FEDERAL MARITIME COMMISSION

DOCKET NO. 14-13

METRO FREIGHT SERVICES, INC. d/b/a MARITIME EXPRESS LINES – POSSIBLE VIOLATIONS OF SECTION 19(e)(3) OF THE SHIPPING ACT OF 1984 and 46 C.F.R. PART 515

INITIAL ORDER

On September 29, 2014, the Commission issued an Order of Investigation and Hearing initiating this proceeding. The Order names the Commission's Bureau of Enforcement as a party and requires the respondent to file an answer. Commission regulations require the parties to meet and confer to establish a schedule. The parties must submit a joint status report with proposed schedule, as outlined below, within twenty days of the service of the answer.

Pursuant to the Commission's Order, the initial decision is to be issued within one year. Pursuant to Rule 201(g), "[d]iscovery must be completed within 150 days of the service of a respondent's answer," and pursuant to Rule 201(h), the parties are required to meet and confer to: establish a schedule for the completion of discovery, including initial disclosures and discovery related to experts; resolve to the fullest extent possible disputes relating to discovery matters; and expedite, limit, or eliminate discovery by use of admissions, stipulations, and other techniques. 46 C.F.R. § 502.201. Accordingly, the parties must meet and confer and as part of the joint status report must submit a joint proposed schedule which concludes discovery within 150 days of service of the answer and allows issuance of the initial decision within one year.

In addition, the parties must abide by the following additional instructions:

ADDITIONAL INSTRUCTIONS

Filing

1. Information regarding where to find the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (46 C.F.R. Part 502), Commission decisions, and other information helpful for parties may be found on the Commission's website, at http://www.fmc.gov/resources/attorneys_litigants.aspx.

2. The original and proper number of copies of documents must be filed with the Secretary of the Commission as required by revised Rule 2 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, 46 C.F.R. § 502.2.
3. Parties are encouraged to file documents with the Office of the Secretary via email, priority mail, or overnight mail. In addition to filing with the Secretary, the parties are also encouraged to send courtesy copies to the presiding judge via email at judges@fmc.gov.
4. The parties may elect to receive service of the rulings, orders, and decisions in this proceeding through email in lieu of service by U.S. mail. A party opting for electronic service must advise the presiding judge in writing or by email sent to judges@fmc.gov and provide the email address where the party wishes to receive service. A party must notify the Commission of any change of service address.
5. Case citations. Because the Commission currently uses Lexis, citations to judicial opinions on Westlaw should include a parallel citation to Lexis. Citations to Commission decisions or rulings may be made to the official F.M.C. reporters, Pike & Fischer Shipping Regulation Reports (S.R.R.), Lexis or Westlaw, or Commission slip opinions or orders by docket number, title, and date of service. Citation to Lexis or Westlaw must include the corresponding S.R.R. citation or the F.M.C. docket number, the title of the case, and the precise date of the ruling. If a document from another source is cited, the decision or ruling must be transmitted via e-mail to judges@fmc.gov.

Discovery

6. New rules regarding discovery require initial disclosures within seven days of filing of the answer, limit the number of interrogatories and depositions, and impose time limits to complete discovery. 46 C.F.R. §§ 502.201-502.210.
7. The parties are reminded of their obligation to ensure preservation of all relevant evidence, including electronically stored information. Zhi Chen v. District of Columbia, 839 F. Supp. 2d 7, 12 (D.D.C. 2011); The Pension Comm. of the Univ. of Montreal Pension Plan v. Banc of America Securities, LLC, 685 F. Supp. 2d 456 (S.D.N.Y. 2010); Zubulake v. UBS Warburg LLC, 220 F.R.D. 212 (S.D.N.Y. 2003).
8. Discovery materials must not be filed until used in the proceeding. 46 C.F.R. § 502.2(k).
9. Compliance with the date set for completion of discovery requires that the parties serve discovery requests sufficiently in advance of the discovery cutoff so that all responses and objections will be due on or before that date.

10. The parties must provide an electronic copy, in a word processing format, of all discovery requests served and all responses to discovery with the exception of documents produced. Answers, responses, and objections to interrogatories and requests for admissions or for production of documents must identify and quote each interrogatory or request in full immediately preceding the answer, response, or objection thereto.
11. A motion to compel must set forth verbatim the interrogatory or request, the response that the moving party argues is insufficient, a summary of the moving party's attempts to secure a sufficient response, and the moving party's argument on why the response is insufficient. The moving party must provide an electronic copy in a word processing format of the motion to compel with the hard copy of the motion.

