

BEFORE THE
FEDERAL MARITIME COMMISSION

DOCKET NO. 25-04

CHINA UNITED LINES, LTD,

COMPLAINANT,
v.

AMAZON.COM SERVICES LLC,

AMAZON LOGISTICS INC. AND

BEIJING CENTURY JOYO COURIER SERVICE CO., LTD.

JOINT MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME

Complainant China United Lines, LTD (“China United” or “Complainant”) and Respondents Amazon.com Services LLC (“Amazon Services”), Amazon Logistics Inc. (“Amazon Logistics”), and Beijing Century Joyo Courier Service Co., Ltd. (“Beijing Century”) (collectively “Respondents”), by and through their undersigned counsel, hereby submit this Joint Motion for Extension of Time to permit an enlargement of time of the scheduling order (Dkt. 32) by sixty (60) days.

Pursuant to 46 C.F.R. § 502.102, motions for enlargement of time “may be granted upon a showing of good cause” if “received at least seven (7) days before the scheduled filing date.” The five (5) deadlines indicated below for which an extension of the current deadline is requested are all well within the seven-day requirement.

Good cause exists to grant the requested extension. The Parties have been actively engaged in document production, exchange of privilege logs, and follow-up letter exchanges raising document discovery disputes. The Parties are currently engaged in resolving discovery disputes, and have continued to make progress pushing forward with planning for fact witness depositions. On August 11, 2025, Amazon made its first document production. Amazon provided its supplemental production on September 12. China United provided its first production on August 15, and plans to make a second production during the week of September 22. In addition to engaging in document discovery, on August 19, the Parties participated in a full day in person mediation in an attempt to reach a settlement of the pending disputes.

The Parties met and conferred on Tuesday, September 16 to discuss document production and privilege log issues, and the current schedule of deadlines. Resolution of these disputes is essential to ensure that both Parties receive comprehensive discovery on the contested issues in this proceeding. As a result of the meet and confer on September 16, the Parties agreed to continue to work on resolving document and privilege log disputes, and to jointly file this Motion to request an extension of the current schedule.

In addition to time needed to resolve document discovery issues, the requested extension will allow the Parties to adequately plan for and conduct depositions of witnesses on an agreed schedule taking into account the need to accommodate witness schedules and potentially for depositions to take place in several different time zones. It will also align the scheduling of this case with that in the parallel case pending in the Southern District of New York allowing better coordination and providing efficiencies. The additional time will also allow for settlement discussions to take place. Moreover, the Parties agree the requested extension will not cause undue delay or cause any disadvantage to either side.

Thus, the Parties respectfully request an extension of the deadlines as follows:

Event	Current Deadline	Requested Deadline
Last Day for Fact Discovery and Depositions.	October 14, 2025	December 15, 2025
Last Day for Service of Requests for Admission.	October 21, 2025	December 22, 2025
Expert Reports Due. Joint Status Report with Proposed Schedule Due.	October 24, 2025	December 23, 2025
Expert Rebuttal Reports Due.	November 7, 2025	January 9, 2026
Close of All Discovery	November 20, 2025	January 23, 2026

Dated: September 19, 2025

Respectfully Submitted,

HOLLAND & KNIGHT LLP

/s/Vincent J. Foley

Vincent J. Foley

787 7th Avenue

New York, NY 10019

Telephone: (212) 513-3357

vincent.foley@hklaw.com

Counsel to Complainant, China United Lines, Ltd.

K&L GATES LLP

By: /s/ Michael F. Scanlon

Michael F. Scanlon

John Longstreth

Christiana K. Goff

1601 K Street, N.W.

Washington, DC 20006

(202) 778-9000; (202) 778-9100 (fax)

michael.scanlon@klgates.com

john.longstreth@klgates.com

christi.goff@klgates.com

Counsel for Respondents