FEDERAL MARITIME COMMISSION

Docket No. 25-04

CHINA UNITED LINES, LTD

v.

AMAZON.COM SERVICES, LLC,

AMAZON LOGISTICS, INC. AND

BEIJING CENTURY JOYO COURIER SERVICE CO., LTD.

STIPULATION AND JOINT MOTION TO ALIGN THE SCHEDULING ORDER IN THIS PROCEEDING WITH THE SCHEDULING IN THE PARALLEL ACTION IN THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

Pursuant to 46 C.F.R. Sections 502.69 and 502.102 of the Federal Maritime Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, Complainant China United Lines, Ltd ("Complainant" or "China United"), and Respondents Amazon.com Services, LLC ("Amazon Services"), Amazon Logistics, Inc. ("Amazon Logistics"), and Beijing Century Joyo Courier Service Co., Ltd ("Beijing Century") (collectively "Respondents"), by and through their undersigned counsel, hereby stipulate among themselves and submit this Joint Motion to Align Scheduling Orders ("Motion"), respectfully requesting an extension of the date for completion of fact discovery in Your Honor's Revised Scheduling Order, and a corresponding extension of the other dates, for the reasons stated herein. Rule 102(a) of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, 46 C.F.R. Section 502.102(a), provides in relevant part: "Motions for enlargement or reduction of time for the filing of any pleading or other document, or in connection with the procedures of subpart L of this part, may be granted upon a showing of good cause.” Good cause exists for the extension requested herein. Pursuant to the Revised Scheduling Order of September 22, 2025, the Parties have been working together to accomplish their discovery obligations. The Parties have continued to meet and confer by letter, and are engaged in resolving discovery disputes regarding attorney-client privilege and third-party information redactions in Amazon’s first two document productions. Amazon provided a substantial supplemental production on October 28, 2025, which China United is actively reviewing now. The Parties are also continuing their discussions regarding fact witness depositions and their scheduling.

This Proceeding runs alongside a companion case in the Southern District of New York: China United Lines, Ltd. v. Amazon.com Services, LLC, No. 1:23-cv-10313 (PKC) (the “New York Litigation”). The discovery in the two cases is already coordinated, given Your Honor’s direction that discovery in that first-filed New York action can be used in this proceeding. See Order Partially Granting Motion To Dismiss, at 23 (June 6, 2025)(“To reduce time and expense, the parties will be permitted to use in this proceeding any discovery produced in their companion cases.”). For example, each party has made each document production as a single production responding to discovery requests in both cases.

In the interest of the efficient conduct of these parallel matters, the Parties have also agreed to coordinate fact witness depositions between this proceeding and the New York Litigation. Absent unforeseen circumstances, the Parties envision each fact witness being deposed once, and have stipulated that the resulting testimony will be admissible in both cases.

Your Honor granted a previous extension in part to more closely align the schedules of the parallel matters. An additional extension is warranted here on the same basis. Currently, the deadline for completing fact witness depositions and other fact discovery in the New York

Litigation falls approximately one month after the deadline in this case, on January 22, 2026. The remaining deadlines for requests for admission and expert discovery trail concomitantly by 38 and 45 days. By this Motion, the Parties seek to align the deadlines in the Revised Scheduling Order with those in the New York Litigation, resulting in a 38 day extension of each deadline under the Revised Scheduling Order.

The Parties do not believe granting the requested relief will impose an undue burden on any Party or any unnecessary delay in this proceeding. The Parties anticipate aligning these schedules will reduce duplicities and increase efficiencies as they proceed. Moreover, China United recently retained new counsel. Granting the requested relief would provide counsel the opportunity to become familiar with the nuances of this proceeding, and to sufficiently prepare China United for fact witness depositions.

Pursuant to 46 C.F.R. Section 502.71, the Parties have met and conferred regarding this Motion and agree that the requested extension of the scheduling order is desirable and reasonable given the circumstances. The Parties jointly request the following amended schedule:

Event	Current Deadline	Requested Deadline
Last Day for Fact Discovery and Depositions.	December 15, 2025	January 23, 2026
Last Day for Services of Requests for Admission.	December 22, 2025	January 29, 2026
Expert Reports Due. Joint Status Report with Proposed Schedule Due.	December 23, 2025	January 30, 2026
Expert Rebuttal Reports Due.	January 9, 2026	February 16, 2026
Close of All Discovery	January 23, 2026	March 2, 2026

WHEREFORE, the Parties respectfully request that their Joint Motion to Align Scheduling Orders be granted.

Respectfully submitted,
