Office of Administrative Law Judges

20230930-DK-BUTTERFLY-1, INC., Complainant

v.

BAL CONTAINER LINE CO., LIMITED, Respondent.

DOCKET NO. 25-01

Served: February 4, 2025

---

ORDER OF: Erin M. WIRTH, Chief Administrative Law Judge.

ORDER GRANTING MOTION FOR EXTENSION TO RESPOND TO COMPLAINT

On January 30, 2025, Respondent filed a motion seeking a seven-day extension of time for Respondent's response to the complaint. Motion at 1. The motion did not indicate whether or not Complainant consented to the request and a courtesy copy was not sent to judges@fmc.gov.

On February 3, 2025, the parties were sent an email requesting that Complainant respond to the motion as soon as possible; providing the parties with the Initial Order issued in this proceeding on January 17, 2025; and noting that failure to provide a courtesy copy of filings to the Judges email may lead to delays in the proceeding.

Later on February 3, 2025, Complainant sent an email stating that they consent to the motion for extension of time to file an answer and confirming that the parties conferred prior to the filing of the motion.

The motion does not state the reason the extension is requested. However, it is the beginning of the case, there is no opposition, and the requested extension is short. Therefore, it is hereby ordered that the motion seeking a seven-day extension of time for Respondent to respond to the complaint be GRANTED. Respondent shall respond to the complaint by February 10, 2025.
