BEIJING CENTURY JOYO COURIER SERVICE CO., LTD.

RESPONDENTS.

COMPLAINANT CHINA UNITED LINES, LTD.'S
MOTION FOR LEAVE TO FILE REPLY IN SUPPORT OF ITS MOTION TO COMPEL CORPORATE TESTIMONY

Complainant China United Lines, Ltd. (“China United”) respectfully moves for leave to file a Reply in support of its pending Motion to Compel Corporate Testimony, pursuant to the Commission’s inherent authority to manage its docket.

Good cause exists for permitting a Reply. Allowing a limited Reply will assist the Presiding Officer by clarifying the issues and ensuring a complete and accurate record for decision. Granting leave will not prejudice Respondents, as the proposed Reply is narrowly tailored to matters raised in the Opposition. Specifically, China United will address Respondents’ challenge to the relevance of marketing practices and similar contracts – which was also addressed in the opening brief, but mischaracterized by Respondents – as well as clarifying why China United is entitled to corporate testimony, as opposed to individual testimony. Further, Amazon conflates the discovery standard by requiring an explanation as to why information shows fraud, deceit, or concealment prior to providing the applicable testimony.

China United therefore respectfully requests leave to file the Reply, attached hereto as Exhibit A. The proposed reply is submitted concurrently herewith (or, alternatively, China United requests leave to file the reply within five days of the Commission’s order granting this motion).

Respectfully submitted,

Dated: February 13, 2026
