

BEFORE THE FEDERAL MARITIME COMMISSION

DOCKET NO. 26-02

NANCY PRIOR,

Complainant,

v.

AMOOV GROUP, FREIGHTLEAD LLC, and AIR 7 SEAS TRANSPORT LOGISTICS, INC.,

Respondents.

COMPLAINANT'S MOTION TO COMPEL PROPER DISCOVERY RESPONSES FROM RESPONDENT AIR 7 SEAS TRANSPORT LOGISTICS, INC.

Pursuant to 46 C.F.R. § 502.141, Complainant Nancy Prior respectfully moves the Commission for an Order compelling Respondent Air 7 Seas Transport Logistics, Inc. (hereinafter "Air 7 Seas") to provide complete, non-evasive discovery responses and to produce critical business records that have not been produced in discovery.

I. PROCEDURAL HISTORY AND MEET-AND-CONFER COMPLIANCE

1. On April 27, 2026, Complainant properly served her First Set of Discovery Requests (Interrogatories and Requests for Production) on Respondents (see Exhibit A). Pursuant to 46 C.F.R. § 502.141, Respondent Air 7 Seas' written answers and objections were legally due within thirty (30) days of service, making the filing deadline Wednesday, May 27, 2026.

2. On Wednesday, May 27, 2026, at 9:55 PM ET, counsel for Air 7 Seas served its responses to Complainant's First Set of Interrogatories and Requests for Production via email. Upon review, Complainant identified a material deficiency concerning the financial records allegedly supporting the $22,580.00 demand imposed as a condition of release of her household goods.
3. On Thursday, May 28, 2026, pursuant to 46 C.F.R. § 502.141(j), Complainant initiated a good-faith meet-and-confer effort by email, identifying the deficiency and requesting that Respondent produce the missing accounting records or otherwise resolve the contradiction by June 1, 2026, at 5:00 PM ET (See Exhibit C).
4. Respondent Air 7 Seas acknowledged Complainant's meet-and-confer correspondence and indicated that it expected to provide a further response. However, as of the June 1, 2026 deadline identified in Complainant's correspondence, Respondent had neither produced the requested accounting records nor resolved the identified discovery deficiency. Accordingly, the parties are at an impasse, Complainant's good-faith administrative obligations are satisfied, and Commission intervention is necessary.

II. LAW AND ARGUMENT

A. Respondent Cannot Withhold Core Financial Records by Stating They Have "Not Been Located Yet"

Commission Rule 46 C.F.R. § 502.141 requires a responding party to produce all responsive documents and electronically stored information (ESI) within its possession, custody, or control. A responding party must conduct a reasonable and diligent search for responsive records and provide complete discovery responses.

Respondent Air 7 Seas provided the following response to Request for Production No. 5:

"Answer: The invoice for $22,580 has not been located yet. Will be produced when found."
(Exhibit B).

This response is incomplete and leaves the request unresolved. Air 7 Seas demanded payment in excess of $22,500 as a condition for the release of Complainant's household goods. Yet when asked to produce the records supporting that demand, Respondent stated only that the invoice had "not been located yet."

At the same time, Respondent produced contemporaneous business correspondence demonstrating that personnel consulted the company's finance department regarding the amount allegedly owed. Specifically, on December 16, 2025, Respondent's representative informed Complainant that he had "checked with my finance team" and reported an outstanding balance of $22,515.00. (See Exhibit D). Although different communications reflected slightly different totals, including approximately $22,580.00 and $22,515.00, both figures relate to the same outstanding demand imposed as a condition of release.

These circumstances raise a reasonable question as to whether responsive accounting records, invoices, ledgers, or financial reports exist and, if so, whether Respondent conducted a sufficiently diligent search for those records. A party may not indefinitely postpone production by stating that responsive documents will be produced "when found."

If records supporting the demand exist, Respondent should be compelled to produce them. If no such invoice, ledger, accounting record, or financial report exists, Respondent should be required to state that fact under oath rather than provide an open-ended and unresolved response.

III. CONCLUSION AND RELIEF SOUGHT

Because Respondent Air 7 Seas has failed to produce the foundational financial documentation used to justify the withholding of Complainant's shipment, and has declined to resolve the clear inconsistencies in its production, Complainant is unable to properly proceed with discovery.

WHEREFORE, Complainant Nancy Prior respectfully requests that the Commission:

1. GRANT this Motion to Compel;
2. ORDER Respondent Air 7 Seas Transport Logistics, Inc. to conduct a reasonable and diligent search and produce the original invoice, accounting ledgers, or internal financial reports supporting the $22,580.00 demand within seven (7) days, or alternatively state under oath that no such business records exist; and
3. GRANT any such further relief as the Commission deems just and proper.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Nancy Prior

Subject: Meet and Confer Notice: Deficiencies in Air 7 Seas Discovery Responses - Docket No. 26-02

Dear Mr. Countryman,

I am in receipt of Air 7 Seas' responses to my First Set of Interrogatories and Requests for Production, served at 9:50 PM on May 27, 2026.

Pursuant to 46 C.F.R. § 502.141(j), please consider this email my formal request to meet and confer via email regarding clear omissions and material contradictions in your client's production. Specifically:

1. Contradictory and Incomplete Responses (RFP No. 5 & Interrogatory No. 4): Your written responses state under oath that the underlying billing records and original invoice supporting the $22,580.00 demand "has not been located yet." However, your production under RFP No. 1 includes specific email correspondence detailing this exact calculated demand. Please resolve this contradiction and produce the formal underlying accounting ledger or original invoice that generated this specific figure.

Please provide these missing ledger entries/invoices by Monday, June 1, 2026, at 5:00 PM ET. If this critical production is not completed by the deadline, I will consider the parties at an impasse and will proceed with a Motion to Compel.

Sincerely,

Nancy Prior
