v.

BAL CONTAINER LINE CO., LIMITED, Respondent.

DOCKET NO. 25-01

Served: May 8, 2025

ORDER OF: Erin M. WIRTH, Chief Administrative Law Judge.

ORDER ENTERING PROTECTIVE ORDER

On April 30, 2025, the parties filed a joint motion requesting entry of a protective order and attached the proposed protective order. The motion states that issuance of a “protective order is necessary and required to enable the parties to fully respond to discovery requests, which may cover information and documents that are confidential, proprietary, and/or commercially sensitive.” Motion at 1.

The initial order issued in this proceeding states that: “The parties may agree and stipulate between themselves regarding treatment of confidential documents and information obtained during discovery that is not filed with the Commission. The parties may, but are not required to, file a courtesy copy of the agreement with the Commission.” Initial Order at 4. The proposed protective order is a stipulation between the parties and is reasonable. The protective order will not determine what documents are entitled to confidential treatment when they are filed in the proceeding or used in a decision.

The parties have established good cause to enter the protective order. Accordingly, the joint motion is GRANTED, and it is hereby ORDERED that the protective order be entered as an order in this proceeding.
