

FEDERAL MARITIME COMMISSION
Office of Administrative Law Judges

CHINA UNITED LINES, LTD., Complainant

v.

AMAZON.COM SERVICES LLC; AMAZON LOGISTICS INC.;
AND BEIJING CENTURY JOYO COURIER SERVICE CO., LTD., Respondents.

DOCKET NO. 25-04

Served: January 16, 2026

ORDER OF: Erin M. WIRTH, Chief Administrative Law Judge.

THIRD REVISED SCHEDULING ORDER

On January 15, 2025, the parties filed a joint motion seeking to revise the schedule (“Motion”). The parties have scheduled fifteen depositions in January and February, including of overseas witnesses. The parties have worked together to resolve scheduling disputes. Complainant also seeks additional time to exchange expert reports “due to the wealth of anticipated testimony, and the time needed to review and finalize expert reports thereafter.” Motion at 4. The schedule proposed by the parties is reasonable and is adopted.

Accordingly, the parties are hereby ORDERED to follow this third revised schedule:

February 13, 2026 Last day for fact discovery and depositions.

February 19, 2026 Last day for service of requests for admission.

March 16, 2026 Expert reports exchanged. Joint status report with proposed briefing schedule due.

April 13, 2026 Expert rebuttal reports exchanged.

April 27, 2026 Close of all discovery.

It is noted that two motions are currently pending: first, Complainant’s motion regarding attorney eyes only designations and second, Complainant’s motion for a protective order regarding a deposition occurring the day the motion was received by the Commission. The opposition to the second motion has not yet been received and is due next week. The parties should also notify the undersigned by January 23, 2026, if they have resolved any of the issues raised in these non-dispositive motions.

Erin M. Wirth
Chief Administrative Law Judge