RESPONDENTS' MOTION FOR JUDGMENT ON THE PLEADINGS

Respondents Empire United Lines and Michael Hitrinov ("Respondents" or "EUL") hereby move for judgment on the pleadings in these consolidated cases.¹ As elaborated in the incorporated memorandum in support, the grounds for the motion are

¹ Although the FMC Rules do not expressly provide for motions to dismiss, it is unquestioned that a respondent may move for dismissal based on the provisions of Section 12 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, as incorporated pursuant to FMC Rule 12. See, e.g., Maher Terminals, LLC v The Port Authority of New York & New Jersey, Docket No 12-02 (FMC December 18, 2015) ("for motions to dismiss for failure to state a claim, the Commission has consistently held that its rules do not address such motions and that Rule 12(b)(6) applies"); DNB Exports LLC v Barsan Global Lojistik Ve Gumruk Musavirligi A.S., 32 SRR 550, 553, (ALJ, Admin Final 2011) ("it is consistent with sound administrative practice to follow Rules 12(b)(1) and (6)"). Because this motion is brought after filing of the Answer, it is brought under F.R.C.P. Section 12(c) (judgment on the pleadings). As the Presiding Officer

1 The Commission lacks subject matter jurisdiction over the Complaint.

2 Complainants lack standing to seek reparations

3 The Complaint fails to state a claim upon which relief may be granted.

Because the issue of subject matter jurisdiction is closely intertwined with and rests on essentially the same facts as one aspect of the failure to state a claim, and the latter may be more efficient to resolve, Respondents would not object if the Presiding Officer were to dismiss for failure to state a claim without addressing the jurisdictional issues.²

MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT

The basic facts in this proceeding have been previously described in Respondents' Motion to Stay, Response to Order to Show Cause, and elsewhere. Attached is the Affirmation of Michael Hitrinov (the "Hitrinov Declaration") that (i) provides more detailed explanation, background, and context, and (ii) supports the specific facts set forth herein.³

1 Global Auto Enterprise is a conglomeration of companies owned or controlled by Mr Kapustin (some through family members), as well as various individuals associated therewith. The main corporate entities include Global Auto, Inc , G Auto Sales, Inc., Effect Auto Sales, Inc and Global Cargo Oy (in Finland) These entities, Mr Kapustin, and other persons and entities noted in the Hitrinov Declaration have been found by the explained at the conference, however, Section 12(c) incorporates the substantive standards of 12(b)(1) and 12(b)(6)

² As the Commission has explained

"The general rule is that an agency must first find that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the proceeding before it addresses the merits, unless the facts necessary to resolve the issue of jurisdiction are the same as the facts bearing on the merits" Inlet Fish Producers, Inc v Sea-Land Service, Inc , 28 SRR 1631, 1632 (ALJ 2000)(emphasis added)

³ As discussed below, challenges to jurisdiction may be supported by material outside the pleadings, such as affidavits.

District Court in New Jersey to constitute a single enterprise for RICO purposes, and to be alter egos of one another. Accordingly, we do not distinguish among the entities, except as may be needed to add clarity, but rather refer to them collectively as Global Auto Enterprise⁴

- 2 Global Auto Enterprise was engaged, inter alia, in the business of selling cars to overseas customers, particularly in Russia and former Soviet states.
- 3 Global Auto Enterprise and EUL entered into an investment arrangement relating to the sale of vehicles. Under that arrangement, EUL provided Global Auto Enterprise with most of the funds to purchase the cars, in return for which EUL received a 60 percent interest in each vehicle, as well as a specified monthly return on investment. The cars and their Titles served as collateral for the funding.
- 4 The parties also had an understanding regarding release of the vehicles. In order to gain release of a particular car, Global Auto Enterprise was required to send an email request to EUL, and either repay a portion of the funding (60 percent of the value of the car) or, if EUL approved, to replace the collateral with another vehicle or vehicles that would keep EUL's overall security at no less than 60 percent of the value of all cars. Such vehicles were to be released only to Global Cargo Oy
- 5 As part of the arrangement, EUL provided transportation services for the vehicles going overseas at a fixed price of $750 per vehicle, including the vehicles regarding which Complainants raise claims. Global Auto Enterprise would deliver the cars and titles to

⁴ In prior submissions, we referred to Global Auto Enterprise as "the Kapustin Global Auto Group" or "the Group." We now refer instead to "Global Auto Enterprise" to be consistent with the language used in the Affirmation of Michael Hitrinov

EUL. EUL would then put the cars into containers (with other cargo) and deliver the containers to MSC for water transportation to Kotka, Finland.

- 6 When the MSC vessel arrived in Kotka, the containers were delivered by truck to a warehouse company called CarCont Ltd., with which EUL had a contractual relationship⁵ The cars were there removed from the containers and, once authorized by request of Global Auto Enterprise and approval of EUL, released to Global Auto Enterprise (in particular, Global Cargo Oy)
- 7 More specifically, Global Auto Enterprise would determine from MSC's website when the container(s) with the car(s) of interest had arrived. Then, if Global Auto Enterprise wished release of a particular vehicle, it would request release from EUL based on (i) payment of the $750 transportation charge and (ii) payment of the requisite funds or, with EUL's approval, provision of substitute collateral in the form of another car Once the financial requirements were met, EUL would send authorization for release of that car to CarCont, allowing CarCont to release the specific car to Global Cargo Oy, and only to Global Cargo Oy⁶ Once a vehicle was released, the owner of Global Cargo Oy, Igor Zadorozhniy (another individual found to be part of the RICO enterprise) or his authorized delegate, would come to CarCont, and take custody of the vehicle. This procedure was followed hundreds of times without exception. EUL had nothing to do with, nor had any knowledge regarding, the cars after CarCont released them to Global Cargo Oy

⁶ The reason why Global Auto Enterprise limited delivery to itself may well be so that it could more easily collect its various and sundry fees – dealer's fees, unloading charges, documentation charges, storage charges, and so forth – from its customers.

- 8 Prior to taking custody of the vehicles, Global Cargo Oy also paid CarCont, via bank transfer, the cost of unloading the cars from the containers and for the storage of the cars at CarCont. CarCont never received payment for the unloading and storage of the vehicles from anyone other than Global Cargo Oy
- 9 Complainants herein are residents of Russia or nearby states who allegedly purchased automobiles from members of Global Auto Enterprise
- 10 Each of the cars involved in this dispute went through the very process outlined above. Global Auto Enterprise delivered the car to EUL EUL placed the car into a container, and once Global Auto Enterprise provided the Title, delivered the container to MSC MSC duly carried the container on its transatlantic voyage to Kotka, Finland, where it was unloaded and trucked to CarCont, which removed the car (and other cargo) from the container
- 11 In providing its part of the transportation for these (and other) vehicles, EUL dealt only with Global Auto Enterprise. It had no communications or other dealings with Complainants prior to arrival of the cars in Finland (and indeed for some time thereafter)
- 12 Global Auto Enterprise never identified its customers (including Complainants) to EUL The original Titles that Global Auto Enterprise provided to EUL for customs clearance and as part of the collateral did not show the names of Complainants, but rather the name of a Global Auto Enterprise entity Nor did Global Auto Enterprise ever send EUL any instructions about these shipments, or otherwise identify its customers. Indeed, EUL did not learn Complainants' identities until well after their cars were liquidated as collateral in Finland.

13 Global Auto Enterprise failed to meet the conditions for release of these four automobiles (and many others), ceasing to comply with its obligation to repay funds.⁷ Despite substantial efforts by EUL, it soon became clear that Global Auto Enterprise no longer had any intention of making the required payment. When its efforts with Global Auto Enterprise failed, EUL liquidated the collateral on hand – about 40 vehicles – including three of those regarding which the Complaints assert claims. The fourth car, the 2011 Jeep Compass complained of by Ms. Rzaeva, was to EUL's understanding and belief liquidated by CarCont for unpaid storage fees.

14 Global Auto Enterprise never sent release instructions to EUL for any of the four cars, or even asked EUL to release them. Nor did Complainants ever request release from EUL. We understand that Complainants may have asked CarCont, which we believe is no longer a party (and is in any event not a jurisdictional entity), for release. But it is hardly surprising that CarCont would refuse to release the vehicles to total strangers lacking any documentation authorizing them to collect the cargo. Indeed, as discussed below, the Presiding Officer has held, and the Commission affirmed, that such release to persons without the requisite documentation constitutes a violation of the Shipping Act. Bimsha International v. Chief Cargo Services, Inc. 32 S.R.R. 353 (Int. Dec. 2011), affirmed, 32 S.R.R. 1861 (FMC 2013).

A. The Commission Lacks Subject Matter Jurisdiction Over The Complaint

The FMC is a tribunal of specific and limited jurisdiction. It is not a roving commission to address all ills, even if somehow related to jurisdictional entities. See, e.g., International Ass'n of NVOCCs v. Atlantic Container Line, 25 S.R.R. 734, 743 (FMC

⁷ By this time, the option of new collateral had been eliminated.

1990) (“The Commission ‘is not a court, and cannot rely on the powers of court of equity On the contrary, the law is settled that an administrative agency may exercise only those powers conferred upon it by Congress.’”) (quoting in part from TransPacific Freight Conference of Japan v FMB, 302 F.2d 875, 880 (D C Cir 1962) (ellipses in original), Sea-Land Dominica, S.A. v Sea-Land Service, Inc , 26 S.R.R 578 (FMC 1992) ⁸

In order to render a judgment on the merits, the FMC must first establish that it has subject matter jurisdiction over the Complaint. “[S]ubject matter jurisdiction, because it involves a court’s power to hear a case, can never be forfeited or waived.” Arbaugh v Y & H Corp , 546 U S 500, 514 (2006) (internal citations omitted) Indeed, “[i]t is well settled that a federal court must dismiss a case for lack of subject matter jurisdiction even should the parties fail to raise the issue. Mansfield, Coldwater & Lake Michigan Ry V Swan, 111 U S 379, 382 (1884), Williams v Life Savings and Loan, 802 F.2d 1200, 1202 (Tenth Cir 1986)

Once subject matter jurisdiction is questioned, Complainants have the burden of proof to demonstrate by a preponderance of the evidence that the FMC has subject matter jurisdiction. DNB Exports LLC v Barsan Global Lojistik Ve Gumruk Musavirligi A.S., 32 S.R.R 550, 553, (ALJ, Admin. Final 2011), Kokkonen v Guardian Life Ins Co 511 U S 375, 377 (1994), Chandler v State Farm Mutual Auto Insurance Co , 598 F 3d 1115, 1122 (9th Cir 2010)

A challenge to subject matter jurisdiction implicates the standards set forth in Rule 12 (b)(1) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and thus may be either facial – based on the allegations in the Complaint and attachments – or factual – based on additional information submitted by the parties. As the Presiding Officer has identified

⁸ Complainants have previously suggested that the Commission may rely on its non-statutory “Mission Statement” to override the actual language of the Act. That would be, as the FMC said in IANVOCC, an “extraordinary proposal ”

“With regard to motions to dismiss a complaint for lack of subject matter under Rule 12(b)(1), such motions may assert either a factual attack or a facial attack to jurisdiction. . A factual attack challenges ‘the existence of subject matter jurisdiction in fact, irrespective of pleadings, and matters outside the pleadings, such as testimony and affidavits, are considered.’ In a facial attack, on the other hand, the court examines whether the complaint has sufficiently alleged subject matter jurisdiction.” Edaf Antilles, Inc. v Crowley Caribbean Logistics LLC, 33 S.R.R 710, 716 (ALJ, Admin Final 2014) (emphasis added)

Although, as we show below, the Complaint fails under either test, Respondents’ challenge is principally factual, and thus (i) Respondents may, and do, present matters outside the pleadings without conversion to a motion for summary judgment, and (ii) allegations in the Complaint, well-pled or otherwise, count for naught, unless supported by evidence.

EUL freely acknowledges that it is licensed by the FMC as an NVOCC, and thus one of the limited categories of entities within the personal jurisdiction of the Commission. But this does not mean that the FMC has subject matter jurisdiction over every claim against EUL, even if clothed in the language of a Shipping Act violation.

First, EUL was not acting as an NVOCC for these shipments. As explained above, and as detailed in the Hitrinov Declaration (and Exhibits thereto), the arrangement between EUL and Global Auto Enterprise was a joint investment agreement, under which EUL had a 60 percent ownership interest in each vehicle being transported. EUL did not issue house bills of lading to Global Auto Enterprise for the transportation. Rather, as explained by Mr Hitrinov, both EUL and Global Auto Enterprise relied on the master bills issued by MSC. Accordingly, EUL was not an NVOCC in relation to these shipments, but rather a beneficial cargo owner transporting cargo for its own account.

The Commission and courts have repeatedly held that the FMC does not have statutory authority to adjudicate cases where the respondent, even though a regulated entity, was not acting as such with respect to the particular transactions at issue. In Puerto Rico Ports Authority v FMC, 919 F.2d 799 (1st Cir 1990), for example, the Court held that even though the Puerto Rico Port Authority was an admitted marine terminal operator subject to the Act, the FMC lacked jurisdiction over a Shipping Act complaint because PRPA did not act as an MTO with respect to the specific transactions at issue. More recently, the Commission ruled in Auction Block Co v The City of Homer, 33 S.R.R 589 (FMC 2014), that it had no jurisdiction over a complaint charging a regulated MTO with violations of Section 10(d)(1), because respondent was not acting as an MTO at the facility where it served complainant.

Because EUL was not acting as an NVOCC in connection with these shipments, the Commission lacks jurisdiction over these transactions.

Even assuming arguendo that EUL was acting in its capacity as an NVOCC, The FMC still lacks subject matter jurisdiction over the Complaint. As the Commission has explained, it is not only the nature of the claim that matters, but also who is asserting the claim.

In Sea-Land Dominica, S.A. v Sea-Land Service, Inc, 26 S.R.R 578 (FMC 1992), for example, the Commission held that it did not have subject matter jurisdiction over a complaint against a regulated common carrier, similar in certain respects to the instant Complaint, likewise asserting violations of current section 46 U S C 41102(c) by reason of alleged unreasonable practices and procedures. The Commission determined that it lacked subject matter jurisdiction over the dispute, because the complainant was not itself a shipper, explaining

“There is nothing in the specific language, structure, or legislative history of the 1984 Act which shows an intention to subject the dispute between Complainants and Sea-Land to our jurisdiction. The “any” person language in Section 11 of the 1984 Act relates only to who may bring an action. It is procedural in nature and does not give the Commission any jurisdiction over a particular subject matter. Such jurisdiction must be found in the substantive provisions of that statute.” Id. at 581 (footnote omitted)

The Commissioners accordingly dismissed the Complaint with prejudice. In so doing, the Commission relied in part on a similar holding under the Interstate Commerce Act to the effect that claims against carriers for discrimination could be brought only by “shippers or those who act as shippers in particular transactions.” Id. at 582 (citing ICC opinions) ⁹

The Commission’s holding in Sea-Land Dominica is entirely consistent with past precedent under the 1916 Act. In Cargill v Waterman SS Corp, 21 S.R.R 287 (FMC 1981), for example, the Commission stated

“Although Cargill is a “person” and therefore included in the literal language of Section 16 First, the Presiding Officer recognized that the statute was not intended to subject ocean carriers to liability for all economic injuries factually connected to their ratemaking practices. Liability must end at some sensible, reasonably foreseeable point. In cases arising under former Section 3 of the Interstate Commerce Act, only persons which otherwise deal directly with common carriers in their capacity as such have been entitled to protection.” Id. at 300 (citations omitted) ¹⁰

To like effect, see, e.g., American Union Transport v Italian Line, 2 USMC 553, 556-57 (1941), Singer v Trans-Atlantic Passenger Conference, 1 USSB 520 (1936)

Complainants do not allege that they had any type of shipper-carrier relationship with EUL (or indeed, any relationship at all with EUL). In any event, the shipping documents exchanged by the parties and provided to the Presiding Officer prove they did not.

