Office of Administrative Law Judges

ORLEANS INTERNATIONAL, INC., Complainant

v.

HAPAG LLOYD AG, Respondent.

DOCKET NO. 26-04

Served: September 3, 2026

ORDER OF: Richard AMBROW, Administrative Law Judge.

ORDER GRANTING JOINT MOTION FOR ENTRY OF PROTECTIVE ORDER

On September 2, 2026, the parties filed a Joint Motion for Entry of Protective Order (“JMPO”).

The JPMO states that “a protective order is necessary and required to enable the Parties to fully respond to discovery requests, which may cover information and documents that are confidential, proprietary, and/or commercially sensitive.” (JPMO, at 1).

The Initial Order issued in this proceeding states that: “The parties may agree and stipulate between themselves regarding treatment of confidential documents and information obtained during discovery that is not filed with the Commission. The parties may, but are not required to, file a courtesy copy of the agreement with the Commission.” (Initial Order, at 7).

The proposed protective order is reasonable. The parties, however, should note that confidential materials filed in the proceeding are addressed in the Initial Order:

32. Use in the proceeding – If confidential information is filed in a memorandum or as an exhibit to a dispositive motion or as part of briefing on the merits, it must be accompanied by a motion justifying confidential treatment. This motion must identify each item for which protection is sought and show good cause by demonstrating that the information is a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information. (46 C.F.R. § 502.141(j)(1)). The burden is on the party seeking to protect the information to show good cause for its protection.

(Initial Order, at 7). Similarly, entire transcripts of depositions may not be designated confidential when used in this proceeding, despite any conflicting terms in this protective order. (Id.). Moreover, to the extent that the proposed protective order refers to filing dates or otherwise conflict with the Commission’s Rules, the Commission’s Rules shall apply.

The parties should note that after the initial decision is issued, the Presiding Officer may not have authority to rule on issues arising from the proceeding, and that cannot be changed by agreement between the parties.

The parties have established good cause to enter the proposed protective order. Accordingly, the Joint Motion is GRANTED, and it is hereby ORDERED that the protective order be entered as modified by the above as an order in this proceeding.
