

BEFORE THE
FEDERAL MARITIME COMMISSION

DOCKET NO. 25-04

CHINA UNITED LINES, LTD,

COMPLAINANT,

v.

AMAZON.COM SERVICES LLC

and

AMAZON LOGISTICS INC.

and

BEIJING CENTURY JOYO COURIER SERVICE CO., LTD.

RESPONDENTS.

COMPLAINANT CHINA UNITED LINES, LTD'S MOTION TO AMEND THE COMPLAINT

Complainant China United Lines, Ltd (“China United” or “Complainant”), by the undersigned attorney, respectfully requests leave pursuant to Rule 66 of the Federal Maritime Commission’s Rules of Practice and Procedure to amend its complaint against Respondents Amazon.com Services LLC (“Amazon Services”), Amazon Logistics Inc. (“Amazon Logistics”), and Beijing Century Joyo Courier Service Co., Ltd. (“Beijing Century”) (collectively “Respondents”).

Pursuant to 46 C.F.R. § 502.66, an amendment to a pleading may be permitted at the discretion of the presiding officer. Here, Complainant requests the presiding officer grant leave to amend the complaint, which was filed with the Secretary of the Commission on January 9, 2025 and was served on January 17, 2025. No answer or response has been filed to date. The changes that Complainant seeks to make in the amended complaint do not alter the facts pled in the original complaint or the reparations sought. Rather, the amendment incorporates additional references to Commission regulations applicable to the facts alleged and reparations sought in the original complaint. Further, since no answer or other response has been filed, Respondents have ample opportunity to reply to all issues raised in the amended complaint.

CONCLUSION

For the reasons set forth above, Complainant respectfully requests leave to amend the complaint.

Dated: January 28, 2025

Respectfully Submitted,