¹⁰ Although the Commission there found complainant within the protection of the Act, it did so only because complainant was the functional equivalent of a shipper under the “unusual, and possibly unique grain purchasing system” being employed. Id. at 300-01

Appendix A collects all of the Dock Receipts issued by EUL to Global Auto Enterprise for the transportation of the vehicles at issue. For each vehicle, the EUL copy of the Dock Receipt comes first, followed by the copy (if any) submitted by Complainants. None of these documents, whether submitted by EUL or by Complainants, contains a single mention of any of the Complainants. Instead, consistent with the arrangement between EUL and Global Auto Enterprise, each shows EUL as the shipper, CarCont as the consignee, and port-to-port shipment from New York to Kotka via transshipment at Bremerhaven.

Appendix B is a sequentially numbered set of the bills of lading issued to EUL by MSC for the transportation.¹¹ Again, none of Complainants' names appear on any of the bills. Rather, each shows MSC as the Ocean Carrier, EUL as the Shipper, and CarCont as the consignee and notify party, again for transportation from the Port of New York to the Port of Kotka.

Complainants have asserted repeatedly that EUL possesses the original Titles to the vehicles. Indeed they do. Such Titles were provided to EUL by Global Auto Enterprise both for export documentation and because they were part of the collateral held by EUL. Copies of such original Titles were provided by EUL to the Presiding Officer and to Complainants in initial discovery. Complainants likewise provided whatever copies of the Titles they possessed. The Titles submitted by both sides are collected in Appendix C. As with the other shipping documents, there is no reference to any of the Complainants on any of the Titles, whether submitted by Respondents or Complainants. Rather, each identifies the current owner of the vehicle as an entity in Global Auto Enterprise.

¹¹ These documents were all submitted by EUL, Complainants did not submit any such documents.

Finally, the parties have each submitted what might be called “invoices” for the transportation, sent by EUL to Global Auto Enterprise (see Appendix D) None of these invoices, however, identifies any of the Complainants or suggests that any of them has any connection to the transportation arrangement. Rather, they are all strictly between EUL and Global Auto Enterprise We note, in addition, that the invoices submitted by Complainants are obvious fabrications, substantially altered, we believe by Global Auto Enterprise, after they were sent by EUL Even a cursory review of the original copies submitted by EUL and the subsequent versions submitted by Complainants shows (1) the invoices as sent by EUL are simple, unadorned, emails incorporating excerpts from a table or spreadsheet; and (2) the versions submitted by Complainants are highly-manipulated composite documents adding (i) EUL letterhead, (ii) a new title, and (iii) a stamped notation of “paid.” They also add highly confidential banking information regarding EUL (such as account number and routing code), which we suspect violates other federal statutes/regulations.¹²

In short, Complainants were not shippers or consignees of the vehicles. Nor were they in any way transportation customers of EUL ¹³ Rather, they were simply alleged purchasers of goods from Global Auto Enterprise ¹⁴ If anyone has a conceivable Shipping Act claim against EUL it

¹² Counsel for Respondents informally requested from Counsel for Complainants electronic (native) copies of the shipping documents, so that the source of the trickery may be determined, but so far he has declined. Respondents will if necessary make a formal request for such documents, as expressly authorized by the FMC Rules.

¹³ As discussed above, the transportation of these vehicles was really for EUL’s own account, as it had a 60 percent interest in the cars. But even if EUL is viewed as acting in the capacity of an NVOCC, it did so only in relation to Global Auto Enterprise, not Complainants.

¹⁴ There is considerable room for doubt that Complainants were even that. As explained in the Hitrinov Declaration and found by the District Court in New Jersey, Global Auto Enterprise was in the habit of selling the same car multiple times, there are discrepancies in the documents and statements, and Complainants themselves are entirely inconsistent as to the entity from which they allegedly bought the car is Global Auto Enterprise¹⁵ And if Complainants have any type of claim against anyone, it is against Global Auto Enterprise, which failed to deliver the goods, and which has already been found by the New Jersey judge to have engaged in fraudulent activities concerning delivery of the cars.

B. Complainants Lack Standing To Seek Reparations

Even if the Commission has subject matter jurisdiction over these claims by strangers to the transportation, it is clear that such outside parties have no standing under the Shipping Act to seek reparations for their perceived injuries. The Shipping Act authorizes an award of reparations only to those directly injured by alleged violations, not those whose injuries are secondary, tertiary, or otherwise an indirect result of the alleged violations. In The Government of the Territory of Guam v Sea-Land Service, Inc., 28 S.R.R 894, 902 (ALJ, Admin. Final 2002), for example, Judge Dolan ruled that only those who paid the ocean freight directly to the carrier could seek reparations. In particular, he held that where the ocean freight was directly paid by mainland shippers, consignees in Guam were ineligible for reparations even though the cost of such ocean freight had been passed on to them. He there explained. “Uniformly, the rule has been deemed to require rejection of reparations claims by persons who claim reparations by arguing that the direct payor passed the charges on to it.” To like effect see Trane Co v South African Marine, 19 FMC 375, 378, n.9 & accompanying text (Init. Dec , adopted 1976) (“complainant must show that that he has paid the freight or has succeeded to the claim in a valid fashion, such as by assignment”), Tradecheck, LLC v Sea-Land Service, Inc , 27

¹⁵ Complainants do not assert that they have an assignment of Global Auto Enterprise’s putative claims against EUL, and such an assignment would conflict with that ratified by the federal court in New Jersey

S.R.R 334 (Settlement Officer 1995) (“Inasmuch as Tradecheck [lacks] any cargo interest, or bill of lading relationship with any of the concerned carriers, it is clear that Tradecheck can demonstrate no actual injury arising from any of the alleged violations”), Procter & Gamble Manufacturing Co v Lykes Bros SS. Co , 25 S.R.R 1370, 1371 (Settlement Officer 1991) (Parent company of shipper ineligible to file claim for reparations because the subsidiary “paid the applicable charges and suffered any injury that might have resulted therefrom”)

Complainants do not allege that they paid anything directly to Respondents. Quite to the contrary, they assert that Respondents were paid by Global Auto Enterprise. As at most indirect purchasers, Complainants suffered no “actual injury” and are therefore barred from collecting reparations by the “first purchaser” rule applied under the Shipping Act (as well as under federal antitrust law)

C. Complainants Fail To State A Claim For Reparations.

Complainants have failed to make out any claim upon which relief may be granted for two separate reasons. First, as their own documents show, Complainants are total strangers to the shipping transactions alleged in the Complaint, and so can have no claim for relief. Second, Complainants fail to allege facts that would entitle them to relief.

1. Complainants Are Strangers To The Transaction.

The Presiding Officer has suggested that Complainants’ status as non-shippers may be better viewed as a failure to state a claim. Respondents believe that the same facts and law require dismissal under both doctrines, and so, as previously noted, would not object if the Presiding Officer were to dismiss the Complaints for failure to state a claim.

2. The Complaints Do Not Allege Facts Sufficient To Make Out A Claim.

Even apart from the fatal fact that Complainants' had no shipper-carrier relationship with EUL, their allegations are patently insufficient to make out a claim under any of the multifarious sections they assert. Indeed, as elaborated below, many of Complainants' purported claims are in direct conflict with the allegations of their very own Complaint. For example, Complainants allege violations that apply only to Controlled Carriers (46 U S C 40701(a)) or Marine Terminal Operators (46 U S C 41106(2) & (3)), even though they do not, and cannot, assert that Respondents are either Controlled Carriers or MTOs. Likewise, Complainants allege violations that require retaliation (46 U S C 41104(3)) or discriminatory action (46 U S C 41104(3), (4), (8) & (9)) without any factual allegations of either retaliation or discrimination. Furthermore, Complainants repeatedly fail even to recite the necessary elements of their claims or to suggest how such alleged violations bear any conceivable relation to the damages that Complainants claim to have suffered.

"To survive a motions to dismiss for failure to state a claim under Rule 12(b)(6), a complaint must contain sufficient factual matter, accepted as true, 'to state a claim to relief that is plausible on its face' " Mitsui O.S.K. Lines, Ltd. v Global Link Logistics, Inc., 32 S.R.R. 126, 136 (FMC 2011), (quoting in part from Bell Atlantic Corp v Twombly, 550 U S 544, 570 (2007)) In order for a claim to be "plausible," the Complaint must allege "factual content that allows the court to draw the reasonable inference that the defendant is liable for the misconduct alleged." Ashcroft v Iqbal, 566 U S 662, 677 (2009) And although the Complainants must plead all the required elements of their claims, that is not itself sufficient to survive dismissal

"[A] plaintiff's obligation to provide the 'grounds' of his 'entitle[ment] to relief' requires more than labels and conclusions, and a formulaic recitation of the elements of a cause of action will not do, see Papasan v Allain, 478 U S 265, 286 (1986) (on a motion to dismiss, courts “are not bound to accept as true a legal conclusion couched as a factual allegation”) Bell Atlantic Corp v Twombly, supra, 550 U S at 555¹⁶

Last but not least, in order to assert a claim for reparations, a complainant must plead facts sufficient to show a causal connection between the alleged violation and the injury asserted. See, e g., James J Flanagan Shipping Corp v Lake Charles Harbor & Terminal District, 30 S.R.R 8, 13 (FMC 2003), Ceres Marine Terminal, Inc v Maryland Port Administration, 27 S.R.R 1251, 1270 (FMC 1997), Prudential Lines, Inc v Farrell Lines, Inc., 22 S.R.R 826, 845-51 (Init. Dec., Admin Final 1984)

Measured against these standards, Complainants allegations of Shipping Act violations fall flat. We address their claims seriatim, largely in the order they appear in the Complaint, except when several alleged violations share the same obvious flaw

1 46 U.S.C. 40701(a).

Section 40701(a) is in a chapter entitled “Controlled Carriers,” and begins as follows “A controlled carrier may not — ” A “controlled carrier” is specifically defined by the Act, in pertinent part, as follows “The term ‘controlled carrier’ means an ocean common carrier that is, or whose operating assets are, directly or indirectly, owned or controlled by a government ” 46 U S C 40102(8) EUL and Mr Hitrinov are patently not “controlled carriers,” as neither is an “ocean common carrier” (a vessel-operating common carrier) and neither is owned/controlled by a government. Because Respondents are not and are not alleged to be, controlled carriers, the claim for violation must be dismissed, even apart from the fact that Complainants have proffered no plausible way that their alleged injuries (loss of the value of a car) could be the result of below-market rates.

2. 46 U.S.C. 41102(c).

It is difficult to understand exactly what Complainants are asserting, even though they recite the provision in two different claiming paragraphs. In any event, none of it conceivably amounts to a Shipping Act violation. The gist of the complaints seems to be that EUL (i) refused to release the cars to Complainants, and (ii) declined to give them certain shipping documents. As an initial matter, their factual allegations regarding this purported violation do not say that EUL failed to release the cars or provide the documents. Rather, the factual allegations are all addressed to CarCont, which is not a party to this dispute, so the claim must be dismissed as it applies to Respondents.¹⁷

In any event, the Complaint fails to assert any basis in law or reason why EUL (or CarCont) was obligated to release the vehicles or provide the requested shipping documents to Complainants. As explained above, and shown by the shipping documents, Complainants were not named at all, much less as persons to whom EUL (or CarCont) was authorized to release cargo. As further explained above, EUL (CarCont) was authorized to release the vehicles only to Global Cargo Oy, and this procedure had been followed hundreds of times, with no exceptions. Rather, as shown above, and in no way contradicted by the Complaint, Complainants were strangers to the transportation. They did not pay the freight to Respondents, they did not arrange with Respondents for the transportation, and Respondents took no responsibility to provide transportation to them. Indeed, Respondents had no idea who Complainants were until well after the vehicles were sold. Instead, EUL's transportation arrangement was solely with Global Auto Enterprise, and only Global Auto Enterprise had the right to request release or demand any shipping documents.

Complainants' claim comes down to the naked and untenable assertion that Carriers and MTOs are obligated by the Shipping Act to release cargo and shipping documents to anybody who drops by with any evidence (whether or not valid) suggesting that they purchased the cargo, or some of the cargo, from a third party. This is not only ludicrous on its face, but completely contrary to governing law. Indeed, as noted above, the Presiding Officer himself has held to the contrary that the very section of the Shipping Act relied upon by Complainants forbids the release of cargo to persons without appropriate documentation. And the Commission expressly affirmed that holding. Bimsha International v Chief Cargo Services, Inc 32 S.R.R 353 (Init. Dec 2011), affirmed, 32 S.R.R 1861 (FMC 2013). There, the Presiding Officer held that an NVOCC violated 46 U.S.C. 41102(c) when it "released cargo to the 'notify party,' without requiring presentation of an original bill of lading." Id. at 379, see id. at 374. The Commission confirmed this ruling, stating that "the ALJ appropriately found that [Respondent NVOCC] violated section 10(d)(1) by releasing cargo without the presentation of the original bills of lading." 32 S.R.R. at 1868, see id. at 1867 ("we concur with the ALJ's decision," his "reasoning is sound")

Furthermore, release of the requested documents would have twice violated the Shipping Act. Even apart from 46 U.S.C. 41102(c), release of the documents without Global Auto Enterprise's consent would have violated 46 U.S.C. 41103, which requires a carrier to protect the confidentiality of information regarding a specific shipment.

3 46 U.S.C. 41104(2).

Complainants allege that EUL failed to provide service in a liner trade that was in accordance with a published tariff. Complainants do not allege that EUL operated in a liner trade, or that the service it provided to Global Auto Enterprise was provided under a tariff, as opposed to an NVOCC Service Arrangement, NVOCC Rate Arrangement, or exempt rate. More importantly, as with the controlled carrier claim, there is absolutely no nexus between the alleged violation of an improper rate and the harm asserted – loss of the price complainants paid for the car.

4 46 U.S.C. 41104(3).

Section 41104(3) forbids a carrier to “retaliate against a shipper by refusing, or threatening to refuse, cargo space accommodations when available, or resort to other unfair or unjustly discriminatory methods because the shipper has patronized another carrier, or has filed a complaint, or for any other reason.” Even apart from the fact that Complainants were not, and do not allege themselves to be, “shippers,” the Complaint is plainly deficient. As the Presiding Officer has identified, the sine qua non of any claim under Section 41104(3) is an allegation of actual retaliation due to the shipper having patronized another carrier. Edaf Antilles, Inc. v Crowley Caribbean Logistics LLC, 33 SRR 710, 720-21 (ALJ, Admin Final 2014). The Presiding Officer there explained: “As CCL states, the Commission has held that Section 10(b)(3) [now section 41104(3)] ‘applies solely to retaliatory acts of a carrier against a shipper who has sought the services of another carrier’” (quoting in part from California Shipping Lines, Inc. v Yangming Marine Transport Corp., 25 SRR 1213, 1225 (FMC 1990)). Id. Complainants have not alleged any facts suggesting retaliation, much less for patronizing another carrier.

5. 46 U.S.C. 41104(3), (4), (8) & (9).

Respondents have grouped these together as they all share an essential element of discrimination – that is, treating one party better than another (normally required to be a competitor) As the Commission has explained, a complainant claiming discrimination must establish four matters (1) two parties were similarly situated or in a competitive relationship, (2) the parties were accorded different treatment; (3) the unequal treatment is not justified by differences in transportation factors, and (4) the resulting prejudice or disadvantage is the proximate cause of the alleged injury Ceres Marine Terminal, Inc v Maryland Port Administration, 27 SRR 1251, 1270-71 (FMC 1997) See Edaf Antilles, supra, 33 SRR at 721-22

The Complaint does not assert or allege facts supporting any of these requirements. Complainants have not identified any other party in similar circumstances that received better treatment, much less that any such difference was not justified by transportation factors, nor have they explained how any such difference was the proximate cause of their claimed injury

6. 46 U.S.C. 41104(10).

