DOCKET NO. 25-03

Served: July 22, 2026

ORDER OF: Alex M. CHINTELLA, Administrative Law Judge.

INITIAL DECISION APPROVING CONFIDENTIAL SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT¹

On May 18, 2026, Complainant Euromarket Designs, Inc. (“Euromarket”) and Respondent APEX Maritime Co., Inc. filed a joint motion seeking approval of a settlement agreement (“Settlement Motion”). Dkt. 56. The Settlement Motion is accompanied by the agreement and also seeks confidential treatment of the agreement. Complainant also filed a motion to voluntarily dismiss the proceeding as to APEX with prejudice. Dkt. 57.

Using language borrowed in part from the Administrative Procedure Act, Rule 75 of the Commission’s Rules of Practice and Procedure gives interested parties an opportunity, inter alia, to submit offers of settlement where “time, the nature of the proceeding, and the public interest permit.” 46 C.F.R. § 502.75(b); see 5 U.S.C. § 554(c). If dismissal is sought due to a settlement by the parties, “the settlement agreement must be submitted with the motion for determination as to whether the settlement appears to violate any law or policy and to ensure the settlement is free of fraud, duress, undue influence, mistake, or other defects which might make it unapprovable.” 46 C.F.R. § 502.72(a)(3). “Unless the order states otherwise, a dismissal under this paragraph is without prejudice.” 46 C.F.R. § 502.72(a)(3).

¹ This initial decision will become the decision of the Commission in the absence of review by the Commission. Any party may file exceptions to this decision within twenty-two days of the date of service. 46 C.F.R. § 502.227.

The Commission has a strong and consistent policy of “encourag[ing] settlements and engag[ing] in every presumption which favors a finding that they are fair, correct, and valid.” Inlet Fish Producers, Inc. v. Sea-Land Serv., Inc., 29 S.R.R. 975, 978 (ALJ 2002) (quoting Old Ben Coal Co. v. Sea-Land Serv., Inc., 18 S.R.R. 1085, 1091 (ALJ 1978)).

The law favors the resolution of controversies and uncertainties through compromise and settlement rather than through litigation, and it is the policy of the law to uphold and enforce such contracts if they are fairly made and are not in contravention of some law or public policy....The courts have considered it their duty to encourage rather than to discourage parties in resorting to compromise as a mode of adjusting conflicting claims....The desire to uphold compromises and settlements is based upon various advantages which they have over litigation. The resolution of controversies by means of compromise and settlement is generally faster and less expensive than litigation; it results in a saving of time for the parties, the lawyers, and the courts, and it is thus advantageous to judicial administration, and, in turn, to government as a whole. Moreover, the use of compromise and settlement is conducive to amicable and peaceful relations between the parties to a controversy.

Old Ben Coal, 18 S.R.R. at 1092 (quoting 15A Am. Jur. 2d Compromise and Settlement § 3 (1976)). See also Ellenville Handle Works, Inc. v. Far Eastern Shipping Co., 20 S.R.R. 761, 762 (ALJ 1981).

“While following these general principles, the Commission does not merely rubber stamp any proffered settlement, no matter how anxious the parties may be to terminate their litigation.” Old Ben Coal, 18 S.R.R. at 1092. However, if “a proffered settlement does not appear to violate any law or policy and is free of fraud, duress, undue influence, mistake or other defects which might make it unapprovable despite the strong policy of the law encouraging approval of settlements, the settlement will probably pass muster and receive approval.” Old Ben Coal, 18 S.R.R. at 1093. “[I]f it is the considered judgment of the parties that whatever benefits might result from vindication of their positions would be outweighed by the costs of continued litigation and if the settlement otherwise complies with law the Commission authorizes the settlement.” Delhi Petroleum Pty. Ltd. v. U.S. Atlantic & Gulf/Australia – New Zealand Conf. and Columbus Line, Inc., Docket No. 88-2, 1988 WL 340657 at *7 (FMC 1988) (citations omitted).

