

FEDERAL MARITIME COMMISSION
Office of Administrative Law Judges

NANCY PRIOR, Complainant

v.

AMOOV GROUP; FREIGHTLEAD LLC; AND AIR 7 SEAS
TRANSPORT LOGISTICS, INC., Respondents.

DOCKET NO. 26-02

Served: June 30, 2026

ORDER OF: Alex M. CHINTELLA, Administrative Law Judge.

ORDER SETTING STATUS CONFERENCE

On June 2, 2026, Complainant filed motions to compel discovery responses from respondents Freightlead LLC and Air 7 Seas Transport Logistics, Inc. Dkt. 25 and 26. According to Complainant, Respondents have failed to produce documents, to serve written responses to requests for production, to assert valid objections, and have provided answers that contradict documents they have produced.

In my Initial Order [Dkt. 6], I instructed the parties to file a joint status report in the event of an unresolved discovery dispute, prior to filing a motion to compel, so that I may schedule a status conference for the purpose of understanding the parameters of the dispute and, if possible, either resolving it or narrowing it for the purpose of minimizing the burden of any motion to compel that might be necessary. It does not appear that complainant complied with this requirement.

In order to ensure the proper use of the Commission's discovery procedures, compliance with the Commission's rules and my orders, and to narrow the scope of any discovery disputes, the parties are hereby ORDERED to appear for a discovery conference pursuant to Commission Rule 141(i)(1) on Thursday, July 30, 2026, at 1:00 PM EDT. The conference will be held by videoconference – counsel will receive a link from judges@fmc.gov.

The parties should be prepared to discuss the following topics: the specific information that is purportedly missing from Respondents' productions; the extent to which Respondents have searched for this information and whether it has been found; the extent to which any missing information might be in the possession of third parties and the identity of those parties; the specific obstacles to producing the information; and any objections to producing the information. Counsel should also be prepared to discuss the schedule for completing discovery.

SO ORDERED.