Complainants assert that EUL unreasonably refused to deal or negotiate, but do not identify “what” EUL declined to negotiate or what obligation EUL may have had to negotiate that unspecified “what.” To the extent that Complainants are suggesting that EUL had an obligation to negotiate over release of the cargo or over provision of requested documents, such a claim is contradicted by the fact that release of either would, as shown above, have itself violated the Shipping Act. Nor do Complainants explain how any refusal to negotiate resulted in the alleged injury All they do is paraphrase the statutory language. As noted above, such legal conclusions do not receive any presumption of truth.

7 46 U.S.C. 41104(11).

Respondents assume that the second reference to 46 U S C 41104(10) was intended to be 41104(11), as the text mimics the language of that provision regarding knowing and willful provision of service to an NVOCC that lacks a tariff or bond. Any such claim is utterly frivolous, as the Complaint does not identify any NVOCC, much less a non-compliant NVOCC, for which EUL transported cargo. Indeed, this assertion is simply one more acknowledgment that, for whomever EUL may have provided transportation, it was not Complainants.

8. 46 U.S.C. 41106(2) & (3).

These sub-sections are included within a section of the Act labeled “Marine Terminal Operators.” The section begins with the words “[a] marine terminal operator may not.” The Complaint nowhere alleges that EUL is an MTO. Quite to the contrary, it asserts – correctly – that EUL is an NVOCC. As the cited sections do not apply to NVOCCs, these claims must be dismissed.

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Respondents respectfully request the Presiding Officer to dismiss the Complaint.

Respectfully submitted,

Eric Jeffrey

Good morning Michael,

During next week we expect several containers to arrive to Kotka. Since we do not have enough cars to secure the finance account, we would like to ask your company to unload consolidated containers and those that will arrive soon to Carcont's lot and release them the way you release vehicles from consolidated containers. To avoid any delays with releases we will pay outstanding shipping invoices. In addition, to bring our finance account to a positive balance we will bring cars to load during the week. Please let us know if you have any concerns or call Sergey to discuss any questions. Thank you

Yuliya,

Mazda Miata was delivered along with a title, would you please add it up in our finance table and send it to me?

Thank you

Светлана, Игорь

Во вложении новый файл с проверенными откреплениями и наличием тайтлов на автомобили на 11.11.2011.

На данный момент от Empire нет открепления на две машины

JEEP GRAND CHEROKEE	1J8HR78336C197441
Subaru Forester	JF2SH64689H756842

Запрос о проверке наличия откреплений в Empire послан, ждем ответа

PS. Приношу свои извинения за сложившуюся ситуацию с проверкой откреплений, целиком моя вина. Больше не повториться.

Nothing will be revised. And we strongly suggested you in writing that the charge is $300. You even asked if this is for new cars, look at my answer. It is for each and every car!! We do not want your business and your threats. Return us our money in 30 days.

Michael,

We are strongly disagree with your statement. The agreement from the beginning was $100 for storage per car. Then you decided otherwise, but we thought it refers to upcoming vehicles. We are ready to pay $100 per car and payoff the balance as stated in your table. Or we can continue shipping cars through your company, but prices for cars should be revised.

You all had our notification that taking any cars will be $300 / car.
Stop making your own rules.

We will check the balance and release all cars as soon as $300/ car paid.

You statement that you pay the balance in indefinite time is unacceptable. We request all the money be paid in 30 dats from today
We will not extend that date

Thank you

Hi, Michael,

I understand very well your position and hope that when we return to the USA, we shall achieve an understanding and will continue our cooperation. Namely, cooperation, and that means that one side cannot pronounce a verdict so sharply and stop the entire process in one blink. You have decided that you no longer want to have an ownership in the cars inventory. Ok. We have nothing against it. But to demand to compensate you everything at once and to stop the release is wrong, taking into account the fact that you have at your disposal a sufficient number of cars and that in no case would suffer in any arrangement. You are insured on all sides.

But at present we are not talking about it. We ask you to make a release for the car from which neither yours nor my wealth would change. Those people are your clients, too. I appeal to you to be reasonable. Your business capabilities would not suffer in this case.

You no longer wish to add cars to your balance sheet. We understand and respect your decision.

But let us come to this without starting any unpleasant troubles and unwillingness to work together. In the course of so many years we have been working side by side and know one another better than our parents know us. After our conversation, we were sure that you would take a break, and then start writing standard phrases. It always occurs like that, but the time goes on and we grow older. Why should we go to the American hills? Let's work without stresses, Michael. We have a new working project, related to shipping, let us meet and talk it over. It's better to go forward, and not to give food for the chatter of the "well-wishers"

PS Otkrep! ML

Respectfully, Irina

Subject: Re: Cars Inventory

Hi Michael,

Я очень хорошо понимаю твою позицию и надеюсь когда мы вернемся в USA, мы достигнем договоренности и продолжим наше сотрудничество. Именно сотрудничество, а это значит, что одна сторона не может так резко вынести вердикт и остановить весь процесс в один миг. Ты решил, что больше не хочешь иметь ownership в cars inventory. OK. Мы ничего не имеем против. Не требоват компенсировать тебе все сразу и остановить release, при том что ты располагаешь достаточным количеством машин и ты не в коем разе не пострадаешь при любом раскладе. Ты застрахован со всех сторон. No rech сейчас даже не об этом. Мы просим тебя сделать release на машины, от которой не твое не мое благосостояние не изменится. Эти люди являлись твоими клиентами тоже. Призываю к благоразумию, твои бизнес способности при этом не пострадают.

Ты не хочешь больше добывать cars в balance, понимаем и выдвигаем твоё решение, но давай придём к тому не устранивая друг друга неприятных ощущений и не желая работать вместе. Мы столько лет работаем бок о бок, и знаем друг друга лучше чем нас знают наши родители. После нашего разговора мы были уверены, что ты возьмёшь паузу, а потом начнёшь писать стандартными фразами. Так происходит всегда, но время идёт вперёд, мы стоим. Зачем нам эти американские горки? Давай, Michael, работай без стрессов.

У нас новый проект по работе, связанный с shippingом, придём будем разговаривать. Лучше идти вперёд, и не давай пшик для разговора доброзелателям.

PS Открепи ML

Я, Овчинников Игорь Юрьевич. был информирован компанией Global Auto у которой приобрел автомобиль, о том, что автомобиль бесследно исчез со склада временного хранения CarCont Ltd. Автомобиль был оплачен мной, что может быть подтверждено копией платежного документа, копией документов на автомобиль, и подтверждающим письмом на электронной почте, о поступлении автомобиля (GMC Acadia 2010 SLT-2, VIN 1GKLVNED6AJ138200) в Финляндию.

В связи с чем, требую разобраться в данной ситуации. Выяснить причастность к ней всех компаний связанных с покупкой автомобиля и его транспортировки, а именно Global Auto (продавец), Empire United (транспортировка авто), CarCont Ltd. (склад хранения автомобиля в Финляндии) Так же непосредственные лица. Сергей Капустин, Майкл Головеря (чья подпись стоит на инвойсе, который оплачен мной для покупки авто), Михаил Хитринов (владелец компаний Empire United, CarCont Ltd.), работники компаний Empire United/Carcone: Вячеслав Гайдаш, Дарья Осипова, Денис Шавриков.

Я готов к полному сотрудничеству, готов предоставить всю имеющуюся информацию.

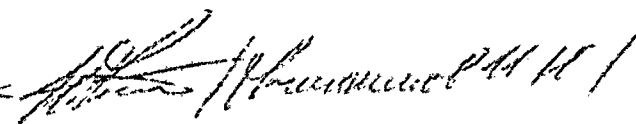

Просьба, сообщать о любой появившейся информации мне на e-mail. oiur@rambler.ru

I, Igor Ovchinnikov, was informed by Global Auto, which I purchased the car from, that the car disappeared from the warehouse of CarCont Ltd. The car was paid for by me, that can be confirmed by a copy of the payment document, a copy of the documents for the car, and a confirmation e-mail, that the car has been delivered to Finland (GMC Acadia 2010 SLT-2, VIN 1GKLVNED6AJ138200) in Finland.

I am asking to investigate the situation. Clarify the involvement of all the companies associated with the car purchase and transportation, namely: Global Auto (seller), Empire United (shipper), CarCont Ltd. (warehouse in Finland) And the following involved Sergey Kapustin, Michael Goloverya (whose signature is on the invoice, which I paid for the purchased car), Michael Hitrinov (owner of companies Empire United, CarCont Ltd.), Empire United / Carcont employees: Vyacheslav Gardash, Daria Osipova, Denis Shavrikov.

I'm ready to cooperate in any possible way, ready to provide all available information.

Please, report any information that appears to the following e-mail. oiur@rambler.ru

*OTM:n muuttaminenPuuttaminensiirto maastotarkastukseenajoneuvoja 01.12.2013ASIAKIRJAPYYNTÖ / OY CARCONT LTD:n VARASTOTARKASTUS

OTM Matti Laiho (älj. pyytäjä) on pyytänyt Tullilta asiakirjoja, jotka liittyvät Oy CarCont Ltd:n tiloissa maaliskuuhuhtikuussa 2013 tehtyyn varastotarkastukseen ja joista on nähtävissä, mitkä ajoneuvot ovat olleet tarkastushetkellä tullivarastossa ja mitkä eivät. Tietoa on pyydetty myös siitä, kenelle ajoneuvot on luovutettu ja milloin tämä on tapahtunut.

Pyytäjä edustaa Yhdysvaltoihin rekisteröityjä Global Auto Inc., G Auto Sales Inc. ja Effect Auto Sales Inc -nimisiä yrityksiä, jotka ovat myyneet Yhdysvalloista ajoneuvoja Venäjälle ja sen lähialueille. Myyjä sekä kaupan olevia ajoneuvoja on lähetetty meriteitse Suomeen ja niitä on säilytetty tullivarastossa Kotkassa. Varastonpitäjänä on ollut Oy CarCont Ltd -niminen yritys. Pyytäjän kertoman mukaan varastossa olleita ajoneuvoja olisi luovutettu väärin perustein muille kuin myyjän osoittamille henkilöille. Tullille on toimitettu erillinen luettelo näistä ajoneuvoista.

Kotkan tullista on keuhällä 2013 ilmoitettu pyytäjälle, että Oy CarCont Ltd:n tiloihin tehdyssä varastotarkastuksessa oli havaittu, että osa luettelossa mainituista ajoneuvoista oli poistunut tullivarastosta tullisäädösten mukaisesti ja osa niistä oli yhä siellä.

Tullin tarkastusyksikkö on ilmoittanut 4.9.2013 päivätyssä vastauksessaan pyytäjälle, että puheena olevaan varastotarkastukseen liittyviä asiakirjoja ei voida luovuttaa. Ratkaisu oli perustunut tullilain (1466/1994) 25.1 §:ään ja siihen, että pyytäjän ei oltu voitu katsoa olevan sellaisessa asemassa, että tämä voisi saada Tullilta toisen liiketoimintaa koskevia - ja sellaisena siis salassapidettäviä - tietoja.

Viimeisin pyytäjän asiakirjapyyntö on saatettu Tullin esikunnan oikeudelliset asiat -toimintayksikön käsiteltäväksi. Siinä pyytaja on vedonnut asianosaisaseman tueksi erinäisiin tosiseikkoihin. Asian käsittelyn tässä vaiheessa Tullille on esitetty uutena selvityksenä muun muassa pyytäjän päämiesten Yhdysvalloissa nostama siviilikanne No. CV13-2479 sekä kauppalaskuja, jotka osoittavat, että sanotut yritykset ovat ostaneet Yhdysvaltain markkinoilta edellä mainitussa luettelossa mainittuja ajoneuvoja jälleenmyytäviksi sekä kauppalaskuja, jotka osoittavat, että samaisia autoja on myyty luettelossa mainituille henkilöille Venäjälle tai sen lähialueille.

Oikeudelliset asiat on ollut asian selvittämiseksi yhteydessä myös Kymenlaakson poliisilaitokseen ja saanut sitä kautta haltuunsa luettelossa mainittujen ostajien tekemiä tutkintailmoituksia, Global Auton tekemän oman tutkintailmoituksen sekä tietoa asian käsittelystä Poliisissa.

Kaiken asiassa saadun selvityksen ja muutoin kertyneen tiedon perusteella Tullin oikeudelliset asiat katsoo, että pyytäjän edustamia yrityksiä voidaan pitää pyydettyjen tietojen suhteen asianosaisina. Näin ollen Tulli luovuttaa pyytäjälle oheisen listan, joka on laadittu Oy CarCont Ltd:n varastotarkastuksen yhteydessä ja josta käy ilmi muun muassa kunkin ajoneuvon vastaanottaja, lähtöpäivä ja asiakirja, jolla ajoneuvo on lähtenyt.

Listan sisältöön liittyen oikeudelliset asiat haluaa korostaa sitä, että kohdassa "vastaanottaja/CMR" mainittu henkilö tai yritys ei välttämättä ole se taho, jolle ajoneuvo on kussakin tapauksessa lopullisesti päätynyt. Tieto on peräisin kansainvälisestä CMR-rahtikirjasta ja joissakin yksittäisissä tapauksissa yleisilmoituksesta. Tullilla ei ole tietoa siitä, kuka on laatinut rahtikirjan tai ilmoittanut sitä varten tiedon vastaanottajasta.

Lopuksi oikeudelliset asiat toteaa, että viranomaisten toiminnan julkisuudesta annetun lain (621/1999) 23.2 §:n mukaan asianosainen, hänen edustajansa tai avustajansa ei saa ilmaista sivullisille asianosaisaseman perusteella saatuja salassa pidettäviä tietoja, jotka koskevat muita kuin asianosaista itseään.

DOCUMENT REQUEST / OY CARCONT LTD's WAREHOUSE INSPECTION

Attorney Matti Laiho (below referred to as the requestor) requests documents associated with the warehouse inspection performed at the facilities of OY CarCont Ltd in March- April 2013 that indicate the vehicles which were in the customs warehouse at the time of the inspection, and which were not. Information was also requested concerning to whom the vehicles were delivered and when this occurred.

The requestor represents US registered companies Global Auto Inc., G Auto Sales Inc and Effect Auto Sales Inc., which have sold vehicles from the United States to Russian and its surrounding areas. The vehicles sold and the vehicles for sale were shipped by sea to Finland and stored in the customs warehouse in Kotka. The warehouse management has been handled by a company named Oy CarCont Ltd. According to allegations made by the requestor, the vehicles stored in the warehouse were delivered on the wrong basis to parties other than to individuals listed by the seller. A separate list of these vehicles has been submitted to Customs.

In the spring of 2013, Kotka customs informed the requestor that during the inspection of the Oy CarCont Ltd's warehouse it was noted that some of the listed vehicles had been removed from the customs warehouse based on customs stipulations and some of them were still there.

In a response to the requester dated 09/04/2013, the customs inspection unit stated that the documents associated with said warehouse inspection could not be delivered. The decision was based on § 25.1 of the Customs Act (1466/1994) and as such the requester was not considered to be in such a position that he could receive information from customs about another party's business activities or information that could be considered as confidential.

The last request for documents made by the requestor was forwarded for processing to the customs main office unit for legal affairs. There the requestor referred to various facts related to his position as a party. During the processing of the case at this stage, customs has received new information including, among other things, the requestor's principals' in the United States initiated civil lawsuit number CV13-2479, as well as transaction invoices, which show that said businesses have purchased the vehicles in the above-mentioned list in the US markets for resale, as well as transaction invoices that indicate that the same vehicles have been sold to people listed in the same list in Russia and its surrounding areas.