The non-moving party must use the electronic copy of the motion to compel and add any counter-summary of the attempts to secure a sufficient response, then its argument on why the response is sufficient, below the moving party's summary and argument for each response claimed to be insufficient. The non-moving party must provide to the moving party and to the Presiding Officer an electronic copy in a word processing format of the motion to compel to which it has added its counter-summaries and arguments.
12. A party withholding documents because of an asserted privilege must serve a privilege log that complies with the requirements of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(5)(A).

Motions

13. New rules regarding motions impose time limits, page limits, address replies, and require the parties to confer prior to filing non-dispositive motions. 46 C.F.R. §§ 502.69-502.71.
14. A party moving for summary decision must include in a separate document a statement of material facts as to which there is no genuine dispute. This document must set forth in separately numbered paragraphs a concise statement of each material fact as to which the movant contends there is no genuine issue together with a citation to the portion of the motion record (page in the appendix) establishing the fact or demonstrating that it is uncontroverted. Each paragraph must be limited as nearly as practicable to a single factual proposition.
15. A party opposing a motion for summary decision must file a responding statement either admitting or disputing each of the facts in the movant's statement. All material facts in the movant's statement which are sufficiently supported will be deemed admitted for purposes of the motion only, unless specifically disputed by citation demonstrating the existence of a genuine issue as to the fact. An opposing party may also include in the responding statement additional facts that the party contends are material and as to which there exists a genuine issue. Each such fact must be stated in separately numbered paragraphs with a citation to the motion record (page in the appendix) establishing the fact or demonstrating that it is controverted. Each paragraph must be limited as nearly as practicable to a single factual proposition.

16. Each party must prepare and submit with its motion or reply an appendix containing the documentary evidence on which it relies for its claims regarding material facts. The pages of the appendix must be numbered sequentially.

Confidential Material

17. Stipulation – The parties may agree and stipulate between themselves regarding treatment of confidential documents and information obtained during discovery that is not filed with the Commission. The parties may, but are not required to, file a courtesy copy of the agreement with the Commission.
18. Use in the proceeding – If confidential information is filed in a memorandum or as an exhibit to a dispositive motion or as part of briefing on the merits, it must be accompanied by a motion justifying confidential treatment. This motion must identify each item for which protection is sought and show good cause by demonstrating that the information is a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information. 46 C.F.R. § 502.201(j)(1)(vii). The burden is on the party that wants to protect the information to show good cause for its protection.
19. Filing – Parties should file two versions of confidential filings marked as the “confidential version” and the “public version.” The confidential version may be provided to the Presiding Officer by email but should not be filed with the Office of the Secretary by email pursuant to Commission Rule 5. 46 C.F.R. § 502.5.
20. Marking confidential material – When submitting a document with confidential material, the parties must mark only the material that a party contends is confidential. The filing party must mark the confidential material in the confidential version of their submission with {bold font and braces}. For example, the confidential filing may read: “On January 1, 2005, complainant entered into a {25} year lease with respondent for a monthly rent of {$1000}.” The public version would read: “On January 1, 2005, Complainant entered into a { } year lease with Respondent for a monthly rent of { }.”
21. Exhibits – Confidential information in exhibits should be marked as above. If marking within the text is not feasible, individual pages may be replaced in the public version with a page indicating that confidential material was excluded. Entire exhibits should not be excluded, only those pages containing confidential material.

22. Personal information – Personally identifiable information such as social security numbers, birth dates, and financial account numbers must be redacted pursuant to Commission Rule 13. 46 C.F.R. § 502.13.

Hearing

23. The parties should review Commission Rules 91 through 95 with regard to settlement and prehearing procedure including the submission of prehearing statements.
24. The parties are expected to attempt to narrow the issues and to shorten the proceeding by stipulations. The parties may, by stipulation, agree upon any facts involved in the proceeding. 46 C.F.R. § 502.162. Stipulations should be signed by the parties and may be filed at any point in the proceedings.
25. The answer must indicate whether an oral hearing is requested and the desired place for such hearing. The presiding officer will determine whether an oral hearing is necessary. 46 C.F.R. § 502.63(c)(3).
