

FEDERAL MARITIME COMMISSION

Office of Administrative Law Judges

L & A SHIPPING, INC., REVOCATION OF OCEAN
TRANSPORTATION INTERMEDIARY LICENSE No. 026495

DOCKET NO. 24-02

Served: February 22, 2024

ORDER OF: Alex M. CHINTELLA, Administrative Law Judge.

NOTICE AND SCHEDULING ORDER

On February 16, 2024, the Office of Enforcement (“OE”) filed a copy of the Bureau of Certification and Licensing’s Notice of Intent to Revoke provided to L & A Shipping, Inc. along with the material supporting the notice as required by Rule 702(b) and the Initial Order.

Pursuant to Rule 703, L & A Shipping may respond in support of continuation of its license, and its response must be filed no later than March 25, 2024. L & A Shipping is reminded that hearings are not held in the usual course of disposition of matters filed under Subpart X. 46 C.F.R. § 502.706(a). L & A Shipping’s response must therefore include all information and written argument that it wants the presiding officer to consider, including a brief with legal arguments, proposed findings of fact, additional information, and any requests for confidential treatment as well as an appendix with supporting documents.

OE may file a reply to L & A Shipping’s response within 20 days of service of the response – this order will serve as notice of OE’s right to file its reply. 46 C.F.R. § 502.704.

Both parties’ filings must comply with the Initial Order, which remains in effect.