In order to investigate the case, the legal unit has been in contact with the Kymenlaakso Police Department and through them they have received statements regarding investigations performed by the buyers mentioned in the list, Global Auto's own investigation report as well as information about the handling of the case in the police department.

All the accounts concerning the case, as well as other information collected by the custom's legal affairs unit, find that the companies represented by the requestor can be considered as parties in regard to the requested information, thus customs will deliver to the requestor the attached list, which has been prepared in connection with Oy CarCont Ltd's warehouse inspection and which indicates among other things each vehicle's recipient, delivery date and documentation of the means by which vehicle was delivered.

In regard to the content of the list, the legal affairs unit wants to emphasize that the person or company listed under the heading "Recipient/CMR" is not necessarily the party who, in each individual case, was the end recipient of the vehicle. The information comes from the international CMR freight bill of lading and in some individual cases, from the general statement. Customs has no information about who prepared the bill of lading or provided the information regarding the recipient for it.

Finally, the legal affairs unit notes that, according to § 23.2 of the Act Regarding Publicity of a Public Agency's activities (621/1999), the party, his representative or assistant, must not divulge to outside parties confidential information pertaining to parties other than himself, which he has received as a party to a case.

If you are the owner named on this notice, you can keep this notice with the Certificate of Title and when you sell the vehicle, boat or manufactured home, give the transferred Title AND this notice to the new owner. To obtain a new Title before then, return your current Title, this lien notice and a $20.00 fee to the DMV Title Bureau, 6 Empire State Plaza, Albany NY 12228-0330. (Check or money order should be made payable to the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles.)

If you cannot locate the Title for the vehicle, boat or manufactured home, you must apply for a duplicate. You may apply for a duplicate by completing Form MV-902 (available at a DMV office or on our web site at www.nysdmv.com) and mailing it with a $20.00 check or money order AND this lien notice to the DMV, Title Bureau at the above address.

If your address has not changed since you last registered the vehicle and your registration shows your current address, you may be able to apply for a duplicate title on line. For more information, please visit our web site listed above.

Был виден адресат компании Global Auto, у которого я приобрел автомобиль, о том, что автомобиль бесследно исчез со склада временного хранения CarCont Ltd. Автомобиль я бы оплатил мной что может быть подтверждено копией платежного документа, ключей документов на автомобиль, и подтверждаю письмом по электронной почте о поступлении автомобиля.

Марка Mercedes-Benz Модель C300 4Matic VIN WDDGF81X49R073295 в Финляндии.

В связи с чем требую разбираться в данной ситуации. Выяснить достоверность информации всех компаний связанных с покупкой автомобиля и его транспортировкой а именно Global Auto (продавец) Empire United (транспортировка авто), CarCont Ltd (склад хранения автомобиля в Финляндии).

Так же непосредственно лица: Сергей Капустин (чья подпись стоит на инвойсе который оплачен мной для покупки авто) Михаил Хетриков (владелец компании Empire United, CarCont Ltd), работники компании Empire United/CarCont: Вячеслав Гайдаш, Дарья Осипова, Денис Шаверкин.

Я готов к сотрудничеству, готов предоставить любые необходимые мне материалы.

Прогноз ссылаясь на мой почтовый ящик и информацию на моем сайте: Nekipelov@yandex.ru и Zvonareva79@mail.ru

I Nekipelov Denis

Was informed by Global Auto which purchased the car from me that the car disappeared from the warehouse of CarCont Ltd. The car was paid for by me that can be confirmed by a copy of the payment document, a copy of the documents for the car, and a confirmation e-mail that the car has been delivered to Finland (by the Mercedes-Benz Model C300 4Matic VIN WDDGF81X49R073295) in Finland.

I am asking to investigate the situation. Clarify the involvement of all the companies associated with the car purchase and transportation, namely Global Auto (seller), Empire United (shipper), CarCont Ltd (warehouse in Finland). And the following involved: Sergey Kapustin (whose signature is on the invoice which I paid for the purchased car), Mikhail Khetrkov (owner of companies Empire United, CarCont Ltd), Empire United / CarCont employees: Vyacheslav Gaydash, Daria Osipova, Denis Shavaykin.

I'm ready to cooperate in any possible way, ready to provide all available information.

Please, report any information that appears to the following e-mail: Nekipelov@yandex.ru и Zvonareva79@mail.ru Президент компании G Auto Sales, Inc.

- Предоплата со стороны Покупателя не является окончательной покупкой автомобиля, а гарантирует его бронирование на определенный срок - обговариваемый отдельно.
- В случае внесенной предоплаты и несвоевременной оплаты полной стоимости автомобиля, компания G Auto Sales, Inc. оставляет за собой право выставить неоплаченный авто на продажу.
- В случае расторжения договора на приобретение автомобиля со стороны Покупателя, клиент получает кредит с компанией или возврат денежных средств за вычетом 10% от стоимости автомобиля.
Возврат производится после продажи автомобиля другому клиенту.
- Зарезервировать автомобиль на сайте компании G Auto Sales, Inc. Покупатель подтверждает, что ознакомился с правилами оформления сделки купли-продажи автомобиля и согласен с ними. 5. Все банковские затраты и комиссии банков-посредников оплачиваются покупателем.
- Компания G Auto Sales, Inc. гарантирует легитимность и законность происхождения продаваемых автомобилей.
- Покупатель должен заказать открепительное удостоверение за 5 рабочих дней в бухгалтерии компании.
- Клиент обязуется оплатить портовые расходы и расходы по складу в г. Котка.

Благодарим за сотрудничество!

To All Customers of Global Auto USA, G-Auto Sales, Effect Auto

Re: Pending Lawsuit Against Empire United Lines Inc.

Dear Customers of Global Auto USA, G-Auto Sales, and Effect Auto

Please be advised that this law office has been retained to represent Global Auto USA, G-Auto Sales, and Effect Auto in a lawsuit against Empire United Lines Inc. ("Empire").

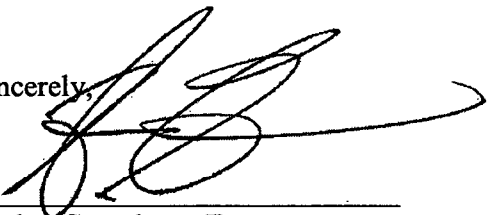

As you may already be aware, due to various correspondence exchanged between our clients and their customers, Empire has unlawfully refused to release various vehicles held at its storage facilities in the United States and in Finland. As a result of the unlawful actions taken by Empire, our clients have already alerted various state and federal authorities, both domestic and overseas, some of which may have already made contact with our clients' customers.

Please be advised that the corporate entities of Global Auto USA, G-Auto Sales, and Effect Auto are in no way affiliated with Empire. Our clients have used the services of Empire solely for the purposes of arranging for the inter-continental transport of automobiles. Unfortunately, Empire's recent activities have resulted in a breakdown in the relationship between our clients and Empire, and the consequences of these activities have affected our clients' customers.

In the event that you have any questions regarding the pending lawsuit against Empire, feel free to contact this office in writing at the email address listed above.

Thank you for your continued courtesy and consideration.

Sincerely,

Harlan Greenberg, Esq.

GLOBAL AUTO, INC.

G AUTO SALES, INC.

EFFECT AUTO SALES, INC.

Attn. Sergey Kapustin

Caption. Global Auto, Inc., et al., v Hitrinov, et al.
Docket No. 13 Civ 2479 (SLT)(RER)

Dear Mr Kapustin.

I look forward to working with you in connection with the above-referenced matter. Our formal retainer agreement follows confirming the principal terms and scope of our engagement.

- 1 Nature of Services. GLOBAL AUTO, INC., G AUTO SALES, INC., and EFFECT AUTO SALES, INC. (the "Clients") hereby retain Marcus A. Nussbaum, Esq ("Counsel") to perform the following services

Pro bono representation of the Clients solely for the purposes of appearing with Clients at a deposition on or about October 7, 2015 and defending the Clients at said deposition. Any representation outside of appearing at said deposition shall be covered by a separate retainer agreement.

2. Respective Responsibilities of the Client and Counsel. Counsel will represent the Client in connection with the matter described. The Client will cooperate with Counsel in discharging such responsibilities and will undertake any other Client responsibilities reasonably necessary with regard to the matter
- 3 Fees. The above stated representation shall be pro bono
- 4 Costs and Expenses. Not applicable.
- 5 Billing. Not applicable.
6. Right to Withdraw. The Client may terminate services to be rendered pursuant to this Agreement at any time upon written notice to Counsel. Counsel may terminate services to be rendered pursuant to this Agreement at any time upon written notice to the Client, subject to compliance with the Rules of Professional Conduct of the New York State Bar Association and applicable law and rules of the Court.
- 7 No Guarantee. Counsel has made no promises or guarantees to the Client about the outcome of the Client's matter, or the maximum amount of legal fees or costs which may be incurred, and nothing in this Agreement nor any estimates as to such matters shall be construed as such a promise or guarantee.

- 8 File Disposal. The Client agrees that should Counsel request the Client's permission to dispose of a file(s) that have been inactive for a period of three (3) years, the Client has the option of picking up the files(s) and should the Client fail to do so, the Client consents to Counsel disposing of the file(s) in a manner Counsel sees fit.
- 9 Miscellaneous. To enable Counsel to effectively to provide these services, you agree to disclose fully and accurately all facts and keep Counsel apprised of all development relating to the matter. This constitutes the entire agreement between us and cannot be altered except by a writing signed by the two of us. Pursuant to Title 22 NYCRR, Part 137, should a fee dispute arise, you have the option of submitting such dispute for binding arbitration.
- 10 Full Disclosure. The Client acknowledges receiving a copy of this Agreement and having had all questions about the Agreement, if any, answered to the Client's satisfaction.

If all is in order, please sign and return a copy of this Agreement. I will then sign and return a fully executed copy to you.

Very truly yours,

By

Marcus A. Nussbaum, Esq.

ANDREJUS PRESNIAKOVAS |
|--|--|

Andrejus Presniakovas, pursuant to 28 U S C § 1746, making the following Certification under penalty of perjury, in lieu of an oath or affidavit says

1 I am the Principal and Chief Executive Officer of defendant Baltic Auto Shipping, Inc ("Baltic") in the matter captioned above

2 I submit this Certification pursuant to the Order of the Hon Judge Dennis M Cavanaugh, dated October 23, 2015, which directed that I provide: " a sworn Certification regarding the efforts undertaken to search for documents responsive to request No 5 in plaintiffs first request for production of documents "

3 As the Court my recall, this request called for defendants' production of the following.

“ all documents and/or communications relating to the July 14 2014

Internal Memorandum prepared by BALTIC, including, but not limited to

- a. All drafts of the Internal Memorandum,
- b. All documents and/or communications identifying the source of the Attachments to the Internal Memorandum,
- c. Native electronic copies of the Internal Memorandum and Attachments F, G, and H to same; and
- d. All correspondence between BALTIC and the parties or counsel involved in the actions docketed as 1 09-cv-04714-ENV-MDG, 1 12-cv-01257-KAM-RER, 1 13-cv-02479-SLT-RER, and 1 11-cv-01324-FB-LB in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of New York.”

4 As to items 5(a), through 5(c) above, and after a further search of Baltic s records on or about October 8, 2015 conducted by myself personally including the office computers of Baltic located at 5811 W 66th Street, Chicago, Illinois, and hard copies of Baltic’s file maintained at Baltic’s office as it pertains to this matter and the matter before the Federal Maritime Commission (including file folders and any boxes containing Baltic’s file regarding these matters), defendants are not in possession of any documents further responsive to this request.

5 On April 3, 2015, I signed an affidavit in the parallel matter before the Federal Maritime Commission, a copy of which is annexed hereto, and in which I explained as follows: (a) the Internal Memorandum was prepared by Laura Supronas in early July of 2014, on a laptop computer in my office at my direction and request; (b) upon the completion of the Internal Memorandum, hard copies were prepared for signature and placed in file storage at my office, (c) approximately one month later, due to the receipt of an infected e-mail, the laptop computer was infected by a virus which locked the computer and required the reformatting of the hard drive, and (d) I disposed of the laptop in mid-October of 2014

6 As further explained in my affidavit of April 3, 2015, I personally searched Baltic's office computers and email subsequent to October of 2014, and I can say with certainty that the original file for the Internal Memorandum was not emailed to anyone from the laptop during the course of its preparation. Therefore, any drafts of the Internal Memorandum and/or native electronic copies of same do not exist.

7 With respect to any request for documents identifying the source of the attachments to the Internal Memorandum, I explained during my deposition of August 21, 2015 that the attachments were provided to Baltic by counsel via mail in or about November of 2013. Therefore, documents identifying the source of the attachments, as requested by plaintiffs in their "Request No. 5" do not exist.

8 As to item 5(d) above, and after a further search of Baltic's records, conducted by myself personally, including the office computers of Baltic located at 5811 W. 66th Street, Chicago, Illinois, and hard copies of Baltic's file maintained at Baltic's office as it pertains to this matter and the matter before the Federal Maritime Commission, Baltic is not in possession of any documents responsive to this request. Baltic did not correspond with parties involved in the actions docketed as 1:09-cv-04714-ENV-MDG, 1:12-cv-01257-KAM-RER, 1:13-cv-02479-SLT-RER, and 1:11-cv-01324-FB-LB in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of New York. With the sole exception being Baltic's attorney of record in the instant matter and who may have been involved in the matters identified above, Baltic did not correspond with attorneys involved in the actions identified above. To the extent that Baltic corresponded with its own attorney, Baltic did not correspond with counsel regarding the matters identified above.

9 Pursuant to the Order of the Hon. Judge Dennis M. Cavanaugh, dated October 23, 2015, I personally performed a search of all relevant records in my possession, including all business records of Baltic, including electronically stored records at Baltic's office computers and records stored in hard copy form at Baltic's office, but have not been able to locate any documents further responsive to the discovery requests set forth above, to the extent not already disclosed and/or addressed herein.

The foregoing is true and correct to the best of my knowledge under penalty of perjury under 28 U.S.C. § 1746.

Respondents.

AFFIDAVIT

STATE OF ILLINOIS)

COUNTY OF COOK)

Andrejus Presniakovas, being duly sworn, deposes and says

1 I am the principal and chief executive officer of Baltic Auto Shipping, Inc., ("Baltic Chicago") the Complainant in the above captioned action. As such, I have personal knowledge of the facts stated herein. I submit this affidavit in opposition to the motion by respondents seeking the production of Complainant's Exhibit "H" to the 2014 Audit produced by my office as part of the discovery in this matter (the "Audit").

2. The Audit was prepared by my employee, Laura Supronas in early July of 2014, on a laptop computer in my office at my direction and request. Upon the completion of the Audit, hard copies were prepared for signature and placed in file storage at my office.

3 Approximately one month later, due to the receipt of an infected e-mail, the laptop computer was infected by a virus which demanded payment of a ransom within three days in order to unlock the files.

4 As a result of my inability to access the files on the laptop, the hard drive was subsequently formatted so that the laptop could be used again.

5 In mid-October of 2014, I disposed of the laptop due to continued software errors and obsolete hardware

6. Subsequent to the respondents' request for copies of the Exhibit "H" in its native format, I caused a search of my office computers and email and I can say with certainty that the original file was not emailed to anyone from the laptop during the course of its preparation. This is the reason why hard copies were forwarded to my attorney for preparation of the complaint in this matter

Our File Number: 201500XX

Dear Mr. Werner,

The original documents were photocopied and examined by me in opposing counsel's office in New York. The examination task was to determine if the questioned document was a genuine document and to determine if the document was created on or near its purported date.

Questioned Documents:

- Q-1 Three page Internal Memorandum dated 7/14/2014 with attachments spindled together.

