DOCKET NO. 89-26

THE GOVERNMENT OF THE TERRITORY OF GUAM, ET AL.

v.

SEA-LAND SERVICE, INC. AND
AMERICAN PRESIDENT LINES, LTD.

POSTPONEMENT OF DATE FOR SUBMISSION OF STIPULATIONS AND WITNESS LISTS

Complainants, the Government of the Territory of Guam et al. (GovGuam), and respondents, Sea-Land Service, Inc. (Sea-Land) and American President Lines, Ltd. (APL), report that they have been engaged in intensive negotiations on stipulations covering documents and/or facts. The schedule calls for submission of such stipulations and the final witness lists by March 5, 1993. The parties state that the process has been time-consuming, but has thus far resulted in a substantial body of potential stipulations; that they are diligently engaged in resolving details of the stipulation drafts and submit that further time is needed to perfect these stipulation drafts. For this reason they request permission to submit stipulations and final witness lists "next week."

The request is granted. The parties also stated that they will undertake to make prompt report of their progress. The parties should be prepared to address the status of these and other hearing matters at the settlement conference on Wednesday, March 10, 1993, at 10:30 a.m.

IT IS ORDERED:

The request of the parties is granted and the stipulations and final witness lists are now due on or before March 12, 1993.
