

BEFORE THE FEDERAL MARITIME COMMISSION

DOCKET NO. 26-02

NANCY PRIOR,

Complainant,

v.

AMOOV GROUP, FREIGHTLEAD LLC, and AIR 7 SEAS TRANSPORT LOGISTICS, INC.,

Respondents.

SECOND AMENDED COMPLAINT

Complainant Nancy Prior, acting pro se, files this Second Amended Complaint against Respondents AMOOV Group, FreightLead LLC (“FreightLead”), and Air 7 Seas Transport Logistics, Inc. (“Air 7 Seas”) pursuant to 46 C.F.R. § 502.66 and the Presiding Officer’s Order dated June 30, 2026. This operative pleading completely restates, clarifies, and supersedes all prior complaints in this proceeding.

I. PARTIES AND JURISDICTION

1. Complainant Nancy Prior is an individual currently residing at 510 SE 5th Ave., Apt. 1212, Fort Lauderdale, FL 33301. Complainant’s telephone number is 954.292.9966 and email address is nancyrprior@gmail.com.
2. Respondent AMOOV Group (operating as AMOOV FR on behalf of AMOOV Group Limited) is an international freight forwarder and shipping logistics provider with a registered business address at 20 Rue des Jardins, 59800 Lille, France (SIRET: 87953065700011; VAT/TVA: FR20879530657), and primary operational coordination email addresses at alexandre.auzanet@amoovgroup.com and connect@amoovgroup.com. AMOOV Group Limited, the parent entity, maintains a registered address at Unit 503, 5/F Beverly Commercial Centre, 87-105 Chatham Road South, Tsim Sha Tsui South, Kowloon, Hong Kong. AMOOV Group contracted with Complainant as the primary freight forwarder responsible for coordinating the international carriage of Complainant's shipment from Luxembourg to Fort Lauderdale, Florida, with port of entry at Miami, Florida.

3. Respondent FreightLead LLC is an FMC-licensed and bonded Non-Vessel-Operating Common Carrier (NVOCC) operating under FMC Organization No. 028157 and FMC License No. 028157NF (with a current regulatory renewal date of 07/31/2027), maintaining its full corporate address and operational headquarters at 20 E Halsey Road, Parsippany, NJ 07054, United States.
4. Respondent Air 7 Seas Transport Logistics, Inc. is an FMC-licensed and bonded Non-Vessel-Operating Common Carrier (NVOCC) operating under FMC Organization No. 008295 and FMC License No. 002724 (with a current regulatory renewal date of 04/30/2029), maintaining its full corporate address and operational headquarters at 1815 Houret Court, Milpitas, CA 95035, United States.
5. The Commission has personal and subject-matter jurisdiction over this dispute pursuant to 46 U.S.C. §§ 41102(c), 41301, and 41305, as well as 46 C.F.R. Part 502. This proceeding involves a formal complaint and reparations claim arising from the unjust and unreasonable shipping, documentation, and delivery practices of FMC-regulated Ocean Transportation Intermediaries (OTIs) operating in the foreign commerce of the United States.

II. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

A. The Contract and the Shipment

6. In or around mid-2025, Complainant entered into a contract with AMOOV Group for door-to-door carriage of her household goods from Luxembourg to Fort Lauderdale, Florida, and paid AMOOV Group in full for that service. Complainant contracted solely with AMOOV Group and had no contractual relationship with FreightLead or Air 7 Seas.
7. AMOOV Group informed Complainant that delivery would take approximately five weeks from collection of the goods in Luxembourg. Complainant first received the vessel and shipment information for her cargo on December 23, 2025, when FreightLead transmitted it to her, the day after Complainant filed her formal complaint with the Federal Maritime Commission. That information identified the vessel SANTA ROSA, Voyage 529W, from Antwerp, Belgium to Miami, Florida, in container HLBU2790357, under Hapag-Lloyd Sea Waybill No. HLCUANR250620540.

B. Searching for the Cargo

8. When the five-week period elapsed without delivery, Complainant made repeated attempts to obtain the location and status of her cargo from AMOOV Group. On or around November 12, 2025, Complainant received a redacted invoice on FreightLead letterhead, transmitted by AMOOV Group, from which the Bill of Lading number, tracking information, and other operational details had been blacked out. This was the only reference to FreightLead that Complainant received before her representative visited FreightLead's office on November 13, 2025.

9. By mid-November 2025, AMOOV Group's operational staff had become unavailable, and on January 16, 2026, AMOOV Group Limited announced insolvency proceedings in Hong Kong.

C. Visit to FreightLead's Office and Contact with Air 7 Seas

10. On November 13, 2025, Complainant's representative David Thomas Driscoll visited FreightLead's office at 20 E Halsey Road, Parsippany, NJ, after Complainant's attempts to contact FreightLead had gone unanswered. A FreightLead staff member referred Complainant's representative to an individual identified as "Nelson" at Air 7 Seas as the contact concerning the shipment, and permitted him to photograph a handwritten note bearing the Air 7 Seas name and Nelson's contact information. FreightLead provided no shipping documentation.
11. Beginning November 13, 2025, Complainant, through her representative Robert Prior, contacted Nelson at Air 7 Seas by telephone and email, requesting release of the cargo and production of shipping documentation.