Known Documents

- K-1 Exhibit X Internal Memorandum dated 7/14/2014 filed with the court as a PDF
- K-2. Additional Internal Memorandum dated 7/14/2014 filed with the court as a PDF

Procedure:

ESDA Impression

ESDA was performed on the first page of Q-1

ESDA (Electro Static Detection Apparatus) impressions are latent impressions that are generally left when information is written on a top page, leaving an impression or impressions on the page or pages underneath.

The ESDA is a generally (or universally) accepted tool for forensic analysis of documents, used by police departments and forensic document analysts around the country, as well as by the Federal Bureau of Investigation and other federal agencies.

While conducting my ESDA examinations I adhered to the procedures set forth by the manufacturer, the training I have received in the use of this instrument and the American Society for Testing and Materials guide for the examination of indentations (E 2291-03). These procedures are generally accepted as appropriate in the field of forensic document analysis.

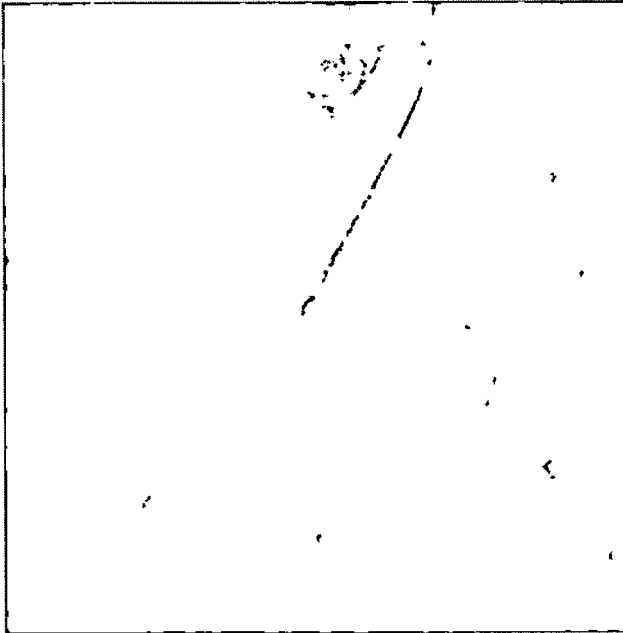

Visual Examination

An examination of Q1 was performed visually and via microscope. Any irregularities in the documents were noted, no watermarks are present in the paper. Examination under oblique lighting conditions was also performed, noting any impressions in the documents.

Results.

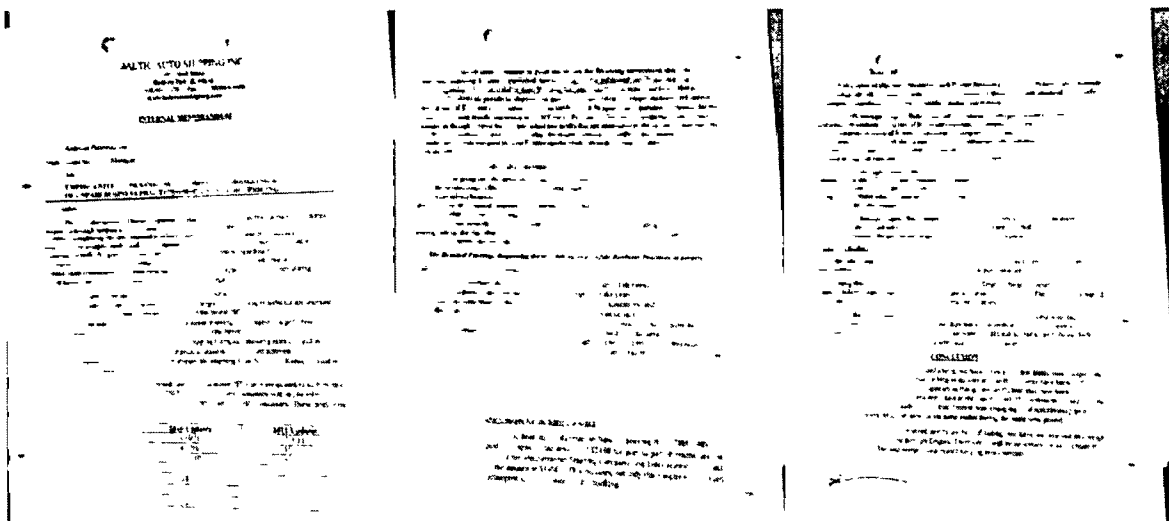

ESDA

The ESDA plate for K-1 has impressions in the right center of the document. The text includes "about TARIFF "

Visual Examination

The first three pages of Q-1 were determined to be a photocopy and NOT an original document, including the presence of photocopied hole-punches in the right and left hand sides of the document.

The signature on page 3 of Q-1 was also photocopy toner and not an original ink signature.

The signature on Q-1 was determined to be a photocopy based on the examination of the signature by use of a digital microscope. Photocopied imperfections can be seen in the bottom left loop of close-up 1 and right center of close-up 2.

Close-up 1

Close-up 2

Furthermore, based on the appearance and visual properties of the three page letter of Q-1, it was not created by copying either K-1 or K-2.

Conclusion.

My opinion is based on the observations I made during my examinations and my ability to evaluate these observations, based on the training and experience I have in the area of document examination. It is my opinion that the three page letter in Q-1 produced in New York at the office of Marcus Nussbaum is a photocopy and not an original document. This opinion is drawn to a reasonable degree of scientific certainty and based on recognized scientific principles.

Since the original document was not produced, no determination can be made as to the age of the ink or paper. If the original had been produced, it is likely that a scientific examination could have been made to determine if the document was produced in July 2014 as purported, or later

Very truly yours,

Marcus A. Nussbaum, pursuant to 28 U S C § 1746, making the following Certification under penalty of perjury, in lieu of an oath or affidavit says.

1 I am the attorney for the defendants in the case pending before this Court ("Empire v Baltic"). I also represented defendant, Baltic as a Complainant in a matter previously pending before the Federal Maritime Commission ("FMC"), and as such I am fully familiar with the facts and circumstances of this matter

2. I submit this Certification pursuant to the Order of the Hon. Judge Dennis M. Cavanaugh, dated October 22, 2015, which directed that I provide a sworn Certification regarding the circumstances by which I failed to produce an "ink original" of a certain document known and referred to herein as the "audit" for inspection on July 2, 2015, and that I further provide the current location, if known, of same. Said audit is a three (3) page document entitled, "Internal Memorandum", signed by Laura Supranos, and dated July 14, 2014

3 On March 23, 2015 the plaintiffs herein ("Respondents" in the FMC action) filed a motion therein for summary judgment seeking to dismiss the Complainants' claims. On or about May 8, 2015, the undersigned filed opposition papers to said motion including, inter alia, the subject audit.

4 On July 2, 2015, pursuant to an Order of the Hon. Judge Falk, I produced the audit for inspection by the respondents, which based upon the best of my knowledge, recollection, and belief was the "ink original" audit. It was the opinion of the forensics expert hired by the plaintiffs, however, that the document that I produced was not an "ink original"

5 As of the time of this writing, I have no personal knowledge as to the precise location and/or whereabouts of the "ink original" audit signed by the author and preparer of same, Laura Supranos on July 14, 2014

6 To the extent that the FMC Court Rules mandate the filing of an original and five (5) copies of all motion papers, and due to the extremely high quality of the copies of what was originally a black ink signature by Ms. Supranos, it is respectfully submitted that it is more than likely that the said "ink original" audit may have inadvertently either have been filed with the FMC Court, or erroneously served upon respondents' counsel therein.

7 I can further attest as to having personally performed a search of all case files in my possession, but have not been able to locate the "ink original" audit. I do, however, have a clear recollection of having seen the "ink original" audit, and specifically recall seeing Ms. Supranos' signature in black ink, dated July 14, 2014

The foregoing is true and correct to the best of my knowledge under penalty of perjury under 28 U S C § 1746.

1 Beginning in early 2015, I was an administrative assistant at the law office of Marcus Nussbaum. My duties and responsibilities at that time were limited to various administrative functions and those of a file clerk.

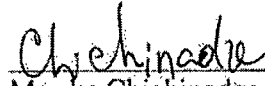

2 Sometime in May 2015, Mr. Nussbaum asked me to collate and assemble certain documents into Exhibits for what I was given to understand was opposition to a motion.

3 I have no recollection of having taken note as to whether any of the documents I was asked to collate and assemble were "ink originals" or copies.

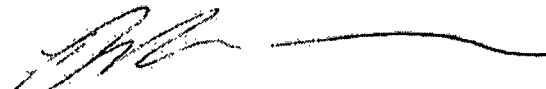

4 Upon assembling and collating said exhibits into the motion papers, I personally delivered same to the mailing service used by Mr. Nussbaum, for service upon the moving party.

5 I have no knowledge, information or recollection either as to the subject matter of these documents, the underlying case, nor as to the relief sought in the motion. Neither do I have any information nor do I recall the names of the parties and/or counsel upon whom such papers were being served

6 In particular, I have no knowledge or information regarding any "audit" which may have been contained within the Exhibits to said motion papers that I was asked to collate and assemble, or as to whether any such audit which may have been contained within said motion papers was an "ink original" or copy of same.

ORDER GRANTING PLAINTIFFS' MOTION FOR FINAL DEFAULT JUDGMENT

For the reasons stated below, Plaintiffs are awarded monetary damages in the total amount of $2,228,069.29, post-judgment equitable relief and post-judgment interest.

THIS ACTION having been commenced by Plaintiffs Ardak Akishev, Zhandos Aliakparov, Alexey Batalov, Evgeniy Borzenko, Igor Glazunov, Irina Glazunova, Andrey Kirik, Natalia Kirik, Arkadiy Kolbin, Evgeniy Kondratuk, Eduard Lisitsyn, Vladimir Lukyanov, Viktor Maniashin, Mikhail Matveev, Alexander Pukir, Evgeniy Teln, Yuriy Yamkoviy, Alla Yamkovaya, Alexander Zhilinskiy, Elena Zvereva, Mikhail Zverev, (collectively, "Plaintiffs") represented by counsel Anna V Brown, Esq and Maria Temkin, Esq., on November 25, 2013 by the filing of the Summons and the Complaint asserting claims against Defendants, Sergey Kapustin, G Auto Sales, Inc., Global Auto Sales, Inc., Effect Auto Sales, Inc., and SK Imports, Inc. a/k/a Global Cars, Inc. ("Global Defendants") and Global Cargo Oy and Igor Zadorozhniy ("Finland Global Defendants), (collectively "Defendants") alleging an ongoing "bait-and-switch" fraudulent scheme masterminded and operated by Defendants through deceptive advertising aimed at luring Eastern European customers to wire funds for automobile purchases and then switching to higher prices, misrepresenting mileage, condition and location and ownership of these vehicles, extorting more funds and failing to deliver the paid-for-vehicles, for legal and equitable relief for violations of the Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations Act, 18 U.S.C. § 1962(a-c) (Counts I-III), civil conspiracy to commit RICO violations, 18 U.S.C. § 1962(d) (Count IV); violations of New Jersey Consumer Fraud Act 56 8-1, et seq., violations of the Motor Vehicle Information and Cost Savings Act (the "Odometer Act"), 49 U.S.C. § 32701, et seq., violations of Pennsylvania Unfair Trade Practices Act and Consumer Protection Law 73 P.S. § 201-1, et seq. ("UTCPL") (Count XVII), imposition of constructive trust (Count XVIII) and other common law claims.

WHEREAS, on December 2, 2013, Global Defendants were served with Summons and Complaint.

WHEREAS, on April 4, 2014, Plaintiffs filed an Amended Complaint.

WHEREAS, on April 27, 2014, Finland Global Defendants were served with Summons and Amended Complaint via international registered mail with return receipts sent by the Clerk of Court at their place of business in Finland pursuant to Fed.R.Civ.P. 4(f)(1) and (2)(C)(ii). Finland Global Defendants have not answered or otherwise responded to the Amended Complaint. On June 5, 2015, Plaintiffs have moved for entrance of a default pursuant to Fed.R.Civ.P. 55(a) for failure to plead or otherwise respond. On June 8, 2015, the Clerk entered a default.

FAILURE TO COMPLY WITH THE CONSENT ORDER

WHEREAS, on June 3, 2014, Plaintiffs filed their Motion for an Order to Freeze the Assets of Defendants and Expedited Discovery Related to Assets pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 65 ("Asset Freeze Motion") representing the funds Plaintiffs wired to the bank accounts of Global Auto, G Auto, Effect Auto, and Global Cars to purchase the motor vehicles advertised for sale by Global Defendants and received neither the vehicles nor the refunds (collectively, "Wired Funds"). If the funds remaining in those accounts were insufficient, Plaintiffs requested the Court to direct Defendants to place the funds in an escrow account and to permit expedited discovery related to the disposition of the funds and Defendants' assets, including their ownership of hotel "Motel Road 66" in Finland.

WHEREAS, having received the Global Defendants' opposition, in which they did not dispute receiving the Wired Funds, on September 5, 2014, the Court held an evidentiary hearing on the Asset Freeze Motion.

WHEREAS, on September 23, 2014, to avoid the immediate freeze of the corporate Global Defendants' bank accounts, Plaintiffs and Global Defendants agreed to and the Court entered the Consent Order, Docket No. 80, to deposit into the registry of the Court $400,000 00 (four hundred thousand dollars) in monthly installments within 90 days of the Consent Order and to provide expedited discovery related to the disposition of Plaintiffs' funds and Defendants' assets.

WHEREAS, Global Defendants failed to comply with the Consent Order and dissipated assets and depleted their bank accounts in order to avoid compliance with the Consent Order

WHEREAS, on October 7, 2014, in order to evade his obligations under the Consent Order, Defendant Sergey Kapustin filed his Chapter 13 Bankruptcy Petition (Case No 14-30488).

ADMISSION OF CONTINUING MASS INTERNET FRAUD

WHEREAS, on October 23, 2014, Plaintiffs moved for contempt against Global Defendants and their counsel.

WHEREAS, on October 24, 27, 28, 29 and November 3, 2014, the Court held evidentiary hearings during which it was established that while Global Defendants websites www.globalautousa.com, www.effectauto.com, www.effectauto.ru ("Websites") advertised over 4,000 vehicles as "in stock", Defendant Kapustin testified only about 14 vehicles were actually owned by the corporate Global Defendants, and some vehicles were sold twice through the Websites to foreign customers using electronic mail communications and international bank wire payments.

WHEREAS, the Court having made preliminary findings that there is probable cause to believe that Global Defendants have committed at least two predicate acts of mail and wire fraud in the furtherance of a RICO enterprise through a pattern of racketeering activity conducted operating through the Internet; on October 27 and October 29, 2014, this Court ordered, pursuant to 18 U S C. § 1964 and, e.g., Sedima, S.P.R.L. v Imrex Co., Inc., 473 U.S. 479, 498 (1985) (explaining that RICO is to be read broadly and liberally construed to effectuate its remedial purposes), that the Defendants' corporate bank accounts to be frozen and the Websites to be shut down immediately (Docket Nos. 106, 110).

BAD FAITH FILING OF CORPORATE BANKRUPTCIES

WHEREAS, on November 4, 2014, corporate Global Defendants filed their Chapter 7 bankruptcy petitions (Global Auto Sales (Case No. 14-32520), Effect Auto Sales, Inc (Case No. 14-32521), G Auto Sales, Inc. (Case No 14-32522) and SK Imports, Inc. (Case No. 14-32523).

WHEREAS, on November 12, 2014, Plaintiffs moved for the Court's determination that the Bankruptcy automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. § 362(a) does not apply to this case pursuant to 11 U S C. §362(b)(1) and (4) to prevent Global Defendants from continuing to dissipate assets, and concealing information about the assets and potential fraudulent transfers "to prevent the bankruptcy court from becoming a haven for wrongdoers." In re Nortel Networks, Inc., 669 F.3d 128, 137-138 (3d Cir 2011) (citations omitted).

