FEDERAL MARITIME COMMISSION

DOCKET NO. 15-04

CROCUS INVESTMENTS, LLC AND CROCUS, FZE

v.

MARINE TRANSPORT LOGISTICS, INC. AND ALEKSANDR SOLOVYEV a/k/a ROYAL FINANCE GROUP INC.

ORDER DENYING MOTION TO AMEND COMPLAINT

On April 27, 2016, the parties appeared for a telephonic status conference. Complainants were represented by Louiza Tarassova. Respondents were represented by Eric Chang. An audio recording was made of the conference and copies of the recording have been sent to the parties. The Commission does not intend to make a transcript of the recording.

The parties have filed their briefs, proposed findings of fact, and appendices containing the evidence on which they rely. On March 31, 2016, the undersigned issued an order for the parties to appear by telephone for closing argument. In response, the parties asked to appear on May 23, 2016, for in person closing argument in Washington, D.C. Based on the discussion in today's telephone status conference, the parties have agreed to appear by telephone during the week of May 9-13, 2016. The parties will advise the undersigned of a date and time when they are available.

On April 12, 2016, the undersigned ordered the parties to supplement the record with documents related to the transportation by water of the 2008 Chaparral and the 2011 Monterey from Dubai to the United States. Complainants filed their response on April 22, 2016. Respondents asked for an extension of time to May 5, 2016, to file their response. Based on the discussion in the telephone status conference, the request is granted.

On April 26, 2016, Complainants filed a motion for leave to amend the Complaint. Based on the discussion in the telephone status conference, the motion is denied.
