FEDERAL MARITIME COMMISSION

WASHINGTON, D. C.

December 20, 2004

DOCKET NO. 04-07

TRANS-NET, INC.

v.

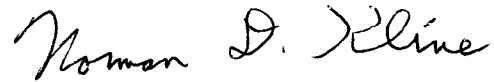

FESCO OCEAN MANAGEMENT LIMITED

SUSPENSION OF LITIGATION SCHEDULE CONTINUED TO PERMIT PARTIES TO CONTINUE SETTLEMENT DISCUSSIONS

By previous ruling, I suspended the litigation schedule to permit the parties to enter into settlement discussions which began on December 16, 2004, and to report on the status of those discussions.

Counsel have reported that settlement discussions are ongoing and that they believe sufficient time should be given them to negotiate a successful agreement. Taking into account three intervening holidays and the complexity of the many issues in the case, counsel request permission to continue discussions and to report on their status by January 31, 2005. I hereby grant their request. Should there be an important development in the discussions that would indicate that settlement had been reached or that settlement was impossible or that my assistance was necessary in some way in case of an impasse, counsel will so advise me. Otherwise they shall furnish their status report with any appropriate recommendations by January 31, 2005.