WHEREAS, having considered the opposition from Jeffrey Lester, Esq., the Chapter 7 Trustee for corporate Global Defendants in the form of a response and a sur-reply, having heard argument of counsel, the Court withdrew the reference to the Bankruptcy Court pursuant to the standing order of reference of this Court dated September 19, 2012, of the bankruptcy cases. Global Auto Sales, Inc. (Case No. 14-32520), Effect Auto Sales, Inc. (Case No. 14-32521), G Auto Sales, Inc. (Case No 14-32522), SK Imports, Inc. (Case No. 14-32523) and Sergey Kapustin (Case No 14-30488) pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(d).

WHEREAS, on May 20, 2015, the Court dismissed the bankruptcies pursuant to Section 105(a), 305(a), 349 and 707(a) of the Bankruptcy Court, having considered the pleadings and having heard oral argument and having made findings of good cause including having found that Debtors failed to satisfy their burden that the bankruptcy petitions were filed in good faith based on the fact that:

a. The petitions were filed for purposes of avoiding defending multiple actions for fraud and enforcement of judgments in different venues,

b. The petitions were not truthful, accurate or complete. The statements in the petition and schedules were categorically wrong and sought to defy creditors' claims;

c. The Debtors failed to amend schedules to provide full and complete information with regard to all assets and liabilities as ordered by the January 28, 2015 Court Order, nor did the Debtors seek extension of the deadline to comply with the Order;

d. A substantial number of creditors might be victims of fraud,

e. The corporate Debtors failed to fully comply with the Trustee's subpoena,

f. The Debtor Sergey Kapustin selectively invoked his Fifth Amendment privilege against self-incrimination with regard to every question related to the bankruptcy petitions, schedules, or any information that could potentially be included in the bankruptcy petitions and schedules. Debtor, Sergey Kapustin's reliance on the Fifth Amendment privilege created an adverse civil inference against him because the admission would subject him to criminal liability; and

g. The invocation of the Fifth Amendment rights is inconsistent with the orderly administration of the estates as the Debtor Sergey Kapustin shifted the expense of defending himself from the fraud claims to the Trustees.

CONCEALMENT OF FOREIGN BANK ACCOUNTS

WHEREAS, on June 19, 2015, Plaintiffs moved for Temporary Restraining Order and Preliminary Injunction establishing that after entering into the Consent Order Global Defendants diverted their monetary operations to the foreign bank accounts and concealed assets in foreign countries during the pendency of the bankruptcy proceedings; and that Plaintiffs' funds and assets unlawfully obtained by the Global Defendants as described in the Amended Complaint have been misapplied and will be misappropriated, hidden, wasted, or otherwise used to the detriment of Plaintiffs; and that the Defendants will engage in hiding funds or assets, including concealing the funds or assets in foreign countries, to frustrate the relief ordered in this action.

WHEREAS, having held an evidentiary hearing on the relief sought in the Motion on June 29, 2015, and having received a notice of the Motion pro se Defendants Sergey Kapustin, Irina Kapustina and Michael Goloverya appeared and testified at the evidentiary hearing; and having considered the Motion for Preliminary Injunction, the Court found that Plaintiffs have satisfied the four pronged test for preliminary injunctive relief set forth in McNeil Nutritionals, LLC v Heartland Sweeteners, LLC, 511 F.3d 350, 356 (3d Cir 2007) because (1) there is a reasonable likelihood that it will prevail on the merits of the claims as Plaintiffs have established grounds for entering default judgement in their Motion for Sanctions (Docket No. 169), during the evidentiary hearing on the motion on April 27, 2015, and during the evidentiary hearing on the assessment of damages on June 29, 2015, (2) Plaintiffs have demonstrated that they will suffer an irreparable harm in the absence of a preliminary injunction order and based on Global Defendants' previous concealment and diversion of corporate funds, and that Global Defendants will continue to dissipate assets leaving Plaintiffs with no recovery; (3) Global Defendants will suffer no appreciable harm because there is a reasonable cause to believe that the funds in their accounts and other assets have been obtained and concealed by engaging in the unlawful activities as described in the Amended Complaint; (4) the public interest is served by deterring Defendants' fraudulent schemes to avoid compliance with the Court's orders; this Court granted Plaintiffs' Preliminary Injunction Motion and enjoined Global Defendants from disposing of any interest in any assets located in the United States and in foreign countries.

ENTERING DEFAULT AS A SANCTION IS WARRANTED

WHEREAS, on February 17, 2015, Plaintiffs moved for sanctions against Global Defendants and their counsel ("Sanctions' Motion") including entering a default judgment as a sanction for their continuing litigation misconduct including numerous fraudulent representations to the Court, dissipation of assets in order to avoid compliance with the Consent Order, concealment of assets in foreign jurisdictions, filing bankruptcy petitions in bad faith for the purpose of invoking the automatic stay and frustrating this Court's jurisdiction, continuing delay resulting in significant prejudice to Plaintiffs.

WHEREAS, on April 27, 2015, having considered the Sanctions' Motion, the opposition from Global Defendants and their counsel, the evidentiary materials presented by the parties, having heard argument of counsel, having considered the factors enumerated in Hoxworth v Blinder, Robinson & Co., 980 F.2d 912, 919 (3d Cir 1992) (internal citations omitted), "(1) the extent of the party's personal responsibility; (2) the prejudice to the adversary caused by the failure to meet scheduling orders and respond to discovery; (3) a history of dilatoriness; (4) whether the conduct of the party or the attorney was willful or in bad faith, (5) the effectiveness of sanctions other than dismissal, which entails an analysis of alternative sanctions; and (6) the meritoriousness of the claim or defense", the Court made its finding that Global Defendants' bad faith litigation misconduct caused unreasonable delay and prejudice to Plaintiffs, Global Defendants admitted obtaining funds from Plaintiffs and presented no meritorious defenses, and having considered alternative sanctions, no sanction other than entering a default would remedy the continuing delay and disruption of the judicial process in this case.

WHEREAS, on May 27, 2015, Plaintiffs submitted their Application to Assess Damages for Default Judgment (“Application to Assess Damages”).

WHEREAS, on August 31, 2015 and September 4, 2015, having considered Plaintiffs’ Application to Assess Damages, opposition from Global Defendants, having considered both parties’ evidentiary materials and argument, the Court held evidentiary hearings and made the foregoing findings of fact and conclusions of law

WHEREAS, during the hearing the Court found that Global Defendants were responsible for executing and masterminding the “bait and switch” fraud scheme targeting online unsophisticated foreigners from the former Soviet Union and other countries by advertising vehicles for sale below the market value. Plaintiffs presented evidence that the advertised and “sold” cars were not in Global Defendants’ possession and often already owned by unrelated third parties at the time of the “sale.” Once the customer wired the money, Global Defendants failed to deliver the vehicles that customer paid for and refused to issue any refunds. Global Defendants then offered customers different cars, for a higher price, thus extorting more money from the customers. Eventually, even on the “switch” vehicles that were ultimately, sometime after 6-8 months of first wire, shipped to Global Defendants’ warehouse in Finland, Global Entities refused to “release” vehicles and charged hidden fees, misrepresented odometer readings, withheld the information that the vehicle had been declared “total loss” after an accident or flooded by hurricane Sandy with “salvage” title issued.

WHEREAS, the Court finds that Plaintiffs have stated a course of action under the Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations Act, 18 U.S.C. § 1962(a-c) (Counts I-III); civil conspiracy to commit RICO violations, 18 U.S.C. § 1962(d) (Count IV) by virtue of committing multiple acts of racketeering by defrauding customers in violation of, inter alia, the wire and mail fraud statutes, 18 U.S.C. § 1343 and 1341, violations of New Jersey Consumer Fraud Act 56.8-1, et seq, violations of the Motor Vehicle Information and Cost Savings Act

(the "Odometer Act"), 49 U.S.C. § 32701, et seq., violations of Pennsylvania Unfair Trade Practices Act and Consumer Protection Law 73 P.S. § 201-1, et seq. ("UTCPL") (Count XVII), imposition of constructive trust (Count XVIII) and other common law claims.

WHEREAS, the Court finds that Defendant Kapustin, as owner of corporate Global Defendants exercised complete dominion and control over the corporations and used the corporations as his alter egos for his own purposes, making all the decisions including the decisions to defraud Plaintiffs.

WHEREAS, the Court finds that individual Defendant Sergey Kapustin and corporate Global Defendants are a group of RICO persons, Global Companies Enterprise, associated in fact for the common purpose of engaging in fraudulent conduct constituting a RICO enterprise defined in 18 U.S.C. § 1961(4) functioning together as a continuing unit, each of them necessary to accomplish each step or aspect of the fraudulent scheme. Defendant Sergey Kapustin and corporate Global Defendants acted in concert for the shared goal of defrauding overseas car buyers receiving profits from the fraudulent scheme. This enterprise affected interstate and foreign commerce because it exported vehicles to foreign countries and both sent and received funds through banks in the United States and abroad.

WHEREAS, the Court finds that Defendant Sergey Kapustin, who is a person within the meaning of RICO, managed and participated in conduct of the Global Companies Enterprise through a pattern of racketeering activity in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1962(c), including multiple acts of wire fraud, mail fraud, and/or financial fraud.

WHEREAS, the Court finds that Global Defendants engaged in the pattern of racketeering activity, which included related violations of 18 U.S.C. § 1343 (wire fraud), 18 U.S.C. § 1341 (mail fraud); 18 U.S.C. § 1956 (money laundering); 18 U.S.C. § 1957 (engaging in monetary transactions in property derived from unlawful activity), 18 U.S.C. § 1952 (Travel Act), 18 U.S.C. § 1912 (witness intimidation), as included in 18 U.S.C. 1961(1).

WHEREAS, the Court finds that the pattern of the racketeering activity began no later than some time in 2008 resulting in investigation by Attorney General for the State of New Jersey Division of Consumer Affairs of deceptive conduct of Global Auto Enterprise, resulting on November 19, 2010, in the consent judgment for injunctive relief, civil penalties, legal fees and restitution to victims. The scheme continued in 2012 when Global Defendants committed predicate acts of racketeering towards Plaintiffs Yamkoviys, and continued through February 2014, when Defendants committed acts of 18 U.S.C. § 1343 wire fraud towards Plaintiff Pukir. Global Defendants continued the pattern by filing fraudulent bankruptcies. Global Defendants' acts were arranged and ordered so as to exhibit both a relation between the predicate acts and the threat of continuing unlawful activity. Defendants' acts of mail fraud, wire fraud, and financial fraud were open-ended and occurring on an ongoing and daily basis targeting overseas car buyers from GlobalAutoUSA.com and other websites registered by Global Defendants with the intent to defraud foreign buyers.

WHEREAS, the Court finds that Plaintiffs were directly and proximately harmed by Global Defendants' predicate acts of racketeering, including wire fraud, mail fraud, and Travel Act violations, which resulted in ascertainable financial losses to the Plaintiffs.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED on this 21st day of September, 2015, that the Judgment of Default shall be entered against Global Defendants and Plaintiffs shall be awarded damages as follows.

TREBLING OF LOST FUNDS UNDER RICO

1 The Court finds that Global Defendants are jointly and severally liable to Plaintiffs for the treble amount of the funds lost by Plaintiffs pursuant to RICO, 18 U.S.C. § 1964(c) ("Any person injured in his business or property by reason of a violation of section 1962 of this chapter shall recover threefold the damages he sustains"); H.J. Inc. v. Nw Bell Tel. Co., 492 U.S. 229, 233 (1989) ("[A] person found in a private action to have violated RICO is liable for treble damages”). The Third Circuit instructed that where a plaintiff successfully obtains a judgment of civil liability under RICO, an award of treble damages is mandatory. See, e.g. Genty v RTC, 937 F.2d 899, 914 (3d Cir 1991) (“It is clear that trial courts and juries are at no liberty under RICO to award any amount less than treble damages.”); La Suisse, Societe D'Assurances Sur La Vie v Kraus, 2014 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 99847 (S.D.N.Y. July 21, 2014) (awarding default judgment and treble damages under RICO).

THE ODOMETER FRAUD ACT DAMAGES

2. The Court further finds that Global Defendants are jointly and severally liable to Plaintiff Evgeniy Borzenko for damages pursuant to the Odometer Fraud Act, 49 USCS § 32710, for the treble the amount of the Jeep Compass transaction of $15,900 and the statutory damages in the amount of $ 10,000 for the Mazda transaction, the vehicles that he received. The Court further finds that Plaintiffs Yuriy Yamkoviy and Alla Yamkovaya are entitled to the statutory damages in the amount of $ 10,000 per each transaction for the three vehicles that they received. Mon Cheri Bridals, Inc. v Wen Wu, 383 Fed. Appx. 228, 240 (3d Cir 2010) (“permitting the calculation of damages based on separate transactions because of the “harm suffered under separate statutory schemes for separate facts”).

PREJUDGMENT INTEREST

3 The Court finds that Global Defendants are jointly and severally liable to Plaintiffs for the prejudgment interest award on the full amount of actual damages trebled under RICO from the date of filing of the Amended Complaint, April 4, 2014. The Court remains mindful of the fact that the purpose of awarding prejudgment interest is compensatory, “because RICO is essentially compensatory and contains no provision barring prejudgment interest, any such award is within the district court’s sound discretion.” West Hills Farms, LLC v ClassicStar Farms, Inc. (In re ClassicStar Mare Lease, Litig.), 727 F.3d 473, 495 (6th Cir 2013) (applying the award of prejudgment interest to the entire RICO treble damages amount).

Aetna Casualty Sur Co v P & B Autobody, 43 F.3d 1546, 1571 (1st Cir 1994) (upholding the award of prejudgment interest on the entire treble damages amount under the RICO claims).

4 The Court finds that with respect to the federal RICO claims, Odometer Fraud Act, and NJ and PA consumer fraud statutes, it is appropriate to incorporate an award of prejudgment interest as an element of Plaintiffs' recovery in light of the circumstances of this case given Global Defendants' fraud perpetrated on numerous consumers as well as repeated bad faith conduct during this litigation.

5 Having reviewed voluminous and well-documented evidence presented by Plaintiffs of damages caused by Global Defendants' conduct, the Court finds that Global Defendants are jointly and severally liable to each Plaintiff as follows.

RICO TREBLING OF ATTORNEY FEES AND COSTS INCURRED IN FRAUDULENT BANKRUPTCY CASES

6 The Court finds that Global Defendants are jointly and severally liable to Plaintiffs for the trebled amount of attorney fees and costs incurred in having to litigate fraudulent bankruptcies filed by Global Defendants as a part of their racketeering scheme. See Stochastic Decisions, Inc. v DiDomenico, 995 F.2d 1158, 1167 (2d Cir N Y 1993) (“we explicitly ruled in Bankers Trust that legal fees may constitute RICO damages when they are proximately caused by a RICO violation”) (relying on Bankers Trust Co v Rhoades, 859 F.2d 1096 (2d Cir N Y 1988), finding that expenses in fraudulent bankruptcy proceedings can constitute RICO injury); La Suisse, Societe D'Assurances Sur La Vie v Kraus, 2014 U S Dist. LEXIS 99847, 22-23 (S.D.N Y July 21, 2014).

7 Global Defendants’ failure to disclose assets in bankruptcy schedules, concealment of information related to the administration of the estates and making false statements under penalty of perjury to defraud creditors in violation of 18 USCS § 152 constitute predicate acts under 18 USCS § 1961, (“racketeering activity” means (D) any offense involving fraud connected with a case under title 11”; see Cadle Co v Flanagan, 271 F Supp. 2d 379 (D Conn. 2003) (finding that filing of false schedules and concealing assets to defraud creditors in a bankruptcy case are RICO predicate acts)). This unlawful conduct caused Plaintiffs to incur substantial legal expenses in these bankruptcy matters that are subject to trebling under RICO, 18 U.S.C. § 1964(c).

