dilatory motive when OOCL argued that I should allow its AMCC and ATPC to go forward because OOCL suggested that it would continue to appeal and cause further delays to this proceeding.” Id. (emphasis added).

- “As discussed above, I would be inclined to agree that OOCL pursued a meritless counterclaim and third-party complaint but for the fact that the Commission permitted OOCL to amend its counterclaim (and, by logical extension, the substantially similar third-party complaint).” Id.

In total, ALJ Ambrow made eight separate statements ranging from “objectively frivolous” to “meritless counterclaim” to describe the OOCL Counterclaim, which, again, is a near mirror image of the HMM Counterclaim.

SEA’s request that HMM withdraw the HMM Counterclaim immediately so no further resources are expended on this discredited theory by the FMC, let alone the parties. With HMM high-level executives from Korea in Washington DC this week for the continuation of party depositions, it is a fortuitous opportunity for you to be able to directly explain the importance of the persuasive authority that is the March 20 Order, let alone the ramifications if the HMM Counterclaim remains a pleading on the record. This is still time to act before the Presiding Officer issues its ruling on SEA’s motion to dismiss.

We request HMM respond to this request within one week by March 29, 2026. SEA reserves all rights. This is an open communication, not tied to any settlement discussions, and notice is provided it will be included as evidence for future submissions to the FMC. Future submissions include any exceptions to the Commission, motion for attorney’s fees, and any other relief.

Best regards,
Chris

Subject: SEA Response on Challenged Shipments: HMM Email of April 24, 2026, Request to Withdraw
Date: Monday, June 8, 2026 4:05:47 PM

EXTERNAL SENDER

Dear Neil,

Thank you for your agreement on June 3, 2026, that H&K could reply by COB today concerning the above-referenced subject. SEA has reviewed HMM's request to withdraw SEA's claims related to containers identified in the list of HMM bills of lading and/or sea waybills listing the port of discharge as either Prince Rupert, Canada or Vancouver, Canada, provided in connection with your request (the "Challenged Shipments"). After careful consideration of your legal arguments and relevant facts and circumstances of the Challenged Shipments, SEA declines HMM's request for the following reasons:

First, with respect to SEA "withdrawing its claim" as to the Challenged Shipments, SEA's Verified Amended Complaint (the "Complaint") alleges that HMM violated the Shipping Act in multiple respects, as set forth in six counts: Count I: Violations of 46 U.S.C. § 41102(c) (unreasonable practices); Count II: Violations of 46 U.S.C. § 41104(a)(3) and 46 U.S.C. § 41102(d) (retaliation); Count III: Violations of 46 U.S.C. § 41104(a)(10) (refusal to deal); Count IV: 46 U.S.C. § 41104(a)(15) (non-compliant invoicing); Count V: Violations of 46 U.S.C. § 41104(a)(14) (unreasonable charges); and Count VI: Violations of 46 U.S.C. § 41102(c) (Unjust and Unreasonable Dispute Resolution Practices).

HMM states that "[a]ll of these statutory provisions apply to an entity acting as a common carrier," but the Complaint alleges that HMM was acting as a common carrier with respect to the violations alleged in each count. It is therefore not appropriate on the face of the Complaint to withdraw any of the foregoing claims, none of which relies on allegations that HMM asserts are jurisdictionally deficient. Rather, the focus of your request is on SEA's ability to establish entitlement to reparations on certain charges that SEA may ultimately advance on the merits, and including satisfying the applicable burden to sufficiently establish many factors on a charge by charge basis. It is premature to challenge specific charge by charge reparations items before SEA has even submitted the charge by charge items for which it will seek reparations.

Second, with respect to your legal argument that the FMC lacks jurisdiction over alleged Shipping Act violations resulting in allegedly unlawful charges in U.S. intermodal transportation, you argue that "[t]he Commission lacks jurisdiction over any such claims in the VAC to the extent those claims apply to cargo moved via a Canadian port," and that based on bill of lading showing discharge locations at Canadian marine terminals, that as to the Challenged Shipments "there can be no argument that HMM was acting as a common carrier with respect to shipments moved to the U.S. from a foreign country via a Canadian port." As a practical matter, HMM principally relies on the ALJ decision in TZ SSE Buyer, LLC v. COSCO Shipping Lines Co., Ltd., Dkt. No. 24-09 (ALJ June 2, 2025) (with the purported support of other precedents addressed below) as dispositive authority for the broad legal proposition that “[w]here cargo moves via a Canadian port the carrier is not a common carrier within the meaning of the Shipping Act with respect to those shipments.”

We do not agree with the broad legal proposition HMM advances. We are also not persuaded that “withdrawing” portions of SEA’s entitlement to reparations on the merits is at this juncture either necessary or warranted, and indeed it may ultimately never be appropriate, based on the legal authorities cited and/or the facts and circumstances of the Challenged Shipments, which at this juncture in the case are not yet fully established.

We are mindful of Shipping Act precedent following an analytical framework that looks not just to whether an entity is a common carrier generally, but whether an entity is acting as a common carrier with respect the shipment or alleged violation at issue. However, the authorities that you cite do not stand for the broad proposition that “[t]he Commission lacks jurisdiction over any ...claims... to the extent those claims apply to cargo moved via a Canadian port.”

