

BEFORE THE FEDERAL MARITIME COMMISSION

DOCKET NO. 14-15

NGOBROS AND COMPANY NIGERIA LIMITED

v.

OCEANE CARGO LINK, LLC, and KINGSTON ANSAH, individually

STATUS REPORT AND REQUEST FOR ORDER OF DISMISSAL

Complainant, Ngobros and Company Nigeria Limited (“Complainant” or “NCNL”) through its counsel, provides the following status report regarding the above-referenced matter, and request for an order of dismissal.

1. On December 17, 2019, the Federal Maritime Commission (“FMC” or “Commission”) issued an Order vacating the Initial Decision and remanded this matter as to OCL to the Administrative Law Judge (“ALJ”) for consideration of the § 41102(c) claims in light of the Commission’s revised interpretation of the statute and dismissed the claims as to Kingston Ansah.

2. On December 18, 2019, the presiding ALJ issued an order requiring the parties each to file a status report by January 15, 2020 and indicate what steps will be necessary to resolve this proceeding, including, whether additional discovery will be required and a proposed schedule for briefing.
3. On December 18, 2019, counsel for Complainant attempted to call Respondent OCL at the last known telephone number (404) 968-0999). However, that number is no longer in service. On the same day, Complainant's counsel sent several emails to OCL and its president, Kingston Ansah. In this email, the undersigned attached the ALJ's December 18th, 2019 Order requesting a status report by January 15, 2020, and inquired whether OCL intends to participate in this case and/or to defend the case. To date, OCL has not responded to Complainant's counsel's emails.
4. Based on the above, Complainant requests and order of dismissal without prejudice pursuant to 46 CFR § 502. 72 (3).
