

FEDERAL MARITIME COMMISSION

IAN MILLS.,
Claimant

v.

CROWLEY LOGISTICS, INC.,
Respondent

INFORMAL DOCKET NO.
1995(I)

Served: June 6, 2023

NOTICE OF FILING OF SMALL CLAIMS COMPLAINT AND ASSIGNMENT

Notice is given that an informal complaint has been filed with the Federal Maritime Commission (Commission) by Ian Mills, hereinafter “Claimant,” against Crowley Logistics, Inc. hereinafter “Respondent.” The informal complaint was sent to Respondent by mail on the above date. On or before July 3, 2023, Respondent must file their response to the claims stated in the informal complaint.

Respondent must also state whether they consent to the adjudication of this matter under the informal procedures set forth under Subpart S of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (46 C.F.R. 502.301-305). Failure of Respondent to submit a timely response expressly refusing the informal procedure set forth in Rule 304 of Subpart S will be deemed, conclusively, to indicate consent to the informal procedure. Respondent must send a copy of the response to the Claimant at Claimant's address stated in the complaint.

This proceeding is assigned to the Chief Administrative Law Judge to designate a Small Claims Officer for a decision. All communications pertaining to this matter must include the subject Informal Docket No. 1993(I), Ian Mills v. Crowley Logistics, Inc., and should be submitted to judges@fmc.gov. Physical copies can be sent if needed; however, the Commission encourages email transmission to the greatest extent possible. Physical copies can be addressed to Small Claims Officer, Federal Maritime Commission, Office of Administrative Law Judges, 800 North Capitol Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20573-0001. Any other communication or inquiry concerning this proceeding should also be sent to judges@fmc.gov. A party must send a copy of any and all documents sent to the Small Claims Officer to every other party in the proceeding. A party filing documents must attach a statement certifying that the copies of the documents were sent to all other parties in the proceeding.
