

BEFORE THE FEDERAL MARITIME COMMISSION

FMC DOCKET NO. 20-09

MAC INDUSTRIES, INC. d/b/a MAC CONTAINER LINE,

Complainant,

vs.

COSCO SHIPPING LINES Co., Ltd.,

Respondent.

RESPONDENT'S MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME

Pursuant to Rule 71 of the Federal Maritime Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, 46 C.F.R. §502.71, Respondent COSCO Shipping Lines Co., Ltd. ("COSCO"), by and through its undersigned counsel, respectfully moves for a one-week extension of time to respond to the complaint in the above-captioned matter, so that the answer or other responsive pleading would be due on July 13, 2020.

Under the Commission's rules, Respondent's answer (or other responsive pleading) is due to be filed today. The parties are presently engaged in good faith negotiations to resolve the dispute that is the subject of the complaint and believe they are close to reaching agreement on an amicable resolution of the matter. Such an agreement, if reached, would eliminate the need for litigation.

The modest one-week extension should enable the parties to conclude the settlement negotiations and, in the event the parties are unable to finalize a settlement, would not unduly delay the proceeding.

As required by Rule 71(a), the undersigned has conferred with counsel for the complainant, who has authorized the undersigned to represent that complainant has no objection to this request.

WHEREFORE, Respondent respectfully requests that the motion for a one-week extension of the deadline to respond to the complaint be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

Wayne R. Rohde
