

BEFORE THE FEDERAL MARITIME COMMISSION

MRS. NANCY PRIOR, Complainant,

v.

AMOOV GROUP, FREIGHTLEAD LLC, and AIR 7 SEAS TRANSPORT LOGISTICS, INC.,
Respondents.

DOCKET NO. 26-02

COMPLAINANT'S FIRST AMENDED COMPLAINT AND REQUIRED STATUS REPORT

Complainant Mrs. Nancy Prior submits this First Amended Complaint and Status Report to comply with 46 C.F.R. § 502.66 and the Initial Order from January 22, 2026. This filing is made today, February 6, 2026, taking into account the federal government shutdown that occurred from Jan 31 to Feb 3.

I. SHIPMENT STATUS The household goods mentioned in my original complaint were finally picked up on December 26, 2025. I am amending my complaint to show the property has been recovered, but I am still pursuing this case for financial reparations.

II. REPARATIONS I am seeking total reparations of $21,419.64. This includes costs for emergency warehouse storage, moving fees, and mitigation expenses caused by the four-month delay. It also includes compensation for items that were destroyed while in the Respondents' possession.

III. CADRS MEDIATION (46 C.F.R. § 502.64) Per the Initial Order, I contacted the Office of Consumer Affairs and Dispute Resolution Services (CADRS) on February 6, 2026. Currently, there is no agreement between the parties to mediate, but I am open to the process.

IV. HEARING REQUEST Under Instruction 40, I am requesting an oral hearing to be held in Fort Lauderdale, FL, or by video conference. I propose that discovery be finished within 150 days of the date the Respondents file their answers.

V. CONCLUSION I ask the Judge to allow this case to move forward to the next stage. I contacted the Respondents before filing this to confer as required by the Order.

Respectfully,

/s/ Nancy Prior, Complainant Pro Se
