

FEDERAL MARITIME COMMISSION
Office of Administrative Law Judges

GOFORTH & MARTI D/B/A GM BUSINESS INTERIORS, Complainant

v.

HSIN SILK ROAD SHIPPING LTD., Respondent.

DOCKET NO. 22-16

Served: September 16, 2022

ORDER OF: Erin M. WIRTH, Chief Administrative Law Judge.

ORDER TO RESPOND TO COMPLAINT

On July 11, 2022, the Commission issued a Notice of Filing of Complaint and Assignment ("Notice"), advising Respondent HSIN Silk Road Shipping Ltd. ("HSIN") that a response to the complaint was due within 25 days. On July 13, 2022, an Order Designating Administrative Law Judge and an Initial Order were issued. The Initial Order required the parties to file a status report within 15 days of the service of Respondent's answer.

To date, no response has been filed by Respondent to the complaint and no status report has been filed. The Office of the Secretary reports that the Notice was emailed to Respondent and sent to it by FedEx, both on July 11, 2022. FedEx reports that the Notice was delivered to the receptionist/front desk and signed for by R. Chop on July 18, 2022.

If Respondent fails to respond to the Complaint, a default judgment may be issued against it for the full amount that Complainant is seeking, which is $74,000. Complaint at 4.

Respondent HSIN is hereby ORDERED to respond to the complaint in this proceeding by October 3, 2022. If Respondent fails to respond, Complainant should file a motion seeking a default decision by October 13, 2022. If the parties are able to resolve the issue, they should file a motion seeking approval of their settlement agreement and a copy of the settlement agreement.