“Reaching a settlement allows the parties to settle their differences, without an admission of a violation of law by the respondent, when both the complainant and respondent have decided that it would be much cheaper to settle on such terms than to seek to prevail after expensive litigation.” APM Terminals North America, Inc. v. Port Authority of New York and New Jersey, Docket No. 07-01, 2009 WL 971291, at *2 (FMC, Apr. 1, 2009) (citing Puerto Rico Freight Sys. Inc. v. PR Logistics Corp., 30 S.R.R. 310, 311 (ALJ 2004)).

In the Settlement Motion, the parties state that they have engaged in settlement discussions and have reached an agreement. Settlement Mot. 2. The Settlement Motion further states:

In this action, the Parties, both sophisticated corporate entities, with the advice and assistance of their respective counsel, arrived at the Agreement through arm's length negotiations and support this motion and the relief that it seeks. The Agreement does not contravene any law or public policy and is neither unjust nor discriminatory. It does not contemplate any adverse effects on any third parties or the shipping public. Instead, the Agreement is a fair and reasonable resolution of the disputes between the Parties and reflects their desire to resolve their issues without the need for costly and uncertain litigation. For these reasons, the Parties respectfully request that the Agreement be approved.

Settlement Mot. 3-4.

Based on the representations in the Settlement Motion and my review of the confidential settlement agreement, the parties have established that their agreement does not appear to violate any law or policy or contain other defects which might make it unapprovable. The parties are represented by counsel and have engaged in arms-length settlement discussions. The proceeding would require potentially expensive briefing. The parties have determined that the settlement reasonably resolves the issues raised in the complaint without the need for costly and uncertain litigation. Accordingly, the settlement agreement is approved.

The parties further request that the settlement agreement be kept confidential. Settlement Motion 4-5. Pursuant to Commission Rule 5(b), parties may request confidentiality. 46 C.F.R. § 502.5(b); see also 46 C.F.R. § 502.141(j). The Commission has stated that requests for confidential treatment of settlement agreements require “formality and clarity, including a motion explaining the need for confidential treatment” and “good cause demonstrating that the information is a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information.” Genesis Resource Enterprise Inc. v. Maersk Line, Ltd., Docket No. 2014(I), Order Affirming Small Claims Officer's Order Approving Settlement, and Reversing Confidential Treatment, at 2 (FMC Dec. 4, 2024).

Here, the parties request confidentiality for the settlement agreement stating:

Under the terms of the Agreement, the Parties must keep the terms of the Agreement confidential. This confidentiality requirement is a material term of the Agreement. This Agreement is the result of confidential commercial negotiations between the parties, and the parties therefore respectfully request leave to file the Agreement under seal for review and approval, and that the Agreement thereafter continue to be afforded confidential treatment by the FMC.

The Commission routinely affords confidential treatment to settlement agreements, recognizing that they often contain sensitive commercial information, and thus should be protected from public disclosure. See D.F. Young, Inc. v. NYK Line (North America) Inc., Docket No. 16-02, 1 F.M.C.2d 135, 136-7 (FMC May 22, 2018). “If parties wish to keep the terms of their settlement agreements confidential, the Commission, as well as the courts, have honored such requests.” Al Kogan v. World Express Shipping, Transportation and Forwarding Services, Inc., 29 S.R.R. 68, 70 n.7 (ALJ 2000) (internal citations omitted).

The confidential settlement agreement has been reviewed by the undersigned and is available to the Commission. Given the parties’ request for confidentiality, confidential information included in the settlement agreement, and the Commission’s history of permitting agreements settling private complaints to remain confidential, the parties’ request for confidentiality for the settlement agreement is granted. The settlement agreement will be maintained in the Secretary’s confidential files.

Upon consideration of settlement motion, the settlement agreement, and the record, and good cause having been stated, it is hereby:

ORDERED that the joint motion to approve the settlement agreement between Complainant Euromarket Designs, Inc. and Respondent APEX Maritime Co., Inc. be GRANTED; it is further

ORDERED that the parties’ request for confidential treatment be GRANTED; it is further ORDERED that Complainant’s motion for dismissal with prejudice of all claims against APEX be GRANTED; the claims against APEX are hereby DISMISSED WITH PREJUDICE.
