FEDERAL MARITIME COMMISSION

WASHINGTON, D.C.

April 3, 2001

DOCKET NO. 89-26

THE GOVERNMENT OF THE TERRITORY OF GUAM, ET AL.

SEA-LAND SERVICE, INC. AND AMERICAN PRESIDENT LINES, LTD.

DATE FOR RESPONDENTS TO FILE THEIR DISCOVERY REQUESTS EXTENDED TO APRIL 19, 2001

Complainants have now submitted their entire evidentiary case on reparations. They indicate that they originally submitted all of the exhibits to the carriers only, but upon consultation with respondents, have now filed here with the Commission, as exhibits, the extensive bill of lading and proof of payment documentation. In the circumstances, respondents request a one-week extension of time to file their discovery requests, to which complainants have no objection, and thus the request will be granted.

IT IS ORDERED:

Respondents' request for an extension of time until April 19, 2001 to file their discovery requests is granted.
