DOCKET NO. 04-07

TRANS-NET, INC.

v.

FESCO OCEAN MANAGEMENT LIMITED

SUSPENSION OF LITIGATION SCHEDULE PENDING SETTLEMENT DISCUSSIONS

Counsel for the parties have advised me that the parties wish to enter into settlement discussions on December 16, 2004, and request that the schedule now in effect for litigation be suspended pending results of the discussions. As seen from my previous rulings served on November 16, 2004, there are many complex and difficult issues that were raised in the complaint and respondent had intended to file its own counter-complaint so as to further complicate the proceeding. Consequently, settlement discussions are very desirable and the parties should be free to concentrate on settlement rather than litigation.

For the foregoing reasons, the current schedule for litigation established in my previous rulings is suspended. Counsel shall advise me by December 20, 2004, of the status of their discussions and recommend such further procedure as may be warranted.
