

BEFORE THE
FEDERAL MARITIME COMMISSION

DOCKET NO. 26-05

WORLDLOG, LLC dba WCM WORLDWIDE.,

COMPLAINANT,

v.

UNITED CARGO MANAGEMENT, INC.

RESPONDENT.

RESPONDENT’S MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO RESPOND

On April 15, 2026, Complainant Worldlog, LLC dba WCM Worldwide (“Complainant” or “Worldlog”) filed a Verified Complaint against United Cargo Management, Inc. (“Respondent” or “UCM”), alleging violations of the Shipping Act and Federal Maritime Commission (“Commission”) regulations.

A Respondent is permitted 25 days after the date of service of the Complaint to file a responsive pleading.¹ Motions for enlargement of time may be granted upon a showing of good cause, and if filed less than seven (7) days before the scheduled filing date, may be considered where reasonable grounds for the failure to meet this requirement are found.²

² 46 C.F.R. § 502.102(a)

UCM's responsive pleading is currently due on Monday, May 11, 2026. However, undersigned counsel was only just retained this week and thus there are reasonable grounds for the failure to file this subject Motion more than seven (7) days before the deadline.

Further, with respect to good cause for the extension of the time to file a responsive pleading, undersigned counsel requires time to review the facts of this matter in order to respond to the allegations in the Complaint, particularly in light of the related and intertwined litigation currently proceeding before the U.S. District Court for the District of South Carolina (2:25-cv-04501-DCN). The South Carolina matter is composed of a South Carolina state court action brought by Complainant Worldlog that was removed to federal court, and has been consolidated with a federal action originating in the U.S. District Court for the Central District of California, Western Division (2:25-cv-03588) brought by Respondent. Granting the extension will promote judicial efficiency by permitting Respondent to respond precisely to the allegations, thus appropriately outlining the areas of disagreement and avoiding the need for amended filings. An extension of the time to respond will not cause any undue delay, disadvantage, or prejudice to either party. Accordingly, Respondent submits that good cause exists to grant the enlargement of time.

The Parties conferred regarding this matter on May 6, 2026, in accordance with 46 C.F.R. § 502.71(a), and Complainant does not oppose Respondent's request for an enlargement of thirty (30) additional days to file a responsive pleading.

Accordingly, for the reasons set forth above, Respondent respectfully requests that the Motion for Extension of Time to Respond be granted, with Respondent's deadline to file a responsive pleading be extended to June 10, 2026.

Dated: May 7, 2026

Respectfully Submitted,
