

FEDERAL MARITIME COMMISSION
Office of Administrative Law Judges

CHINA UNITED LINES, LTD., Complainant

v.

AMAZON.COM SERVICES LLC; AMAZON LOGISTICS INC.;
AND BEIJING CENTURY JOYO COURIER SERVICE CO., LTD.,
Respondents.

DOCKET NO. 25-04

Served: July 10, 2026

ORDER OF: Erin M. WIRTH, Chief Administrative Law Judge.

FOURTH REVISED SCHEDULING ORDER

On July 6, 2026, the parties filed a joint status report with proposed schedule (“JSR”). The parties differ on proposed next steps but agree upon a hearing and briefing schedule. The hearing and briefing schedule are reasonable and are adopted as requested by both parties.

Complainant China United Lines, Ltd. (“China United”) requests a deadline to request reconsideration of a June 12, 2026, order regarding privileged documents based on June 16, 2026, trial testimony in a related proceeding. China United also requests a revised deadline for the close of discovery. JSR at 1-4. Respondents request a deadline for China United to provide the discovery ordered in the June 12, 2026, order and request a deadline to file a motion for summary disposition. JSR at 5-10.

The prior schedule closed discovery on April 27, 2026. A number of discovery motions were filed by the parties and decided in a June 12, 2026, order, which also ordered China United to respond to a contention interrogatory. That response is due on July 20, 2026, and is important in explaining to Respondents and the undersigned the basis for China United’s argument that this case presents a Shipping Act claim. China United has not provided a sufficient reason to reopen discovery or allow a belated reconsideration of the June 12, 2026, order.

Typically, motions for summary disposition are disfavored after the close of discovery, especially for cases decided on the briefing. However here, China United’s theory of the case appears to have changed since the motion to dismiss was decided. Under this unusual situation, it appears that the matter may be resolved as a matter of law without determination of disputed facts. Therefore, time is provided for the parties to brief this narrow issue. Slightly less time is provided than requested as the motion should be focused just on issues that can be decided without determination of disputed facts.

Accordingly, the parties are hereby ORDERED to follow this fourth revised schedule:

July 20, 2026	Complainant respond to contention interrogatory.
August 7, 2026	Motion for summary disposition due.

August 28, 2026	Opposition to motion for summary disposition.
September 9, 2026	Reply to motion for summary disposition due.
October 16, 2026	Prehearing briefs due.
October 21, 2026	Hearing in Washington, DC.
November 23, 2026	Complainant's initial brief, proposed findings of fact, and appendix.
December 23, 2026	Respondents' opposition brief, responses to proposed findings of fact, proposed findings of fact, and appendix.
January 7, 2027	Complainant's reply and responses to proposed findings of fact.

Erin M. Wirth
Chief Administrative Law Judge