NANCY PRIOR, Complainant

v.

AMOOV GROUP; FREIGHTLEAD LLC; AND AIR 7 SEAS
TRANSPORT LOGISTICS, INC., Respondents.

DOCKET NO. 26-02

Served: June 30, 2026

ORDER OF: Alex M. CHINTELLA, Administrative Law Judge.

ORDER DENYING COMPLAINANT’S MOTION TO STRIKE

On June 29, 2026, Complainant filed a motion to strike respondent Air 7 Seas Transport Logistics, Inc.’s opposition to Complainant’s motion to compel. Air 7 Seas Transport had previously filed a motion seeking leave to file its opposition to Complainant’s motion to compel [Dkt. 26] out of time. Dkt. 29. Complainant filed her opposition to that motion on June 22, 2026. Dkt. 30.

Commission Rule 71 requires a party to confer prior to filing any non-dispositive motion, including a motion to strike. 46 C.F.R. § 502.71(a). Complainant’s motion to strike does not indicate that she attempted to confer with Air 7 Seas Transport’s counsel prior to filing her motion. In addition, there is generally no need to file a motion to strike a filing that is the subject of a motion to file out of time – the arguments for and against filing out of time will be addressed in the order resolving that motion, and a motion to strike simply duplicates prior arguments and needlessly expands the volume of filings.

Accordingly, Complainant’s motion to strike is DENIED, and Complainant is cautioned that any further non-dispositive motions filed prior to satisfying Rule 71 will be similarly denied.