8 The Court finds that Global Defendants are jointly and severally liable to Plaintiffs for the treble attorney fees incurred for the fraudulent bankruptcies in the total amount $222,675.00 and trebled bankruptcy cases costs of $15,022.14

POSTJUDGMENT INJUNCTION AND EQUITABLE RELIEF

9 In accordance with Rule 65 and Rule 69 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, remedial statutory provisions and this Court's inherent equitable power to provide relief ancillary to its authority to redress remedy litigation misconduct, the Preliminary Injunction Order (Docket 229) shall continue to be in effect until the final judgement in this case is paid in full or until further Order of the Court.

10. Global Defendants shall transfer registration of the domain names of the Websites to Plaintiffs to display information to assist other potential victims of fraud to obtain remedies.

AWARD OF ATTORNEY FEES AND COSTS IN THIS CASE

11 The Court finds that pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 1964(c) Global Defendants are jointly and severally liable to Plaintiffs for attorney fees of $470,810.00 and costs of $10,637.14, which are reasonable and appropriate in light of the nature of the case.

POSTJUDGMENT INTEREST

12. The Court finds that Global Defendants are jointly and severally liable to Plaintiffs for postjudgment interest on the entire amount of judgment from the date of judgment at the statutory rate calculated pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1961(a).

FINAL JUDGMENT AWARD

Plaintiffs are awarded post-judgment injunctive relief, post-judgment interest and monetary damages in the total amount of $2,228,069.29, representing: (a) compensatory treble damages, statutory damages and prejudgment interest as of April 2, 2014 of $1,508, 925 01,

(b) trebled attorney fees incurred for the fraudulent bankruptcies of $222,675 00 and trebled bankruptcy costs of $ 15,022.14, (c) reasonable attorney fees of $470,810.00 and costs of $10,637 14

SUPERIOR COURT OF NEW JERSEY
LAW DIVISION UNION COUNTY

v

CIVIL ACTION

IRINIA KAPUSTINA, SERGEY
KAPUSTIN, GLOBAL AUTO, INC., and EFFECT AUTO SALES, INC.

OPINION

Defendants.

Decided November 10, 2014

Honorable James Hely, J.S.C.

This matter came before the court on a proof hearing which were held on April 17, 2014 and September 19, 2014. Plaintiff called as a witness Moshe Grant. Mr. Grant testified that he was a principal in an entity known as Dimension Automotive, LLC. The business of Dimension was the retail sale of used automobiles. During the time he was with Dimension, Mr. Grant entered into an agreement with Plaintiff DK International Inc. through its principal, Mr. Krivosheyev. The agreement provided that DK would provide funds for the purchase of vehicles by Dimension. When Dimension would sell those vehicles, Dimension would pay the acquisition cost plus one half of the profits from the sale of any vehicle.

In approximately November 2009, Mr. Grant discontinued the Dimension operations, and Grant began an association with Defendant Effect Auto Sales Inc. Grant was an officer and shareholder holder of that entity. Effect Auto Sales Inc. was in the business of selling used automobiles. Effect Auto Sales operates from the same premises as Global Auto Inc. Defendant Sergey Kapustin is the sole officer and shareholder of Global. Until Grant joined Effect Auto Sales, the sole owner of that entity was Defendant Irina Kapustina.

Defendant Grant testified that automobiles were regularly moved from Global and Effect and funds were regularly transferred between those two entities. Grant testified that in or around December 2009 his company, Dimension, and DK entered into an understanding whereby the automobiles that were in Dimensions possession purchased with DK funds would be reassigned to Global for sale. It was agreed that the acquisition cost of the vehicles that were paid for with DK funds was $210,045 This investment was memorialized in Plaintiff's Exhibit A.

Around November 2009, Grant and Krivosheyev met with Kapustin and Kapustina. It was agreed that the vehicles that had been purchased by DK International would be transferred to Global and that Global and/or Effect Auto Sales would sell the vehicles and pay DK the acquisition costs that DK had provided and one half the profit of the sales of the vehicles. According to Grant, the vehicles that were transferred were sold by Global and/or Effect Auto Sales.

Mr Grant acknowledged that DK was owed money from defendants Global and Effect Auto Sales. Although DK was paid a small amount for the DK investment, it was determined in September 2010 that DK was still owed $207,932.50 This figure was memorialized in Plaintiff's Exhibit C. Mr Grant testified that the Kapustin(a) defendants did not repay this amount, and Grant discontinued his association with the other defendants because he did not like the way they were conducting business.

The principal of DK International Trading Inc. testified. His name is Dmitry Krivosheyev. He is the sole shareholder of Plaintiff Corporation. He confirmed that he had arranged with Mr. Grant to purchase vehicles with Dimension and be reimbursed for the costs and then receive half of the profits. He testified that the original cost of the transferred vehicles was to $211,056. He produced cancelled checks and bank statements supporting this figure. He testified that he consented to transfer the vehicles from Dimension to Global with the same agreement; that is, DK would be reimbursed for its acquisition cost plus receive one half of the profits from the sale of the vehicles.

Mr. Krivosheyev testified that he visited the premises of Global and Effect where the Kupustins were operating. He was made aware that Global and Effect Auto Sales would exchange properties and money between the two entities. Indeed, plaintiff produced a check from an account entitled Global Auto Inc. doing business as Effect Auto Sales, and that sample check was admitted into evidence. When Mr. Krivosheyev demanded payment, he was told by the Kapustins that they were using his funds for another purpose and were unable to make a payment to DK. They did acknowledge their obligation to make the repayment.

Mr. Krivosheyev further determined that the Kapustins used the vehicles to obtain financing. Thus, when the vehicles were ultimately sold, there was little or no equity in the vehicles. This was done without the knowledge of DK or Mr. Krivosheyev.

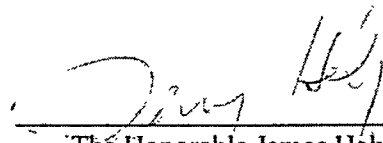

Mr. Krivosheyev testified that based upon some return payments that were made to him, the total amount due to his company was $207,930.50.

I find based upon the testimony offered at the proof hearing that Mr. Krivosheyev's company is entitled to judgment the amount $207,930.50 based upon the contractual arrangements that existed between his company and defendants Kapustins and Global and Effect. Also, the court finds that this amount is also appropriate based upon unjust enrichment.

I further find that the defendants individually and through the business entities perpetrated a fraud upon DK. They concealed from DK the fact that they were obtaining financing on the vehicles which placed a lien upon the vehicles, thereby diminishing the ultimate profit that DK was entitled to. There is no question that Global and Effect and the individual operators of these two entities, Mr Kapustin and Ms. Kapustina, were fraudulently concealing their operations from DK, and that they were intermingling the two corporations and taking money personally from the corporations. Therefore, I find both corporations and both individuals liable. Plaintiff's request for punitive damages under the circumstances is granted in the amount of $50,000

In sum, judgment shall be entered in the amount of $207,932.50 for compensatory damages plus pre-judgment interest from September 10, 2010 and costs of suit. Also, judgment in the amount of $50,000 in punitive damages shall be entered against both corporate defendants and both individual defendants for egregious conduct demonstrated at the proof hearing. There being no statutory provision permitting an attorney fee award, no judgment for attorney fees is entered.

Re: Izbastin v. Global Auto., Inc. et al.
Docket No. UNN-L-0514-13
Trial Date September 11, 2014

Dear Mr. Voitkevich and Mr. Dobis,

The trial of this case began on September 8, 2014, and concluded on September 11, 2014. The salient facts are not complicated. Plaintiff, Muhamed Izbastin, testified that he purchased a vehicle by way of the website of Defendant, Global Auto, Inc., the vehicle was never delivered and his purchase price never refunded. Plaintiff explained that the Global website contained information that was confusing and misleading, which caused him to purchase the vehicle. Specifically, Plaintiff testified that on May 9, 2012, he saw on the Global website an automobile being advertised that he wanted to purchase. According to the trial exhibits and testimony, the automobile was located in Defendant Global Auto's warehouse in Finland. However, before making the purchase, Plaintiff asked Defendant Vladimir Stein how long it would take to have the automobile delivered to Kazakhstan. The response was that the automobile could be delivered within twenty (20) days. Based upon the website information and the representation in an e-mail that the automobile could be delivered from Finland to Kazakhstan quickly¹, Plaintiff purchased the automobile which was never delivered. In fact, according to the trial testimony and exhibits, the automobile was at all times located in the United States, where it was eventually sold. Defendants never provided Plaintiff with any type of refund. According to Plaintiff's testimony, the purchase resulted in certain identified damages. Plaintiff testified credibly Defendants, Sergey Kapustin², Global Auto's owner, Irina Kapustin, his former wife, and Stein testified and presented Defendants' side of the story. The jury apparently found Plaintiff had proven his case by a preponderance of the evidence and returned a verdict (7 to 1) and awarded damages in the amount of $39,420.00. Defendants' oral application for a directed verdict and/or for a new trial was denied by the Court. The amount of the jury award was trebled by the Court as required by the New Jersey Consumer Fraud Act ("CFA"), N.J.S.A. 56:9-1 et. seq. In addition to the damages award at trial, the CFA allows for the recovery of reasonable attorney's fees, costs, and filing fees.

Defendants filed a timely notice for an order granting judgment notwithstanding the verdict pursuant to Rule 4:40-2, or, in the alternative, granting a new trial pursuant to Rule 4:49-1.

¹ According to the trial evidence, Plaintiff needed to have the automobile delivered to Kazakhstan before a pending tariff increase became effective. Any delay would result in a tariff increase of approximately $45,000.

² In the Court's opinion, based upon the factors set forth in Model Jury Charge 12K, Mr. Kapustin was not a very credible witness. Obviously he had an interest in the outcome of the case. He was also evasive in his responses.

Plaintiff filed an application seeking fees. Defendants countered by filing for bankruptcy. As a result, the matter was stayed by this Court.

Eventually, the bankruptcy matter was dismissed³ and counsel appeared for oral argument to address the post-trial motions.

Motion for Attorney's Fees

Plaintiff is requesting that the Court enter judgment for attorneys' fees in the amount of $54,425 and costs in the amount of $4,517.84 against the Defendants. Plaintiff argues that, based on the complexity of the case, his hourly rate of $350 and amount of hours worked (155.5) should be found reasonable. Plaintiff originally asked for $51,000, however, he supplemented his motion after the Defendant made a Motion for a Judgment Notwithstanding the Verdict (he added a request to be awarded for an additional 9.5 hours). The costs in this case include the client's airfare to the ³ Pursuant to Evidence Rule 201 (b) , the Court takes judicial notice of the reasons set forth in the Order of the Honorable Noel L. Hillman, U.S.D.J., which provides, in pertinent part, as follows:

Debtors failed to satisfy their burden that the bankruptcy petitions were filed in good faith based on the fact that:

- a. The petitions were filed for purpose of avoiding defending multiple actions for fraud and enforcement of judgements in different venues;
- b. The petitions were not truthful, accurate or complete. The statements in the petition and schedules were categorically wrong and sought to defy creditors' claims;
- c. The Debtors failed to amend schedules to provide full and complete information with regard to all assets and liabilities as ordered by the January 28, 2015 Court Order, nor did the Debtors seek extension of the deadline to comply with the Order;
- d. A substantial number of creditors might be victims of fraud;
- e. The corporate Debtors failed to fully comply with the Trustee's subpoena,
- f. The Debtor Sergey Kapustin selectively invoked his Fifth Amendment privilege against self-incrimination with regard to every question related to the bankruptcy petitions, schedules, or any information that could potentially be included in the bankruptcy petitions and schedules. Debtor, Sergey Kapustin's reliance on the Fifth Amendment privilege created an adverse civil inference against him because the admission would subject him to criminal liability; and
- g. The invocation of the Fifth Amendment rights is inconsistent with the orderly administration of the estates as the Debtor Sergey Kapustin shifted the expense of defending himself from the fraud claims to the Trustees.

United States and the hotel expenses during the trial. The costs were incurred so that Plaintiff could participate in the trial. Plaintiff is arguing that under the unique circumstances of this case, these two items should be included into the reasonable costs of the lawsuit.

The Defendants argue that $350 per hour is an exorbitant rate in view of the Plaintiff's experience. Additionally, Defendants argue that there is no basis for an award of costs, therefore, they should not be required to pay the airfare and hotel.

Motion for Judgment Notwithstanding the Verdict or New Trial

Defendants argue for a judgment notwithstanding the verdict, or in the alternative, a new trial. Defendant brings this motion on the basis (1) that Plaintiff failed to meet his burden of proof to establish that there had been a violation of the CFA, and (2) that the amount of the jury verdict was not only against the weight of the evidence, but contrary to the evidence with respect to Plaintiff's ascertainable loss. In regard to the first basis, he is specifically arguing that Plaintiff did not produce the complete information contained in the website.

Plaintiff responds by arguing that Defendants' argument is misplaced because he does not understand the meaning of "ascertainable loss" under the CFA. Plaintiff also argues that ascertainable loss is "any loss benefit of the bargain." D'Agostino v. Maldonado, 216 N.J. 168 (2013).

Legal Analysis

I. Motion for a New Trial

Pursuant to the provisions of Rule 4:49-1(a), a trial court may grant a new trial "if, having given due regard to the opportunity of the jury to pass upon the credibility of the witnesses, it clearly and convincingly appears that there was a miscarriage of justice under the law." According to the Supreme Court of New Jersey, a trial court may not vacate a jury verdict unless he or she determines “that the continued viability of the judgement would constitute a manifest denial of justice.” Baxter v. Fairmont Food Co., 74 N.J. 588, 597-98 (1977) The Appellate Division has instructed that “[a] jury verdict should be set aside only in cases of clear injustice.” Boryszewski v. Burke, 380 N.J. Super 361, 391 (2005). As such, a determination by a trial court under Rule 4:49-1 (a) must be “carefully reasoned and factually supported (and articulated),” and may be made only after the judge has “canvass[ed] the record and weigh[ed] the evidence.”

Additionally, the trial court’s function in deciding a motion for new trial is not merely mechanical. Instead, the court is to consider both tangible and credibility factors and the feel of the case to determine if the jury’s verdict was a clear error or mistake. Kita v. Borough of Lindenwold, 305 N.J. Super 43, 49 (App. Div. 1997). In Tronolone v. Palmer, 224 N.J. Super 92 (App. Div. 1988), the court addressed the standard for granting a new trial as to damages:

A motion for a new trial on damages should not be granted unless the damage verdict is so disproportionate to the injury and resulting disability as to shock the court’s conscience and convince it that to sustain the award would be manifestly unjust, that is, unless it clearly and convincingly appears that there was a miscarriage of justice under the law

Further, according to the Supreme Court of New Jersey, “[i]n analyzing whether a damages award is excessive, a trial judge’s review must be grounded substantially in the ‘totality of the evidence’ in the record, which is viewed in a light most favorable to the plaintiff.” Jastram ex rel. Jastram v. Kruse, 197 N.J. 216, 229

The standard for determining a motion for judgment notwithstanding the verdict pursuant to Rule 4:40-2 is the same as that governing the determination of a motion for involuntary pursuant to Rule 4:37-2(b), namely, the trial court must accept as true all the evidence which supports the position of the party defending against the motion and must accord that party the benefit of all legitimate inferences which can be deduced therefrom. Thus, if reasonable minds could differ, the motion must be denied. See Dolson v. Anastasia, 55 N.J. 2, 5-6 (1969).

