Docket No. 25-05

MAERSK
9300 Arrowpoint Blvd
Charlotte, NC 28273

Respondents.

First Respondent, for answer to the Complaint in this proceeding, states as follows:

- II. (a) There is no entity named “Ejike Dickson Eze, dba Ejike International Trade Limited”. First Respondent thus denies the entire allegations in Paragraph II (a) and denies same allegations to the extent it makes claims against Ejike Dickson Eze, individually, and demands strict proof thereof.

(c) First Respondent is without sufficient knowledge to admit or deny the allegations in Paragraph II (c) of the Complaint, therefore denies same and demands strict proof thereof.

(d) First Respondent is without sufficient knowledge to admit or deny the allegations in Paragraph II (d) of the Complaint, therefore denies same and demands strict proof thereof.

III. First Respondent admits the Jurisdiction of the Commission in matters of the type alleged in this Complaint but denies the Jurisdiction of the Commission herein given that the Statute of Limitation has expired in the alleged claims.

IV. A. Mr. Ejike Dickson Eze denies that he entered into written agreement with Complainant and thus denies the allegation in this Paragraph of the Complaint.

B. First Respondent is without sufficient knowledge to admit or deny the allegations in this Paragraph of the Complaint, therefore denies same and demands strict proof thereof.

C. First Respondent is without sufficient knowledge to admit or deny the allegations in this Paragraph of the Complaint, therefore denies same and demands strict proof thereof.

D. First Respondent is without sufficient knowledge to admit or deny the allegations in this Paragraph of the Complaint, therefore denies same and demands strict proof thereof.

E. First Respondent is without sufficient knowledge to admit or deny the allegations in this Paragraph of the Complaint, therefore denies same and demands strict proof thereof.

F. First Respondent is without sufficient knowledge to admit or deny the allegations in this Paragraph of the Complaint, therefore denies same and demands strict proof thereof.

G. First Respondent is without sufficient knowledge to admit or deny the allegations in this Paragraph of the Complaint, therefore denies same and demands strict proof thereof.

H. First Respondent is without sufficient knowledge to admit or deny the allegations in this Paragraph of the Complaint, therefore denies same and demands strict proof thereof.

I. First Respondent is without sufficient knowledge to admit or deny the allegations in this Paragraph of the Complaint, therefore denies same and demands strict proof thereof.

J. First Respondent is without sufficient knowledge to admit or deny the allegations in this paragraph of the Complaint, therefore denies same and demands strict proof thereof.

K. First Respondent is without sufficient knowledge to admit or deny the allegations in this Paragraph of the Complaint, therefore denies same and demands strict proof thereof.

L. First Respondent is without sufficient knowledge to admit or deny the allegations in this Paragraph of the Complaint, therefore denies same and demands strict proof thereof.

M. First Respondent is without sufficient knowledge to admit or deny the allegations in this Paragraph of the Complaint, therefore denies same and demands strict proof thereof.

N. First Respondent is without sufficient knowledge to admit or deny the allegations in this Paragraph of the Complaint, therefore denies same and demands strict proof thereof.

O. First Respondent admits that he has been assisting in getting the Container re-exported to Freetown, Sierra Leone, and the process continues.

P. First Respondent denies all the violation the Complainant alleged in paragraph P of the Complaint and demands strict proof thereof.

Q. First Respondent denies the allegations in paragraph Q of the Complaint and demands strict proof thereof.

AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

I. As for the First Affirmative Defense, First Respondent states that the Complainant claims are barred by the Statutes of Limitation pursuant to 46 CFR § 502.302. As the Complainant clearly stated in his complaint, the alleged Claims accrued since July 12, 2021. See paragraph IV, subparagraph J of the Complaint. The Complainant filed his Complaint on or about March 8, 2025, months well beyond the three years allowed to file said Complainant. First Respondent thus moves that the Complainant be dismissed.

WHEREFORE First Respondent prays the Commission to enter judgment in his favor, dismissing Complainant's claims in whole.

Respectfully submitted, this the 07 day of April, 2025

Ejike Dickson Eze