Each of the cases cited, Austasia, Transpacific, and TZ SSE Buyer, address jurisdiction more narrowly. In each, the FMC declined to exercise its jurisdiction because the undisputed evidence showed that the ocean carriers involved were operating exclusively between foreign ports. In TZ SSE Buyer, the underlying facts involved shipments moving on a vessel that only called at two foreign ports. In both Austasia and Transpacific, both of which involved the jurisdictional scope of FMC agreements, not specific intermodal shipments, the decisions emphasized that the Shipping Act’s primary jurisdictional concern was not regulating common carriers that operate “solely” or “strictly” in foreign trade, or “do not make use of United States ports at any point in their service.” Transpacific, 951 F.2d 950 at 951; Austasia, 580 F.2d 642 at 644, 646.

While the sole involvement of two foreign ports was determinative in TZ SSE Buyer, the decision did not purport to address every permutation of a shipment discharged at a Canadian port, and plainly neither TZ SSE Buyer nor Austasia or Transpacific purported to establish a rule of law that any shipment that touches a Canadian port divests the FMC of jurisdiction (indeed, the involvement of a U.S. port in the applicable agreements would have materially impacted the analyses and outcomes).

The reason that those decisions addressed exclusive foreign ports, and did not and should not be extended more broadly to any shipment merely discharged at a foreign port, is rooted in the statutory jurisdictional common carrier definition at issue. As HMM notes, and quote, the Shipping Act defines a “common carrier” as a person that:

- (i) holds itself out to the general public to provide transportation by water of passengers or cargo between the United States and a foreign country for compensation;
 - (ii) assumes responsibility for the transportation from the port or point of receipt to the port or point of destination; and
 - (iii) uses, for all or part of that transportation, a vessel operating on the high seas or the Great Lakes between a port in the United States and a port in a foreign country. . . .
- 46 U.S.C. § 40102(7).

As an initial matter, the analytical framework noted above applies the 40102(7) statutory definition to the specific, case-by-case facts at issue. HMM’s overly broad interpretation of 40102(7) ignores longstanding FMC precedent that “no single factor of an entity’s operation is determinative of its status as a common carrier.” Earlean Edwards Dukart v. Ocean Star International Inc., D/B/A International Van Lines, 2020 WL 3994385, FMC Dkt. No. 20-03 (ALJ July 10, 2020) (Initial Decision Granting Voluntary Dismissal) (admin. final Aug. 11, 2020) (quoting Rose Int’l, Inc. v. Overseas Moving Network Int’l, Ltd., 29 S.R.R. 119, 162 (FMC 2001)). Instead, “the Commission must evaluate the indicia of common carriage on a case-by-case basis.” Id. Commission precedent further directs “[t]he most essential factor [when evaluating common carrier status] is whether the carrier holds himself out to accept goods from whomever offered to the extent of his ability to carry.” River Parishes Company, Inc. v. Ormet Primary Aluminum Corporation, FMC Dkt. No. 96-06 (FMC Feb. 3, 1999) (Report and Order) at 47.

Merely relying, as HMM’s request does, on the discharge location at Canadian ports, is not sufficient legally or factually to properly analyze the application of Section 40102(7)(a) to the facts and circumstances of HMM’s qualification as a common carrier with respect to the Challenged Shipments. Among other things, it is not disputable that with respect to the Challenged Shipments, HMM: (i) held itself out to the general public to provide transportation by water of cargo between the United States and a foreign country for compensation and (ii) assumed responsibility for the transportation from the port or point of receipt to the port or point of destination.

As to Section 40102(7)(a)(iii) specifically, in TZ SSE Buyer, Austasia or Transpacific, the exclusive involvement of two foreign ports was determinative on the application of 46 U.S.C. § 40102(7)(a)(iii) because the none of the carriers at issue were “a person that...uses for all or part of transportation, a vessel operating on the high seas or the Great Lakes between a port in the United States and a port in a foreign country. . . .” But here, not only is the record not fully developed for the purpose of evaluating Section 40102(7)(a) in its entirety, the evidence developed at this juncture includes materially different facts bearing on the application of Section 40102(7)(a)(iii) specifically. For example, unlike TZ SSE Buyer’s evaluation of Section 40102(7)(a)(iii) solely on the factual basis of two foreign ports, the Challenged Shipments appear to involve transportation by: (a) “a person” (HMM), (b) that used for “part of that transportation,” (c) a “vessel operating on the high seas or the Great Lakes between a port in the United States and a port in a foreign country. . . .” Specifically, it appears that the Challenged Containers were transported on vessels for part of that transportation, vessels that called at U.S. ports on the same common carrier vessel itinerary.

Thus, we disagree with your assertion that “there can be no argument that HMM was acting as a common carrier with respect to shipments moved to the U.S. from a foreign country via a Canadian port.” SEA has a good faith basis in fact and law that there can be such arguments, and it is entirely appropriate that we continue to develop the record on these matters to develop such arguments in advance of presenting SEA’s case on the merits.

Pursuant to the foregoing, SEA declines HMM’s request as neither necessary nor appropriate at this juncture in the proceeding, because the cited authority is not dispositive on the law or the facts and circumstances of the Challenged Shipments, and because SEA has good faith bases to continue to develop the record on these issues and on presentation of charge by charge reparations generally.

Best regards,

Chris Nolan / Gerald Morrissey