D. Air 7 Seas' Payment Demand

12. Air 7 Seas demanded that Complainant pay for the release of her cargo, but stated two different amounts within two days: $22,515.00 in writing on December 16, 2025, and $22,580.00 by invoice on December 18, 2025. Air 7 Seas did not explain the discrepancy and provided no documentation supporting either amount. Complainant had no contractual relationship with Air 7 Seas and no obligation to pay any charge owed by AMOOV Group to Air 7 Seas.

E. The FMC Complaint and Release of the Cargo

13. On December 22, 2025, Complainant filed a formal complaint with the Federal Maritime Commission. Her cargo had by then been withheld from delivery for approximately four months from its arrival at the Port of Miami on or about August 19, 2025.
14. On December 26, 2025, Complainant's cargo was released upon her direct payment of $6,080.00 to Lifestyle Moving and Storage. Complainant made no payment to Air 7 Seas, and the demanded sum of $22,580.00 was not paid by Complainant to any party.

F. Damages

15. Upon delivery on December 26, 2025, Complainant discovered that her mattress, purchased in Europe at a cost of 5,050.00 Euros, had been folded in half during storage or handling, destroying it.
16. As a result of the withholding, Complainant incurred the following documented costs: $6,080.00 in storage and release charges paid to Lifestyle Moving and Storage; $2,732.00 in moving, delivery, deposit, and gratuity charges paid to Gentle Giants Moving Company; $908.43 for a mattress purchased in December 2025; $2,537.71 for a couch; and $882.18 in additional household items supported by retained receipts. These documented losses total $13,140.32, exclusive of the 5,050.00 Euro property damage.

Complainant claims only amounts supported by documentation; the total accordingly understates her actual losses.

III. CLAIMS FOR RELIEF UNDER 46 U.S.C. § 41102(c) AND 46 C.F.R. § 545.4

17. Element One (46 C.F.R. § 545.4(a)). FreightLead (FMC License No. 028157NF) and Air 7 Seas (FMC License No. 002724) are licensed non-vessel-operating common carriers, and AMOOV Group acted as an ocean transportation intermediary in the foreign commerce of the United States. Each Respondent participated in the receiving, handling, storing, or delivering of Complainant's property as set forth above.
18. Element Two (46 C.F.R. § 545.4(b)). The acts and omissions occurred on a normal, customary, and continuous basis. From the arrival of Complainant's cargo at the Port of Miami on or about August 19, 2025 through its release on December 26, 2025, a period of approximately four months, Respondents continuously withheld Complainant's cargo and withheld shipping documentation, reflecting the manner in which they handled Complainant's shipment throughout that period.
19. Element Three (46 C.F.R. § 545.4(c)). The practices related directly to the receiving, handling, storing, and delivering of Complainant's property. FreightLead received Complainant's container from the terminal, stripped the cargo, and transported it to a warehouse; Air 7 Seas confirmed receipt of the cargo, arranged for its storage, and conditioned its delivery upon payment; and AMOOV Group directed the handling, storage, and conditional release of the cargo.
20. Element Four (46 C.F.R. § 545.4(d)). The practices were unjust and unreasonable. Respondents withheld Complainant's household goods for approximately four months although Complainant owed no debt to any Respondent. Air 7 Seas demanded $22,580.00 from Complainant, with whom it had no contract, as a condition of release. The demanded amount was stated inconsistently, as $22,515.00 on December 16, 2025 and $22,580.00 on December 18, 2025, and has never been supported by documentation, either before the filing of Complainant's formal complaint or at any time since. AMOOV Group's written instructions prohibited FreightLead and Air 7 Seas from contacting Complainant directly, and no instruction from AMOOV Group relieved FreightLead or Air 7 Seas of their independent duties under 46 U.S.C. § 41102(c). Upon the filing of Complainant's formal complaint, the cargo was released without payment of the demanded sum, establishing that Respondents were able to release the property at all times.

21. Element Five (46 C.F.R. § 545.4(e)). Respondents' practices were the proximate cause of Complainant's documented losses, totaling $13,140.32 in United States dollars plus the United States dollar equivalent of 5,050.00 Euros. Complainant further seeks additional amounts pursuant to 46 U.S.C. § 41305(c), such that total recovery does not exceed twice the amount of Complainant's actual injury, together with interest pursuant to 46 U.S.C. § 41305(a).

IV. PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Complainant Nancy Prior respectfully requests that the Commission enter an order:

- (a) Finding that Respondents AMOOV Group, FreightLead LLC, and Air 7 Seas Transport Logistics, Inc. violated 46 U.S.C. § 41102(c) and 46 C.F.R. § 545.4 by engaging in unjust and unreasonable practices relating to the receiving, handling, storing, and delivering of Complainant's property;

(b) Ordering Respondents to pay Complainant reparations for actual injury in the total amount of $13,140.32 in documented United States dollar losses, plus the United States dollar equivalent of 5,050.00 Euros for property damage sustained while in Respondents' custody, together with interest at commercial rates compounded from the date of injury pursuant to 46 U.S.C. § 41305(a) and (b);

(c) Ordering Respondents to pay additional amounts pursuant to 46 U.S.C. § 41305(c), such that total recovery does not exceed twice the amount of Complainant's actual injury;

(d) Ordering Respondents to pay Complainant's reasonable costs and expenses incurred in connection with this proceeding pursuant to 46 U.S.C. § 41305(e);

(e) Granting an oral hearing in this matter, to be held in Fort Lauderdale, Florida, or at such other location, or by videoconference, as the Presiding Officer deems appropriate, pursuant to 46 C.F.R. § 502.62(a)(5); and

(f) Granting any further lawful relief the Commission deems just and proper.