Here, the Court has considered, in the light of these legal standards, the evidence introduced during trial by way of both testimony and exhibits and has concluded that upholding the jury verdict would not result in a manifest denial of justice when the record facts are considered in the light most favorable to the Plaintiff. The Court has carefully canvassed the trial record and has concluded that Defendants have not demonstrated clearly and convincingly that allowing the verdict to stand would be a miscarriage of justice. To the contrary based upon the salient facts set forth above, the Court finds that the verdict of the jury is far from a clear error or mistake, but is rationally supported by the record. As to the amount of the jury verdict, based upon the record, it appears to the Court that the jury carefully considered the evidence and decided upon a dollar figure that was well within the options available and far from being an amount that shocks the Court's conscience. To the contrary, the jury's decision was rationale based upon the evidence.

Defendants argue that Mercedes-Benz Credit Corp. v. Lotito, 328 N.J. Super 491 (App. Div. 2000) should control the Court's decision here. The Court, however, agrees with Plaintiff that the question from the jury verdict sheet at issue in Mercedes-Benz Credit Corp. and the reason that the Appellate Division remanded the case for a new trial is distinguishable from the case at bar, and that Defendants' reliance on that language is misplaced for several reasons.

First, the reversal in Mercedes-Benz Credit Corp. was based primarily on the trial court's mistakes made while charging the jury on liability and answering the jury's questions on that issue. Id. at 506 ("With respect to liability, the main problem in the charge was that it limited the jury's consideration of revocation to the express warranty"); Id. at 509 ("In light of these principles, and the judge's erroneous charge, which constituted plain error because it prejudiced [Plaintiff's] rights, we reverse the judgement on the breach of express and implied warranty, and remand for a new trial.”) That is not what happened in this matter. Here, the jury received clear instructions on liability and rationally returned a verdict finding that Defendants violated the CFA.

Second, with respect to the specific portion of the jury verdict sheet in Mercedes-Benz Credit Corp., upon which Defendants here rely upon (See Defendant’s Brief, at p. 2), Defendants fail to recognize the reason that the Appellate Division identified a problem with the verdict. Specifically, the appellate court stated in this regard. “Thus it is clear that question 6 did not frame the issue correctly since it failed to indicate that [Plaintiff] was entitled to damages in the amount he paid for the car. Moreover, the judge [erroneously] had charged the jury that on all issues [Plaintiff] had the burden of proof.” Id. at 509. In this case, nothing similar took place. Here, the jury, based upon the Court’s straightforward jury charge, deliberated and decided that Plaintiff was entitled to be compensated for the money he had paid for the automobile and for additional compensation of the lost benefit of the much cheaper tariff that was in place at the time Plaintiff paid for the vehicle. Also, unlike Mercedes-Benz Corp., the Court is not convinced that there was any issue with the burden of proof in this case.

Third, Mercedes-Benz Credit Corp. did not deal with the CFA. Fourth, and finally, in that case, unlike here, the verdict was appealed by the plaintiff, who claimed that the award was too low.

In this regard, the decision of the Supreme Court of New Jersey in City of Long Branch v. Jui Yung Liu, 203 N.J. 464 (2010) is of a greater importance to the case at bar. In that case, the jury had to decide the damages, including the value of the plaintiff’s house, in a condemnation action. The Supreme Court held that the new trial on the issue of damages was not justified. Id. The Supreme Court observed.

It is obvious that the jury made an independent calculation of the value of the Lius’ property ($1,450,000), rejecting the appraisals given by both the City’s expert ($927,000) and the Lius' expert ($2,680,000 without the FF & E). Our civil jury system places in ordinary citizens of varying experiences and backgrounds the responsibility of determining just compensation in a condemnation action. A jury verdict, although not sacrosanct, is entitled to great deference. A motion for a new trial or, alternatively, an additur, based on a claim that a jury award was against the weight of the evidence, should not be granted unless it "clearly and convincingly appears" that the award was so deficient that it constitutes a "miscarriage of justice." Id. at 492.

Defendants' argument here is also misplaced because it lacks understanding of what ascertainable loss is under the CFA. In D'Agostino v. Maldonado, supra, 216 N.J. 168, our Supreme Court observed what a plaintiff needs to establish in order to show ascertainable loss under the CFA. The Court in D'Agostino observed that New Jersey cases "distinguish between a plaintiff who case demonstrate no loss – be it an out-of-pocket loss or the loss of the value of his or her interest in property – and a plaintiff who can demonstrate that he or she has been deprived of the 'benefit of the bargain' because of a CFA violation." Id. at 190-191 (emphasis added) (internal citations omitted). The Court in D'Agostino described its understanding of the "ascertainable loss requirement" under the Consumer Fraud Act as "any lost benefit of the bargain." Id. at 191 (emphasis added) (citation and quotation marks omitted).

Here, Plaintiff was free to argue that, in addition to the value he paid to Defendants ($24,420 00), he sustained additional ascertainable loss in the form of the lost benefit. It was up to the jury to determine the amount of that ascertainable loss, based on all testimony they heard during trial. Under the holding of D'Agostino v. Maldonado, supra, Plaintiff was clearly justified to argue that he lost the benefit of the bargain because of the consumer fraud, committed by Defendants. The jury heard Plaintiff's testimony in this regard – that Plaintiff lost an opportunity to bring the car to Kazakhstan at the substantially lower rate and that because of the Defendant's conduct he lost another benefit of the bargain. an opportunity to use the car for the benefit of his family for over three years. The jury was free to accept or reject all or parts of the Plaintiff's testimony and to award additional damages to Plaintiff. There is clearly a valid basis under the jury verdict here.

Defendants here also cite Cavallo v. Hughes, 235 NJ Super 393 (App. Div.), implying that the jury here improperly mixed the issues of liability and damages. However, there is no evidence that the jury here reached a compromise verdict. The jury returned an overwhelming 8-0 verdict in Plaintiff's favor on the issues of Defendants' liability under the CFA (on two separate grounds). The jury did ask a question on whether the value of the automobile should be included into damages. Upon suggestion of defense counsel, the judge instructed the jury to rely on their own recollections of evidence. There is no indication that this case was a "close call on liability." In fact, the Court in Cavallo reached exactly the same conclusion. ("We see no evidence of a compromise verdict. This is not a case in which a close call on liability in favor of the plaintiff resulted in a low verdict on damages, thereby reflecting an improper compromise verdict.") Id. at 397. The Court in Cavallo noted that in that case "the jury's alleged error as to damages had no relationship to its consideration of the liability issue." Id. The Court held the "alleged low verdict in this case on the issues of medical expenses and lost wages at best resulted from the jurors' misperception that it was their function, as opposed to the judge's function, to reduce plaintiff's verdict by the percentage of fault attributed to him." Id. The plaintiff in Cavallo did not complain about the verdict, and the Court left the verdict unchanged. Likewise, here, the Court finds that there is no evidence of a compromise verdict, and the Court must, therefore, deny Defendants' motion for a new trial.

II. Plaintiff Clearly Met His Burden of Proof that Defendants Violated the Consumer Fraud Act.

Essentially, Defendants are trying to second-guess the jury's judgement and its function, which is, the Court agrees with Plaintiff, not appropriate. At the time of the trial, Plaintiff presented overwhelming credible evidence that Defendants, by means of their website and further communications, violated the CFA. Plaintiff testified that on or about May 9, 2011, he saw the subject automobile advertised on the Defendants' website. According to Plaintiff's testimony, supported by two screenshots of the web site introduced into evidence, the automobile was clearly advertised on the Defendants' website as located at the Defendants' warehouse in Finland. This information was of vital importance to Plaintiff. At trial, the jury determined that information was a misrepresentation, as Defendant Kapustin admitted that the automobile had never left the United States and was eventually sold in this country

Further, according to the trial evidence, right after Plaintiff located the subject vehicle on Defendants' website, he asked Defendants a straightforward question via email – "How long will it take for the vehicle to be delivered to Kazakhstan?" Defendants then lied to Plaintiff again, stating via email that they could deliver the car within 20 days. Defendant Kapustin testified at trial that it normally takes 60-70 days for a vehicle to be delivered from the United States for Kazakhstan. Plaintiff further testified that 20 days after he paid for the vehicle in full, the vehicle was still listed on the website as available for sale to other consumers.

The above trial testimony is just a fraction of testimony that the jury heard before it decided that Defendants violated the CFA. In the Court's opinion, it is immaterial that the Defendants' website contained "much more information" (Defendants' choice of words). Even if true, it does not immunize Defendants from liability under the Consumer Fraud Act.

Misrepresentations and omissions on the Defendants' website with regard to the subject car, were only a part of evidence presented to the jury, on the issue of violation of the Consumer Fraud Act. Plaintiff came forward with sufficient evidence to be submitted to the jury See Chattin v. Cape May Green, Inc., 216 NJ Super 618, 639-641 (holding that a jury is especially well suited to determine an advertisement's impact on an average consumer)

III. Motion for Attorney's Fees

Plaintiff argues that under N.J.S.A. 56.8-19, the Court must award attorneys' fees. N.J.S.A. 56.8-19 states, in pertinent, part that "the court shall also award reasonable attorneys' fees, filing fees and reasonable costs of suit." Defendants' only opposition to the motion is that the hourly rate sought is too high for an attorney of Plaintiffs' counsel's experience.

In light of the purpose of eliminating the very type of unconscionable business practice found by the jury during the trial in this matter, N.J.S.A. 56.8-19 essentially mandates that the Court award legal fees. See Cox v. Sears Roebuck & Co., 138 N.J. 2, 24 (1998) ("Although one purpose of the [CFA] is clearly remedial in that it seeks to compensate a victim's loss, the Act also punishes the wrongdoer by awarding a victim treble damages, attorneys' fees, filing fees, and costs.") and Cogar v. Monmouth Toyota, 331 N.J. Super 197, 211 (App. Div. 2000) (same). The Supreme Court of New Jersey discussed the important policy reasons behind the fee-shifting provisions of the CFA in Coleman v. Fiore Bros., Inc., 113 N.J. 594, 598 (1989):

A very powerful legislative policy supports the New Jersey Consumer Fraud Act. Our [past] Governor, then Assemblyman, Thomas Kean, sponsored the Act. Governor Cahill issued a press release on its enactment, which stated that he had signed into law "a bill giving New Jersey one of the strongest consumer protection laws in the nation." See Skeer v. EMK Motors, Inc., 187 N.J. Super 465, 471 (App. Div. 1982). The Governor's message emphasized.

[T]he bill provides a private right of action for consumers against those who violate the Consumer Fraud Act. Under this provision the consumer will be entitled to triple damages, reasonable attorney's fee, and reasonable costs of suit.

The Governor stated that this provision, in his opinion, will provide easier access to the courts for the consumer, will increase the attractiveness of consumer actions to attorneys and will also help reduce the burdens on the Division of Consumer Affairs. [Id. at 472.]

The CFA contemplates a dual process of enforcement, one funded publicly and one privately. If a consumer is injured by an unconscionable commercial practice, the Attorney General may take up the case, through the Division of Consumer Affairs, and vindicate the consumer's interest. In addition, if the Attorney General fails to act, the consumer may proceed under N.J.S.A. 56:8-19. That provision affords consumers the right to bring a private action "in any court of competent jurisdiction," and states that a successful claimant "shall" recover threefold damages plus fees and costs. The Appellate Division has concluded that although the Attorney General himself could not invoke the fee provisions under the Act, "the Legislature wanted the defendant in a private action to suffer a greater financial penalty and to assure that the financial cost to the private plaintiff was minimized and compensation maximized." Skeer v. EMK Motors, Inc., supra, 187 N.J. Super at 471 (emphasis added).

Here, there is no doubt in this Court's mind but that this case falls squarely into the parameters established by the Legislature in which attorneys' fees must be imposed. In determining what is "reasonable", the Court must look to Rule 4:42-9(b), as well as the Rules of Professional Conduct 1.5(a) which provides that to determine when fees should be awarded, and, if so the amount, this Court should consider the following factors. "1 Reasonableness of the hourly rate; 2 Amount of time reasonably expended, 3 Consideration of a reduction in fees, if the prevailing party achieved limited success in relation to the relief sought; and 4 Whether an enhanced fee should be awarded when counsel undertook the case on a contingent fee arrangement." Furst v. Einstein Moomjy, 182 N.J. 1, 22-23

In calculating a proper fee enhancement, the Supreme Court of New Jersey has ruled as follows "contingency enhancements in fee-shifting cases ordinarily should range between five and fifty-percent of the lodestar fee, with the enhancement in typical contingency cases ranging between twenty and thirty-five percent of the lodestar. Such enhancements should never exceed one-hundred percent of the lodestar, and an enhancement of that size will be appropriate only in the rare and exceptional case in which the risk of nonpayment has not been mitigated at all.” Rendine v. Pantzer, 141 N.J. 292, 343 (1995). See also Walker v. Giuffre, 209 N.J. 124, 156 (2012).

In opposition to Plaintiff’s motion, Defendants preliminarily attempt to attack the underlying judgment that resulted from the trial. For the reasons set forth above, in the Court’s opinion, those arguments are without merit and, therefore, are not applicable to Plaintiff’s post-judgment application. Under the CFA, the Court is to award attorneys’ fees to further intent of the Legislature, which is to deter fraudulent activities by salesmen, such as the very activities proven here. Furst, 182 N.J. at 23-24 (“In a consumer fraud action, the Legislature has recognized that the right of access to the courts is meaningless unless the injured party has the resources to launch a suit. Fee-shifting provides an incentive to competent counsel to undertake high-risk cases and to represent victims of fraud who suffer relatively minor losses.”). As the Appellate Division expressed long ago in Wisser v. Kaufman Carpet Co., 188 N.J. Super 574, 579 (1983)

We do not mean to inhibit the legislative policy of awarding reasonable attorney’s fees under the Consumer Fraud Act. That provision has the salutary purpose of promoting representation and therefore court access for consumer claims involving a minor loss to the individual plaintiff but a major gain to the community through ridding the marketplace of fraudulent and deceitful conduct. Thus, appropriate attorney’s fees under the Act may be allowed without regard to the amount involved in the underlying dispute.

At trial, the jury determined that the Defendants did, in fact, violate the CFA and engaged in unconscionable business practices. The Court must abide by N.J.S.A. 56 8-19 and award attorneys’ fees in favor of the Plaintiff. Cox, 138 N.J. at 24. The Court finds that the application for attorney’s fees is, for the most part, reasonable based on Plaintiff’s Counsel’s Certification in support of the motion. However, the Court has scrupulously reviewed that certification and determined that the hourly rate charged is not reasonable or appropriate in light of Plaintiff's counsel's training and experience. The Court concludes that the hourly rate of $300 00 an hour is more reasonable and appropriate based upon hourly rates submitted to the Court in other cases. Similarly, the time expended was necessary, reasonable and accurately documented. The entries disclose their time and purpose. The Court therefore finds that the total amount to be awarded in attorneys' fees is $49,500 (165 hours x $300 00 per hour). In the Court's opinion, Defendants' argument that the fees sought in light of the value and nature of the case is without merit for the reasons expressed in Artistic Lawn & Landscape v. Smith, 381 N.J. Super 75, 90 (Law Div. 2005) ("It is important in this discussion to remember that the defendant only accrued these fees as a result of the plaintiff suing him.") and Monogram Credit Card Bank v. Tennesen, 390 N.J. Super 123, 129 132-33 (App. Div. 2007) (Appellate Division affirming a trial court award of attorneys' fees in the amount of $23,102.27 following a judgment of $2,000 00 in a CFA case).

Conclusion

For the reasons set forth above, the Court denies the Defendant's Motion for Judgment Notwithstanding the Verdict, and awards Plaintiff attorney's fees in the amount of $49,500 00, plus $4,517 84 in costs.

Plaintiff's counsel is to submit an Order reflecting the Court's decision.
