TRANS-NET, INC.

v.

FESCO OCEAN MANAGEMENT LIMITED

DOCKET NO. 04-07

TRANS-NET, INC.'S REPLY TO REQUEST FOR ORAL ARGUMENT OF FESCO OCEAN MANAGEMENT LIMITED

Trans-Net, Inc. does not see the need for an oral argument as requested by FESCO Ocean Management Limited. The apparent purpose of oral argument as requested and described would be served better through the development of the record in this proceeding. We are in an early motion stage for the second time (including Docket No. 03-08), and Trans-Net submits that it is time for its complaint to be answered and for this proceeding to move forward.

Although Trans-Net believes that oral argument is not needed, if the Presiding Judge grants oral argument, Trans-Net asks that it be limited to defined issues specified by the Presiding Judge. FOML's oral argument request projects an open-ended, lengthy ("at least thirty (30) minutes") presentation by FOML. That would appear to be more of a reply to Trans-Net's reply to FOML's motions to dismiss and for summary judgment (requiring leave of the Presiding Judge), but with no opportunity for Trans-Net to prepare
