
BEFORE THE FEDERAL MARITIME COMMISSION
WASHINGTON, D.C.

NANCY PRIOR,
Complainant,

v.

AMOOV GROUP; FREIGHTLEAD LLC; AND
AIR 7 SEAS TRANSPORT LOGISTICS, INC.,
Respondents.

DOCKET NO. 26-02

RESPONDENT AIR 7 SEAS TRANSPORT LOGISTICS, INC.'S VERIFIED ANSWER TO FORMAL COMPLAINT AND
ITS AMENDMENT FILED FEBRUARY 6, 2026

Respondent Air 7 Seas Transport Logistics, Inc. ("Air 7 Seas" or "Respondent"), by and through its undersigned representative, hereby answers the Formal Complaint and its Amendment filed February 6, 2026 of Nancy Prior ("Complainant") as follows:

I. PARTIES AND APPEARANCE

1. Air 7 Seas is a licensed Ocean Transportation Intermediary with principal place of business at 1815 Houret Court, Milpitas, California 95035, FMC Org No. 008295.
2. Air 7 Seas appears in this proceeding through its duly appointed officer and CEO set forth below:

Surya Dhamija
CEO

Air 7 Seas duly authorized legal representative is:

Law Offices of Countryman & McDaniel
Byron Edward Countryman, Esq.
5016 Chesebro Road, Suite 105

Agoura Hills, CA 91301
Tel: (310) 342-6500
Email: bec@cargolaw.com

3. A Notice of Appearance was filed previously on February 19, 2026 by Air 7 Seas legal representative, Byron Edward Countryman of Countryman & McDaniel. Complainant was notified as required by law.

II. ANSWER TO ALLEGATIONS

Air 7 Seas responds to the numbered paragraphs of the Formal Complaint as follows. To the extent any allegation is not expressly admitted herein, it is denied.

Section 1 – Complainant

1. Respondent admits, upon information and belief, that Complainant is an individual residing in Fort Lauderdale, Florida. Respondent lacks knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to any additional personal details and therefore denies them to that extent.
2. Respondent admits, upon information and belief, that Complainant is the owner of the household goods shipment at issue.
3. Respondent denies the allegation that Complainant “has suffered direct economic and property loss due to Respondents’ coordinated refusal to release her goods” and specifically denies that any such loss was caused by unlawful or coordinated conduct by Air 7 Seas.

Section 2 – Respondents

4. Respondent admits its legal name, address, and FMC organization number as stated in the Complaint.
 5. Respondent is without sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the precise legal status, address, or licensing details of AMOOV Group and FreightLead LLC and therefore denies those allegations to that extent.

Section 3 – Jurisdiction and Legal Authority

6. Respondent admits that the Federal Maritime Commission has jurisdiction over complaints properly brought under the Shipping Act of 1984. Respondent denies any implication that it has violated the Shipping Act.
7. Respondent admits that it is a licensed OTI subject to the Commission's jurisdiction and regulatory oversight. Respondent denies that it has engaged in any unjust or unreasonable practices within the meaning of 46 U.S.C. § 41102(c).

Section 4 – The Matter Complained Of (Factual Allegations)

8. Respondent admits that in or about July 2025 Complainant's household goods were shipped for transit to the United States and that the shipment arrived at a port in Florida in or about August 2025. Respondent further states that it was retained by AMOOV Group solely to provide storage and final delivery services at destination at the request and instruction of AMOOV Group. Respondent did not issue or receive the operative master or house bill of lading for this shipment. Respondent denies any allegation inconsistent with this limited role. The limited role was making arrangements at the instruction of AMOOV Group to temporarily store Complainant's Goods and also then to make arrangements for transportation of Complainant's Goods after arrival. The instruction from AMOOV Group was to release the freight upon payment.
9. Respondent denies that it refused to provide or disclose an operative, unredacted master bill of lading. Respondent states that it never received the master bill of lading or any original transport document for the shipment from AMOOV Group or FreightLead LLC as it was not part of the Ocean shipment. Accordingly, Respondent was not named on any Bill of Lading relative to Complainant's Ocean shipment.
10. Respondent states that as a destination service provider retained and instructed by AMOOV Group, it made arrangements to have the Goods sent to storage for a period of time where the shipment remained. AMOOV Group requested the shipment of Goods be held in storage because AMOOV Group had yet to be paid. Such is an occurrence resulting regularly and such instructions given so that the Goods do not leave the warehouse and the warehouse charges not paid. Respondent denies that it unlawfully "withheld" the shipment. Any temporary hold or delay in delivery was undertaken in accordance with the instructions and arrangements made by AMOOV Group as the contracting party, and not due to any independent effort by Air 7 Seas to collect unrelated debts or exert improper leverage over Complainant. Respondent states that the shipment was released and retrieved by Complainant on or about December 26,

2025 when Complainant finally paid the fees.

