FEDERAL MARITIME COMMISSION

WASHINGTON, D.C.

January 7, 1999

DOCKET NO. 89-26

THE GOVERNMENT OF THE TERRITORY OF GUAM, ET AL.

v.

SEA-LAND SERVICE, INC. AND AMERICAN PRESIDENT LINES, LTD.

INTERIM PROCEDURAL SCHEDULE ADOPTED

The December 7, 1998 order directed the parties to comply by January 7, 1999, with the June 2, 1998 order concerning the submission of views as to appropriate procedures to be followed in the remand of this proceeding ordered by the Commission on June 1, 1998.¹ Counsel for complainants and respondents conferred on December 18, 1998, and again on January 6, 1999, with a view to ascertaining whether they may be able to agree on stipulations and/or procedures to propose that would facilitate the expeditious conduct of the remand proceeding. However, given the intervening holidays, their discussions are not as far along as they would have liked. Complainants and respondents therefore jointly proposed an interim schedule which will be adopted.

IT IS ORDERED:

The joint interim procedural schedule is adopted as follows:

Interim Procedural Schedule

January 7 to January 28, 1999:	Further consultations among complainants and respondents concerning possible stipulations and/or procedures.
January 28, 1999:	Submission by complainants and respondents, jointly or individually as appropriate, of proposed stipulations and/or proposed procedures to resolve the issues presented in the remand proceeding.
