RESPONDENTS.

MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME

Complainant China United Lines, Ltd. (“Complainant” or “China United”), by and through its undersigned counsel, hereby submits this Motion for Extension of Time. Pursuant to 46 C.F.R. § 502.102, motions for enlargement of time “may be granted upon a showing of good cause” if “received at least seven (7) days before the scheduled filing date.” China United respectfully acknowledges its request for an extension of time beyond the prescribed seven (7) day notice period for substantial completion of document production. However, the unforeseen challenges necessitating this request arose unexpectedly despite efforts to complete in accordance with the scheduling order.

Complainant respectfully requests that the Presiding Officer grant an enlargement of four (4) additional days, or until Friday August 15, 2025, to substantially complete its document production and respond to interrogatories and requests for production. Respondents do not object to this Motion for Extension of Time.

Courts enjoy “wide discretion in managing the discovery process.” George v. Allen Martin Ventures, LLC, et al., Case No. 21-2876, 2023 WL 2705776, at *4 (D.D.C. Mar. 30, 2023) (quoting 3E Mobile, LLC v. Glob. Cellular, Inc., 222 F. Supp. 3d 50, 53 (D.D.C. 2016)). Here, Complainant respectfully submits that good cause exists for granting the requested enlargement of time due to logistical difficulties with getting final approval for production, and the additional four days will not result in undue prejudice or delay to any party or affect any other deadlines in the scheduling order. Complainant requires this brief extension as meetings scheduled for today, August 11, 2025, for review and approval of the production had to be postponed due to unavailability of reviewing personnel at China United. This process for final review of the production necessitated logistical coordination across multiple time zones, specifically between China and the East Coast of the United States—which resulted in unplanned and unexpected need for the requested additional time to complete. Further, the parties also did not enter into a protective order until today, August 11, 2025. Granting this extension will advance judicial efficiency and facilitate comprehensive discovery, allowing Complainant to complete its production in accordance with the newly established protective order and with the requisite authority.

Complainant respectfully requests extension of the deadlines as follows:

Event	Current Deadline	Requested Deadline
Respond to Requests for Production and Interrogatories	August 11, 2025	August 15, 2025
Substantially Complete Document Production	August 11, 2025	August 15, 2025

For the reasons set forth above, Complainant respectfully requests that the Motion for Extension of Time be granted.

Dated: August 11, 2025