11. Respondent is without sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to Complainant's allegations of "irreparable harm" and the claimed risk of permanent loss of personal effects, and therefore denies those allegations. Respondent specifically denies that any such harm was caused by any unjust or unreasonable practice of Air 7 Seas.

Section 5 – Alleged Violations of the Shipping Act

12. Respondent denies that it "failed to observe just and reasonable practices" within the meaning of 46 U.S.C. § 41102(c).
13. Respondent denies that it subordinated the delivery of Complainant's goods to any improper "debt collection effort" or that its conduct violated the Shipping Act or any "Incentive Principle." Respondent states that it acted reasonably, in good faith, and consistent with its obligations, its limited role as a storage and delivery provider, and applicable tariffs, contracts, and industry standards.

Section 6 – Damages & Relief Sought

14. Respondent denies that Complainant is entitled to reparations in the amount of $1,036,500, or in any amount, from Air 7 Seas.
15. Respondent denies that any economic or property losses claimed by Complainant were caused by Air 7 Seas or by any unjust or unreasonable practice of Air 7 Seas.
16. Respondent acknowledges as informed by Complainant that Complainant's shipment was released and retrieved on or about December 26, 2025. Accordingly, Respondent asserts that Complainant's request for injunctive relief compelling release of the shipment and disclosure of documents is refuted and moot as to Air 7 Seas as a matter of law. At all times, Air 7 Seas acted reasonably and pursuant to normal business practice.
17. To the extent Complainant now alleges that she seeks reparations in the reduced amount of approximately $21,419.64 for alleged emergency warehouse fees, additional moving fees, mitigation costs, and property damage, Respondent denies liability and puts Complainant to strict proof of each claimed item, its amount, and causation.

Section 7 – Request for Oral Hearing

18. Respondent takes no position at this time on Complainant's request for an oral hearing and reserves the right to be heard and to present evidence and argument at any hearing the Commission may order and though does request hearing in the County of Santa Clara, State of California or by video conference which likely would be most reasonable to all.

III. AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

Without admitting any allegation not expressly admitted above, and without shifting any burden of proof, Air 7 Seas asserts the following affirmative defenses, each separately and cumulatively:

1. Failure to State a Claim
The Complaint fails to state a claim against Air 7 Seas upon which relief can be granted under 46 U.S.C. § 41102(c) and applicable precedent.
 2. Just and Reasonable Practices
At all relevant times, Air 7 Seas maintained and applied just and reasonable regulations and practices relating to or connected with the receiving, handling, storing, and delivering of property in its limited role as storage and delivery provider.
 3. Limited Role; No Contract with Complainant Regarding Carriage
Complainant's contractual relationship, if any, regarding the international carriage of the goods and the issuance and control of bills of lading was with AMOOV Group and/or FreightLead LLC, not with Air 7 Seas. Air 7 Seas was engaged solely to provide storage and delivery related services through vendors at destination at the request of AMOOV Group and acted within that limited scope.
 4. Lack of Causation
Any alleged losses, costs, or damages were not caused by any act or omission of Air 7 Seas but, to the extent they occurred, were caused by acts, omissions, or disputes between other respondents or third parties, including but not limited to AMOOV Group and FreightLead LLC, and/or by Complainant's own actions or decisions.
 5. No Control Over Bills of Lading or Release Conditions
Air 7 Seas did not issue or receive the operative bill(s) of lading for the shipment and had no authority to alter or disregard release conditions set by the contracting OTI(s). To the extent any documentation was not provided, that circumstance was beyond the control of Air 7 Seas and not related in any way to the responsibilities of or the services to be provided by Air 7 Seas nor was any provision of any Act violated.

6. Failure to Mitigate

Complainant failed to take reasonable steps to mitigate her alleged losses, and any recovery must be reduced or barred accordingly.

7. Excessive and Speculative Damages

The damages claimed are excessive, speculative, and not reasonably foreseeable in relation to any conduct of Air 7 Seas.

8. Contractual and Tariff Limitations

Complainant's claims are subject to and limited by the terms and conditions of any applicable bills of lading, service contracts, tariffs, or other agreements, including but not limited to limitations of liability, notice requirements, and time limitations, to the extent such terms apply to Air 7 Seas in its limited role.

9. Mootness of Non-Monetary Relief

Because the shipment and associated documentation have already been released and retrieved, Complainant's claim for injunctive or specific relief relating to release of goods or documents is moot as to Air 7 Seas or any party for that matter.

10. Other Defenses

Air 7 Seas reserves the right to assert additional defenses as may become known through discovery or further investigation.

IV. PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Respondent Air 7 Seas Transport Logistics, Inc. respectfully requests that the Federal Maritime Commission:

1. Dismiss the Complaint with prejudice as to Air 7 Seas;
 2. Deny all requests for reparations, attorney's fees, and other relief against Air 7 Seas;
 3. Award Air 7 Seas its costs of this proceeding as allowed by law; and
 4. Grant such other and further relief as the Commission deems just and proper.
